PREFACE

THE ENGLISH HYMNAL is a collection of the best hymns in the English language, and is offered as a humble companion to the Book of Common Prayer for use in the Church. It is not a party-book, expressing this or that phase of negation or excess, but an attempt to combine in one volume the worthiest expressions of all that lies within the Christian Creed, from those 'ancient Fathers' who were the earliest hymn-writers down to contemporary exponents of modern aspirations and ideals.

We therefore offer the book to all broad-minded men, in the hope that every one will find within these pages the hymns which he rightly wants. At the same time, since literary, musical, and religious standards vary, a really inclusive collection must of necessity be larger than the needs of each particular individual: hymn books, indeed, afford special facilities in this respect, because those who use them can select according to their requirements. Such a method of selection we have ourselves suggested in the Musical Edition by a List of simple hymns, which may satisfy the ordinary needs of many parishes; while we have also arranged a Table of hymns for all the Sundays and Holy-days of the year, which covers the whole ground. Thus we have endeavoured to produce a book that shall suit the needs of learned and simple alike, and shall at the same time exhibit the characteristic virtue of hymnody,—its witness, namely, to the fact that in the worship of God Christians are drawn the closer together as they are drawn more closely to the one Lord. In Christian song Churches have forgotten their quarrels and men have lost their limitations, because they have reached the higher ground where the soul is content to affirm and to adore. The hymns of Christendom show more clearly than anything else that there is even now such a thing as the unity of the Spirit.

Little explanation is needed of the principles which governed the selection and arrangement of the hymns. The new work, inserted in every case to fill an acknowledged gap or to introduce a tune of special excellence, must stand or fall on its merits. One feature, however, requires a word of comment. Hymns are printed, wherever possible, as their authors wrote them. To many it will be a surprise to find that the ascription of a hymn to this or that author, when it was given at all in hymnals of the last century, was very often misleading. The public now has the opportunity of comparing many originals with their altered versions; and few, we venture to predict, will deny that they had been altered for the worse. Occasionally, indeed, the music requires the removal of an extra word if a hymn is to be used at all, as for instance in Neale's hymn, No. 137 (The Day of Resurrection), and in Milton's, No. 532 (Let us, with a gladsome mind); but although these hymns are marked as altered, none of their characteristic epithets have been changed. Sometimes alterations are justified for other reasons; and some translations are the work of several hands. But, apart from such exceptional cases, the efforts, so often made in the past to improve the work of competent authors, have had the inevitable result. The freshness and strength of the originals have been replaced by stock phrases and commonplace sentiments; and injury has been done to the quality of our public worship as well as to the memory of great hymn-writers.

A Hymn Book that is offered as a companion to the Book of Common Prayer must provide adequately not only for Sundays but also for all those other Holy-days which in the Prayer Book are ordered to be observed precisely in the same way as Sundays. The Office Hymns for the Saints' Days 'to be observed' are therefore given, as well as many suitable modern hymns: to these have been added the hymns for the Minor Saints' Days of the Anglican Calendar (since it is a common practice to sing a hymn as a memorial of such days), although we recognize the fact that as there is no Office for such days in the Prayer Book they can have no Office Hymn in the strict sense of the word.

The Hymns marked 'Office Hymn' are translations from those appointed in the ancient choir-services of the English Church. In suggesting these as specially suitable, by placing them out of the alphabetical order under a special heading, we have followed the example of the Reformers, who went to the same source for our present Offices of Morning and Evening Prayer. Very many of these hymns are already well known, thanks to the good work of former hymnals; but there remained many Sundays and other days for which the proper hymns were not provided. There is indeed no need for all the hymns of all the ancient services, such as the hymns for both Mattins and Lauds on every occasion; but there is a legitimate demand for all those hymns which belong to the services of Morning and Evening Prayer, according to the Prayer Book Calendar. The need has long been felt of such a complete set of these ancient hymns, which in their Scriptural simplicity and sober dignity represent the deep Christian experience of more than a thousand years. This need we have now supplied, endeavouring where new translations were required to convey as faithfully as possible the spirit of the originals, so that in these hymns also the authors should speak for themselves.

Thus we have made complete provision for the liturgical requirements of Churchmen, while we have at the same time added many modern hymns of the first rank which have not hitherto been at their disposal. In so doing we have attempted to redress those defects in popular hymnody which are deeply felt by thoughtful men; for the best hymns of Christendom are as free as the Bible from the self-centred sentimentalism, the weakness and unreality which mark inferior productions. The great hymns, indeed, of all ages abound in the conviction that duty lies at the heart of the Christian life—a double duty to God and to our neighbour; and such hymns, like the Prayer Book, are for all sorts and conditions of men.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

The book is divided into twelve parts, and the hymns are arranged alphabetically in each part or section, so that they may be readily found. In Parts I to III, the Office Hymns for each occasion are placed first, and after them the other hymns follow in alphabetical order. Part X is divided into two sections: the first consists of hymns and prayers arranged so that processions may be definite acts of prayer and worship, after the manner of the Prayer Book Litany and the older processions upon which it is based; the second contains other hymns that are suitable for use in processions. The Metrical Litanies in Part XI are similarly arranged, so that they form complete acts of prayer. Part XII consists of liturgical prose pieces, which are arranged in their natural order.

The heading 'OFFICE HYMN' shows that the original was the Office Hymn for the corresponding service in the Salisbury service-books, except in the case of No. 175, which is taken from those of York. The letters 'E.' and 'M.' stand for Evensong and Mattins, the first Evensong being that on the day before the festival. When these letters occur twice for the same festival or season ('E.' and 'M.', 'M.' and 'E.'), the first 'E.' denotes the hymn for the first Evensong, and the second 'E.' the Evensong on the day itself; while the first 'M.' shows that the hymn anciently belonged to Mattins only, and the second 'M.' stands over the hymn that belonged to Lauds: as our present Mattins occupies the place of the older Mattins and Lauds, either hymn is equally suitable.

The names and dates of all authors are given, in so far as they are known. Initials only are provided in the case of living translators, whose names are given in the Index of Authors, and in the case of a few living authors. The letters 'Tr.' are prefixed to the names of all translators. The number of the Psalm (Ps.) is given in the case of paraphrases, though it must be remembered that some paraphrases are extremely free, while others are based upon one or two verses only of a Psalm.

Where the author's or translator's name has no mark, the hymn is unaltered or has been revised by the author himself. The sign '†' shows that an alteration has been made in one line only; the sign '‡' denotes alterations in two or three lines. To hymns that are the work of more than one writer a second name is given, or the words 'and others' are added. Translations which have no one special source are marked 'Tr. cento.' Alterations in spelling are not marked, nor is any note made of the omission of verses, nor do the statements as to authorship refer to the doxologies.

In the case of long hymns and of hymns with slow tunes, the sign '*' is prefixed to those verses which may be most conveniently omitted. It does not follow that verses so marked are considered in any way inferior, but only that they can be omitted without doing violence to the context.

Choruses and refrains are printed once for all in italic. 'Amen' is only printed with doxologies. In the case of other hymns its use is sometimes appropriate and sometimes not; but in the Musical Edition it is given with its musical setting in every case except that of sequences, so that it can be sung when desired. The verses are numbered, and in order to show when the last verse of a hymn is reached at the bottom of a page, a full point is in every case printed after the number of the last verse.

The Introits are given in Part XII, and as in some churches other Scriptural passages from the older Liturgy are occasionally used, these also are for convenience given in full. They follow the Introit, and are marked by letters which are explained in a note at the head of this Part.

Special thanks are due to the Rev. G. H. Palmer for permission to use his version of the Introits, and to Mr. E. W. Goldsmith for his revision of the Grails, &c.; and we are under a very great obligation to Mr. Robert Bridges, for permission to use no fewer than thirteen hymns from the Yattendon Hymnal.

We have spared no effort to discover the owners of all copyright hymns; but if through inadvertence any should have been overlooked, we desire to offer our apologies, and to promise that the omitted acknowledgement shall be inserted at the earliest opportunity.

We cannot exaggerate our indebtedness to Dr. Julian's Dictionary of Hymnology, a monumental work, without which we could not have reached the high standard of accuracy, as to both texts and authorship, which we set before us when entering upon our labours. We are also exceedingly grateful to Dr. Julian personally, and to the sub-editor of the Dictionary, the Rev. J. Mearns, for their most valuable assistance and information on many doubtful points.

Amidst a very large number of scholars, experts, and other friends who have materially lightened our labours, we must make special mention of the Very Rev. Dr. Furneaux, Dean of Winchester, and Mr. Arthur Reynolds, on whose taste and judgement we have often relied.

One member of the Committee, the late Rev. W. H. H. Jervois, was called to his rest shortly after the printing of the book was begun. We cannot therefore place his name among our own, but we dedicate to the memory of our friend the work in which he bore so large a share.

THE MUSIC

THE music of this hymnal is divided into two main sections; the plainsong melodies and the comparatively modern music. The modern music only is dealt with here. The plainsong is discussed separately.

THE CHOICE OF MATERIAL.

The music is intended to be essentially congregational in character, and this end has been kept in view both in the choice of tunes and in the manner of setting them out. Fine melody rather than the exploitation of a trained choir has been the criterion of selection: the pitch of each tune has been kept as low as is consistent with the character of the melody.

Where there is congregational singing it is important that familiar melodies should be employed, or at least those which have stood the test of time: therefore the 'specially composed tune'—that bane of many a hymnal—has been avoided as far as possible. There are already many hundreds of fine tunes in existence, so many indeed that it is impossible to include more than a small part of them in any one collection.

The task of providing congregations with familiar tunes is difficult; for, unfortunately, many of the tunes of the present day which have become familiar and, probably merely from association, popular with congregations are quite unsuitable to their purpose. More often than not they are positively harmful to those who sing and hear them. The committee were therefore placed in the hard position of having to decide whether they should risk momentary unpopularity by discarding certain tunes, or whether they should sacrifice the greater ultimate good for the lesser and more immediate advantage. The problem, however, solved itself in a happy and unforeseen manner because the insertion of several of the tunes in question was not allowed by the owners of the copyright. Thus the committee, while regretting that they are not able for a few years to include such beautiful tunes as Dykes' 'Dominus regit me' or Stainer's 'In Memoriam', yet feel that nothing but gain can result from the exclusion of certain other tunes, which are worthy neither of the congregations who sing them, the occasions on which they are sung, nor the composers who wrote them.

The committee believe that many clergymen and organists are now realizing their responsibility in this matter, and will welcome a tune-book in which enervating tunes are reduced to a minimum. The usual argument in favour of bad music is that the fine tunes are doubtless 'musically correct', but that the people want 'something simple'. Now the expression 'musically correct' has no meaning; the only 'correct' music is that which is beautiful and noble. As for simplicity, what could be simpler than 'St. Anne' or 'The Old Hundredth', and what could be finer?

It is indeed a moral rather than a musical issue. No doubt it requires a certain effort to tune oneself to the moral atmosphere implied by a fine melody; and it is far easier to dwell in the miasma of the languishing and sentimental hymn tunes which so often disfigure our services. Such poverty of heart may not be uncommon, but at least it should not be encouraged by those who direct the services of the Church; it ought no longer to be true anywhere that the most exalted moments of a church-goer's week are associated with music that would not be tolerated in any place of secular entertainment.

There are, however, many who recognize this bad state of things, but are timid about removing old favourites. Those who have this fear should remember that most of our 'old favourites' are of very recent growth, dating at the earliest from the year 1861—a very short life for a hymn tune; also that it does not take more than a couple of years to make a tune which congregations like into an 'old favourite', and furthermore that it is not by any means necessarily bad music which is popular. The average congregation likes fine melody when it can get it, but it is apt to be undiscriminating, and will often take to bad melody when good is not forthcoming. Is it not worth while making a vigorous effort to-day for the sake of establishing a good tradition? Especially should this be the case with children's hymns. Children at all events have no old association with any particular tune, and incalculable good or harm may be done by the music which they sing in their most impressionable years.

An attempt has been made to set a minimum standard in the music selected for this work. This does not mean that austerity has been unduly sought, or that difficult and colourless music has been preferred to that which is vigorous and bright. A tune has no more right to be dull than to be demoralizing. Indeed, anxiety to ensure the co-operation of the congregation may have caused the boundary to be occasionally overstepped, so that a few tunes have been retained which ought to have been rejected, but on this borderland individual tastes must necessarily differ, and the committee have done their best to select the most suitable tune for each hymn. To make the possibilities of selection wider, numerous cross-references have been given, which should be freely used, and a short appendix is added of alternative tunes to certain hymns for the use of those who do not agree with the choice of the musical editor.

THE MANNER OF PERFORMANCE.

(a) Pitch.—The pitch of all the tunes has been fixed as low as possible for the sake of mixed congregations. Except in the case of tunes with an extended compass the highest note is not above D or E \flat . Some choirmasters may object to this on the ground that it places the hymns in the worst part of the boy-chorister's voice, and that it takes the basses and altos rather low. The obvious answer is that hymns are essentially for the congregation; the choir have their opportunity elsewhere, but in the hymn they must give way to the congregation, and it is a great mistake to suppose that the result will be inartistic. A large body of voices singing together makes a distinctly artistic effect, though that of each individual voice might be the opposite. And it may be added that a desire to parade a trained choir often accompanies a debased musical taste.

PREFACE

Where a tune occurs twice in the book it is usually given in two different keys, and in one or two cases a higher version of certain well-known tunes is given in the appendix. If this is not sufficient it is always possible to transpose the tunes to a higher key. Where a tune is only given once it is obvious why it should be printed in a lower key. Such a key is particularly suitable for village churches where the organist is rarely able to transpose. On the other hand, in churches where it is desired to give the first consideration to a trained choir, the organist will certainly be competent to transpose at sight into the key desired.

(b) Unison singing.—Every hymn is so arranged that it can be sung in unison accompanied by the organ. Certain verses are marked as being specially suitable for unison singing, and it is suggested that the first verse of most hymns should be sung in unison as well as all the doxologies. In any case the congregation must always sing the melody, and the melody only.

In these circumstances it has been thought advisable occasionally to introduce harmonizations (especially those of J. S. Bach) rather more elaborate than usual. These will no doubt add greatly to the beauty and the popularity of the tunes. If some choirs find them difficult the tunes can be sung in unison accompanied by the organ; the organist will find no difficulty in playing them, if they are taken at the proper speed. It is a great mistake to suppose that untrained musicians are insensible to fine harmony. They may not be able to analyse the effect, but there can be no doubt that a well-harmonized tune makes a more powerful appeal than one in which the harmonies are bad or unsuitable. Choirs would be much better occupied in learning these beautiful settings of Bach (which are not hard if practised a little) than in rehearsing vulgar anthems by indifferent composers.

(c) Choir and people.—There are churches in which the experiment has been successfully tried of making choir and people sing some hymns antiphonally. By this means the people are given a distinct status in the services, and are encouraged to take an intelligent interest in the music they sing, while the eternal war between choir and congregation, each considering the other an unnecessary appendage to the services of the church, is done away with.

The congregation might be encouraged to sing and appreciate the finer melodies if a system of monthly congregational practices were held, at which the less known tunes could be made familiar in some such way as the following :—The first two verses might be sung by the choir alone, or some body of singers with good voices who already knew the melody: at the third verse the congregation would be invited to join in, and would finally sing a verse unaided by the trained singers. A hymn recital, at which some of the less familiar hymns might be sung by the choir, would also be a pleasant variety from the Sunday evening organ recital.

(d) Speed.—The present custom in English churches is to sing hymns much too fast. It is distressing to hear ‘Nun Danket’ or ‘St. Anne’ raced through at about twice the proper speed. Metronome marks are added to each hymn, which, the editor believes, indicate the proper speed in a fairly large building with a congregation of average size. The speed indications should not be judged at the pianoforte.

Another painful experience is to hear an organist trying to play through a C.M. or L.M. tune in absolutely strict time, regardless of the slight pauses which the congregation, with unconscious artistic insight, are inclined to make at the end of every line. Pauses have been marked wherever they should be made, and a sign , has also been extensively used to designate a very short break, less than the ordinary pause (˘). Sometimes ˘ and , are used together, signifying a pause as well as a complete break in the sound.

Some of the hymns are marked to be sung ‘in free rhythm’. This direction is especially applicable to unmeasured tunes, but all hymn tunes should be sung more or less freely; at all events a stiff clock-work rendering should be avoided. If this is borne in mind, and the hymns are not sung too fast, the bad effect will be largely avoided of those false accents which inevitably occur when several verses of a hymn are sung to the same tune.

(e) Expression.—Expression marks have been altogether omitted, as it is considered that subtleties of expression are entirely unsuitable for congregational singing. The organist can use his own judgement as to the general dynamics of each verse, and convey his idea to the congregation by his registering. All sudden ‘pianos’ or small ‘crescendos’ and ‘diminuendos’ should be avoided as destroying the broad and massive effect which congregational singing should convey.

(f) Notation.—Both minims and crotchets have been employed, the former for the slower and more solemn hymns and the latter for those of a brighter nature. The point of division has been fixed at M. 85 for hymns in duple time, and 100 in triple time in the more ordinary hymns, but special rules have been framed to govern special cases.

SOURCES OF THE MELODIES.

No particular country, period, or school has been exclusively drawn upon to supply material, but an attempt has been made to include the best specimens of every style. In settling the form which each melody shall take, no rules have been made, but each case has been decided on its merits. The object has been to print the finest version of every tune, not necessarily the earliest. Thus the later forms of ‘Wachet Auf’, ‘Nun Danket’, and ‘London New’, to give a few examples, have been preferred to the originals. But the old method of mutilating tunes to suit new metres has been as far as possible avoided—only in one or two cases have a composer’s rhythms been very slightly adapted, and then for some very special purpose. In cases where such a slight adaptation from a composer’s rhythm is made the general outline is never destroyed, so that the original can at any time be restored without disturbing a congregation. But adaptations already made have been occasionally retained when the result is a fine and popular tune: thus ‘Dix’, ‘Narenza’, and ‘Ravenshaw’ have not been discarded, though the fact of their adaptation is duly acknowledged. On the other hand the committee are glad to be able to restore the true metres of such tunes as 'Innsbruck', 'Weimar', or 'Les commandemens', which have been disfigured into dullness in so many hymnals.

The original rhythms of many of the old psalter tunes have also been restored, especially the long initial on the first syllable, which gives such a broad and dignified effect to these tunes. Attempts to adapt them to the procrustean bed of the nineteenth century hymn tune have merely taken away their character and made them appear dull. For the same reason no attempt has been made to square the irregular times of some tunes. These irregularities are always easy to sing by ear—and this is the way in which a hymn melody should be learnt—so that choirmasters should not let the fear of what may appear to be irregular deter them from using many splendid and essentially congregational melodies.

A. GERMAN.—(1) Lutheran chorale tunes 16th and 17th centuries. (2) Tunes from the 16th and 17th century Catholic song books (chiefly Leisentritt's, 1567, and the Andernach Gesangbuch, 1608). (3) Tunes of the 18th century, chiefly by Bach and Freylinghausen. (4) Modern German tunes. (5) German traditional melodies.

B. FRENCH AND SWISS.—(1) Tunes from the Genevan Psalters of the 16th century. (2) Ecclesiastical melodies from the paroissiens of various French uses (chiefly those of Rouen and Angers). (3) French and Swiss traditional melodies.

C. ITALIAN, SPANISH, FLEMISH, DUTCH.—Ecclesiastical, traditional, and other melodies from these countries are also included.

D. AMERICAN.—Among American tunes may be mentioned Lowell Mason's tunes, certain tunes from 'Sacred Songs and Solos' and a few 'Western melodies' in use in America as hymn tunes.

E. BRITISH ISLES.—I. Ireland. (1) Irish traditional melodies. (2) Tunes by Irish composers.

PREFACE

II. Scotland. (1) Melodies from the Scottish Psalters of the 16th and 17th centuries. (2) Melodies from the Scottish tune-books of the 18th and 19th centuries. (3) Scottish traditional melodies.

III. Wales. (1) Archdeacon Prys' Psalter, which contains the famous tune 'St. Mary'. (2) Welsh traditional melodies. (3) Tunes by 18th and 19th century Welsh composers, which partake decidedly of the nature of their traditional melodies.

IV. England. (1) Tunes from Day's, Damon's, Este's, Ravenscroft's, and Playford's Psalters of the 16th and 17th centuries (the original versions of these, with the melody in the tenor, are occasionally included as alternatives to the modern version). (2) Tunes by Tallis, Gibbons, Lawes, &c., from their own collections. (3) Tunes from 18th century books—especially those by J. Clark and Dr. Croft. (4) English carol, and other traditional melodies. (5) Tunes by 19th and 20th century composers.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

The committee desire to thank most heartily those who have composed tunes especially for this collection: Mr. W. H. Bell (225, 546); Dr. H. Walford Davies (454); Mr. T. F. Dunhill (650); Mr. Nicholas Gatty, Mus. Bac. (22 ii, 146); Mr. A. M. Goodhart, Mus. Bac. (559); Mr. G. von Holst (25, 310, 571); Mr. J. N. Ireland (520); Sir Walter Parratt, Mus. Doc. M.V.O. (270); Dr. Arthur Somervell (522, 566 590). The copyright of these tunes belongs to the composers.

Also the following who have kindly allowed their compositions to be included in this hymnal: Rev. Maurice F. Bell (649); Rev. C. Bicknell (619); Mr. A. H. Brown (117 [r. 316], 276, 651); Rev. E. W. The following versions of traditional melodies are the copyright of the musical editor: 15, 23, 186 [r. 611], 239 [r. 385], 295, 299 [r. 572 and 594], 402, 525, 562, 595, 597, 607. The following tunes are the copyright of the committee: 152, 524, 624 ii, 641 i, App. 16.

The musical editor has spared no pains to discover the owners of copyright tunes. If any of these have by inadvertence been omitted from the above list he begs to offer his sincere apologies. He also desires to thank all those who have kindly submitted tunes which he has not been able to include.

The musical editor wishes specially to thank Mr. Nicholas Gatty, Mus. Bac., and Mr. G. von Holst, who have throughout been closely associated with him in the selection, arrangement, and correction of the musical portion of the book; also the following who have helped in harmonizing many of the tunes: Mr. W. H. Bell, Mr. T. F. Dunhill, Mr. E. W. Goldsmith, Mr. W. H. Harris, Mus. Bac., and Mr. J. N. Ireland.

He also wishes to acknowledge his indebtedness to the Rev. J. B. Croft, who has kindly placed his great knowledge and experience of French ecclesiastical melodies at his service; also to the Rev. Hugh Davies, L.T.S.C. (Pencerdd Maelor), editor of 'Caniadau y Cyssegr a'r Teulu'; and the Rev. W. L. Richards, editor of 'Emyniadur yr Eglwys yng Nghymru'; for much valuable information concerning Welsh hymn melodies; also to Dr. H. P. Allen, Rev. A. M. Y. Baylay, Rev. Maurice F. Bell, Mr. E. W. Goldsmith, Rev. G. H. Palmer, and Mr. Arthur Reynolds for much advice and assistance.

THE PLAINSONG MELODIES

THE plainsong melodies contained in this book have, as far as possible, been taken from English sources, as seemed only natural and right in the case of an 'English Hymnal'. Those for the Office Hymns are, without exception, taken from the MS. versions of the Sarum Antiphoner. Those in Part X are taken from the Sarum Processionale, as is also the music of No. 737. The Easter Gradual and Alleluya, 738, which takes the place of an Office Hymn at Evensong on Easter Day and the five following evenings, is taken from the Sarum Antiphoner: but inasmuch as the Versicles in the ancient books changed each day, and it was impossible to find space for them all, it was thought best to give those from the Gradual and Alleluya of Easter Day from the Sarum Graduale, the words of which obviously formed the first of the whole series throughout the week. Of other plainsong melodies contained in the book, 10, 22, and 130 are taken from the Sarum Graduale, 155 and 351 from the Gradual edited by the Benedictines of Solesmes and printed at Tournay in 1883, and 317 from the Ghent Graduale. The rest (172, 253, 735, 736, 739, 740) are taken from various more or less ancient sources, mostly French.

The accompaniments to the plainsong have been given throughout in 'white notes', each note in the melody being represented in the treble by a minim, either in single notes, or joined into groups by a quaver bind, or tied by a slur, so as to correspond, note by note, and group by group, with the neumatic notation contained in the plainsong stave above. Although, from its association with the minim in modern music, this manner of notation has the disadvantage of suggesting a slower and heavier mode of execution than that which is proper to plainsong, it seemed better to adhere to a well known convention than to attempt to reproduce the free and rapid rhythm of the mediaeval melodies by new conventions of crotchets and quavers, or of semiquavers, which either run the risk of confusion between their relative values in modern music, or else involve a very complicated and bewildering system of slurring. If it be remembered that, while the notes in the plainsong stave itself take their rhythm and form from the words to which they are sung, the accompaniment takes its time and rhythm solely from the plainsong (and not vice versa), and if it be further remembered that every note in plainsong is (in itself) equal and short, and that a single note, or a simple group of two or three notes, correspond as nearly as possible in execution to the letters, one, two, or three, of a syllable in language well read or spoken, the desired effect will be produced¹. The lower parts of the accompaniment, while noted in minims, semibreves, and breves in relation to the melody which they accompany, must of course take their time from the free rhythm of the latter. In order to emphasize the complete dependence for its time and rhythm upon the plainsong melody, no attempt has been made in the accompaniment to indicate, by means of pauses or other marks of expression, any details with regard to execution beyond those which already find their place in the plainsong stave. The correct phrasing of plainsong can never be arrived at by means of analogies from measured music set forth in modern notation; it is a separate art in itself, and like other arts has its own methods which require and deserve careful study and instruction, and cannot be otherwise acquired.

The plainsong notation employed is similar to that which was revived by the Benedictines at Solesmes about a quarter of a century ago, and corresponds with that in use in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries. No attempt has been made to restore the Quilisma in places where it may or may not have occurred in earlier versions of the hymn melodies than those given in the Sarum choroliturgical MSS. It was also clearly undesirable to use liquefiant notes in the case of hymn melodies which are meant to be used for several verses in which they might or might not accord with the text: and this being so, it seemed best also to omit them entirely in the melodies of the prose portions of the book. The structure and pronunciation of English words differ so much from those of the Latin language, that it seems an open question, which is best decided by each choirmaster, to what extent the rules for gliding over the last letter of diphthongs and double consonants in Latin are applicable to the English language. Even in the case of Latin, Guido of Arezzo tells us that, if the liquefiant note be sung like an ordinary full note, not only no harm will be done, but that, on the contrary, the effect is often all the better¹! The liquefiant note has, therefore, as a general rule been turned into a full note wherever it was an essential part of the melody, while it has been omitted altogether in cases where it was inserted in the MSS. merely as a portamento.

¹ Guidonis Aretini Micrologus, cap. xv 'Igitur quemadmodum in metris sunt litterae et syllabae, partes, ac versus; ita et in harmonia sunt phthongi, id est, soni, quorum unus, duo, vel tres aptantur in syllabas, ipsaeque solae vel duplicates neumam, id est, partem constituunt cantilenae; et pars una vel plures distinctionem faciunt, id est congruum respirationis locum', &c. Now that Guido of Arezzo's Micrologus has been rendered accessible by the learned Benedictine, Dom. A. Amelli's scholarly reprint (Rome, Desclée, Lefebvre et S. Edit. Pont., 1904), every teacher of plainsong should read this chapter, headed 'De comoda componenda modulatione'. It is impossible to treat of the matter further here: all that is to be said on the subject will be found in Dom. Pothier's Mélodies Grégoriennes, chaps. vi-ix. Much useful information with regard to the execution of plainsong will also be found in the preface to A Manual of Gregorian Chant, Desclée, Lefebvre & Co., Tournai, 1903.

With regard to the use of bars and double bars, the bar always represents a pause or half close, corresponding to the ends of the lines of hymns, or to the use of the colon in the Psalter of the Book of Common Prayer. The double bar indicates either a full close, or else a change of voices (e. g. from two clerks to the chorus). In the latter case care must be taken not to make pauses, as if for a full close, in cases where (e. g. page 890) neither the words nor the course of the melody require it.

The half bar has been employed, as in the Solesmes and all other modern editions of plainsong music, for minor pauses in the melody. In the case of melodies set to prose texts it denotes a breath mark; but this is not necessarily the case when it is employed in melodies which are set to metrical words. In this case it denotes the occurrence of the caesura in the line to which it is set, and is not necessarily a pause or a breathmark, but is rather an indication of the metrical structure of the line, and should be treated as such, and no more. In the reciting of Latin Sapphics or Elegiacs a good reader will always make the presence of the caesura felt, and the beauty of the rhythm depends to a great extent upon the relative distribution of accent and quantity in its immediate neighbourhood; but it does not necessarily imply a break in the line, or any such pause as would fitly be represented by a comma or a semicolon. Precisely the same thing is true with regard to the good singing of plainsong melodies set to these metres. They must not be treated as a schoolboy treats his nonsense verses, but they must be fitted intelligently to the text after the manner of good reading.

In connexion with this subject, a few words with regard to two particular instances will not be out of place: viz. the first line of No. 621 and the second line of No. 624. By comparing the Sarum version with other versions of the same lines, it becomes clear that, at some period prior to the introduction of the stave, the neumatic notation of these lines was modified to secure their right phrasing. Thus, in the first line of No. 621, we have a hexameter with the double caesura:—

Glória, laus, | et honor tibi sit, | Rex Christe Redémptor.

The due emphasizing of the first caesura is secured by the double notes on the syllable laus, thus securing a natural pause, and nothing more is here required: while the second caesura is sufficiently marked by the conclusion of one musical phrase and the commencement of another. In the second line of No. 624 we have a pentameter in which the caesura does not correspond with the grammatical punctuation of the line:—

Qua Deus inférnum | vicit, et astra tenet.

In good reading, the caesura will be marked, not by an abrupt break after the syllable vic, but by an extra stress and prolongation of the previous accented syllable of the word: while a slight break after vicit, more of the nature of a dotted note than of a pause, will be quite sufficient to mark the fact that this word belongs to what goes before it, without destroying the rhythm of the line. And this is exactly what the "Redactor" of the Sarum form of this line provided for when he modified the original notes:

Qua De - us in - fer - num vi - cit, et as - tra te - net.

by adding notes to the earlier syllables of the word infernum.

Qua De - us in - fer - num vi - cit, et as - tra te - net.
Day where-in God o'er - came hell, and a - rose from the dead.

These few words of explanation, it is hoped, will help both to illustrate what has been said above as to the nature of the caesura, and also to explain why the same features have been as nearly as possible reproduced in the English translations of these lines. It seemed absurd to retain the peculiarities of the Sarum version of the melody unless one reproduced in the English translation those features of the original Latin text to which these peculiarities are due.

In conclusion, I wish to express my obligations to Mr. W. Phillips, Mus. Doc. (Oxon.), organist of St. Barnabas, Pimlico, for having harmonized nearly half of the plainsong melodies for which I was responsible, and also to Sir Walter Parratt for his constant help and advice throughout the whole undertaking.

W. J. BIRKBECK.

If a modern tune is required for this hymn it may be sung to ANGELS' SONG (No. 259) or ST. AMBROSE (No. 215).

OFFICE HYMN. E.

Conditor alme siderum.

7th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

- CREATOR of the stars of night,
Thy people's everlasting light,
Jesu, Redeemer, save us all,
And hear thy servants when they call.
2 Thou, grieving that the ancient curse
Should doom to death a universe,
- Hast found the medicine, full of grace,
To save and heal a ruined race. [bride,
3 Thou cam'st, the Bridegroom of the
As drew the world to evening-tide;
Proceeding from a virgin shrine,
The spotless Victim all divine:
- 4 At whose dread name, majestic now,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow ;
And things celestial thee shall own,
And things terrestrial, Lord alone.
- 5 O thou whose coming is with dread
To judge and doom the quick and dead,
Preserve us, while we dwell below,
From every insult of the foe.
6. To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Laud, honour, might, and glory be
From age to age eternally. Amen.

OFFICE HYMN. M.

c. 10th cent. Tr. Charles Bigg.

Verbum supernum prodiens.

HIGH Word of God, who once didst come,
 Leaving thy Father and thy home,
 To succour by thy birth our kind,
 When, towards thy advent, time declined,

- 2 Pour light upon us from above,
 And fire our hearts with thy strong love,
 That, as we hear thy Gospel read,
 All fond desires may flee in dread;
- 3 That when thou comest from the skies,
 Great Judge, to open thine assize,
 To give each hidden sin its smart,
 And crown as kings the pure in heart,
- 4 We be not set at thy left hand,
 Where sentence due would bid us stand,
 But with the Saints thy face may see,
 For ever wholly loving thee.

SECOND MODE MELODY. (D. C. M.)

Moderately slow, dignified $d = 69$.

T. TALLIS, c. 1515-1585.

Horologion. c. 8th cent. Tr. G. Moultrie.

'Ιδοὺ ὁ Νυμφίος ἔρχεται.

BEHOLD the Bridegroom cometh in the middle of the night,
And blest is he whose loins are girt, whose lamp is burning bright;
But woe to that dull servant, whom the Master shall surprise
With lamp untrimmed, unburning, and with slumber in his eyes.

2 Do thou, my soul, beware, beware, lest thou in sleep sink down,
Lest thou be given o'er to death, and lose the golden crown ;
But see that thou be sober, with a watchful eye, and thus Cry—'Holy, holy, holy God, have mercy upon us.'

ALTERNATIVE VERSION (melody in the tenor)

TALLIS' Original Version.

The musical score consists of four identical staves, each with a treble clef, a sharp sign indicating G major, and a common time signature. The music is composed of short vertical dashes on a grid, representing organ stops or specific performance instructions. The staves are evenly spaced and aligned vertically.

[This version may be used, in connexion with the other, for one or more verses; it is intended for the CHOIR ALONE and must be sung without the organ. This version should only be attempted by good choirs.]

'KINGSFOLD' (No. 574) is also suitable to this hymn.

3 That day, the day of fear, shall come; my soul, slack not thy toil,
But light thy lamp, and feed it well, and make it bright with oil;
Who knowest not how soon may sound the cry at eventide,
'Behold, the Bridegroom comes! Arise! Go forth to meet the bride.'

4 Beware, my soul; beware, beware, lest thou in slumber lie,
And, like the Five, remain without, and knock, and vainly cry;
But watch, and bear thy lamp undimmed, and Christ shall gird thee on

His own bright wedding-robe of light—the glory of the Son

LUTHER'S HYMN (NUN FREUT EUCH). (87.87.887.)

Slow $\text{♩} = 50.$

Present form of melody by MARTIN LUTHER, 1483-1540.

Unison.

Anon. (1802), W. B. Collyer (1812), T. Cotterill (1819), and others.

GREAT God, what do I see and hear!
The end of things created :
The Judge of mankind doth appear,
On clouds of glory seated ;
The trumpet sounds, the graves restore
The dead which they contained before :
Prepare, my soul, to meet him !

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise
At that last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding ;

No gloomy fears their souls dismay ;
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet him.

3 The ungodly, filled with guilty fears,
Behold his wrath prevailing ;
For they shall rise, and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing :
The day of grace is past and gone ;
Trembling they stand before his throne,
All unprepared to meet him.

4. Great Judge, to thee our prayers we pour,
In deep abasement bending ;
O shield us through that last dread hour,
Thy wondrous love extending.
May we, in this our trial day,
With faithful hearts thy word obey,
And thus prepare to meet thee.

6th cent. Tr. E. Caswall†.

HARK! a herald voice is calling :
'Christ is nigh,' it seems to say ;
'Cast away the dreams of darkness,
O ye children of the day !'

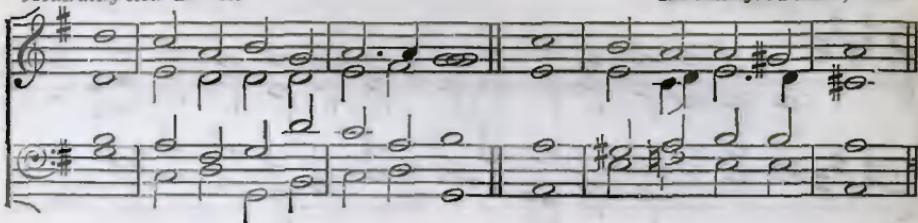

- 2 Startled at the solemn warning,
Let the earth-bound soul arise ;
Christ, her Sun, all sloth dispelling,
Shines upon the morning skies.
- 3 Lo ! the Lamb, so long expected,
Comes with pardon down from heaven ;
Let us haste, with tears of sorrow,
One and all to be forgiven ;
- 4 So when next he comes with glory,
Wrapping all the earth in fear,
May he then as our defender
On the clouds of heaven appear.
5. Honour, glory, virtue, merit,
To the Father and the Son,
With the co-eternal Spirit,
While unending ages run, Amen.

Ravenscroft's Psalter, 1621.*

P. Doddridge, 1702-51.

HARK the glad sound! the Saviour comes,
 The Saviour promised long!
 Let every heart prepare a throne,
 And every voice a song.

2 He comes the prisoners to release
 In Satan's bondage held;
 The gates of brass before him burst,
 The iron fetters yield.

3 He comes the broken heart to bind,
 The bleeding soul to cure,
 And with the treasures of his grace
 To enrich the humble poor.

4. Our glad hosannas, Prince of peace,
 Thy welcome shall proclaim,
 And heaven's eternal arches ring
 With thy beloved name.

HELMSEY. (S7.87.47.)

Moderately slow, very dignified $\text{d} = 69.$

English Melody of the 18th century.

The musical score consists of four staves of handwritten notation. The top two staves are in G major, indicated by a sharp sign. The bottom two staves are in C major, indicated by a circle with a sharp sign. The notation uses vertical stems and horizontal dashes to represent note heads. Various dynamics like 'p' (piano), 'f' (forte), and 'ff' (double forte) are used. Measures include eighth and sixteenth note patterns, along with rests. The score concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots at the end of each staff.

[May be sung in unison throughout.]

This hymn is sometimes sung to ST. THOMAS (No. 623).

ADVENT

C. Wesley (1758) and J. Connick (1750.)

LO! he comes with clouds descending,
Once for favoured sinners slain ;
Thousand thousand Saints attending
Swell the triumph of his train :
Alleluya !
God appears, on earth to reign.

2 Every eye shall now behold him
Robed in dreadful majesty ;
Those who set at nought and sold him,
Pierced and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing
Shall the true Messiah see.

3 Those dear tokens of his passion
Still his dazzling body bears,
Cause of endless exultation
To his ransomed worshippers:
With what rapture
Gaze we on those glorious scars!

Unison. 4. Yea, amen ! let all adore thee,
High on thine eternal throne;
Saviour, take the power and glory:
Claim the kingdom for thine own :
O come quickly !
Alleluya ! Come, Lord, come !

Wachet auf.

WAKE, O wake! with tidings thrilling
The watchmen all the air are filling,
Arise, Jerusalem, arise!
Midnight strikes! no more delaying,
'The hour has come!' we hear them saying.
Where are ye all, ye virgins wise?
The Bridegroom comes in sight,
Raise high your torches bright!
Alleluya!
The wedding song
Swell loud and strong:
Go forth and join the festal throng.

2 Sion hears the watchmen shouting,
Her heart leaps up with joy undoubting,
She stands and waits with eager eyes;
See her Friend from heaven descending,
Adorned with truth and grace unending!
Her light burns clear, her star doth rise.
Now come, thou precious Crown,

By Phillips Brooks, 1835-98.

O LITTLE town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee to-night.

2 O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth;
For Christ is born of Mary;
And, gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.

- 3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming;
But in this world of sin, [still
Where meek souls will receive him,
The dear Christ enters in.
- 4 Where children pure and happy
Pray to the blessed Child,
Where misery cries out to thee,
Son of the mother mild;
Where charity stands watching
And faith holds wide the door,
The dark night wakes, the glory breaks,
And Christmas comes once more.

CHRIStIANS, awake, salute the happy morn,
 Whereon the Saviour of the world was born ;
 Rise to adore the mystery of love,
 Which hosts of Angels chanted from above ;
 With them the joyful tidings first begun
 Of God incarnate and the Virgin's Son :

2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
 Who heard the angelic herald's voice, 'Behold,
 I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
 To you and all the nations upon earth ;
 This day hath God fulfilled his promised word,
 This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord.'

Unison. 3 He spake ; and straightway the celestial choir
 In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire.
 The praises of redeeming love they sang,
 And heaven's whole orb with Alleluyas rang :
 God's highest glory was their anthem still,
 Peace upon earth, and mutual goodwill.

4 To Bethlehem straight the enlightened shepherds ran,
 To see the wonder God had wrought for man,
 And found, with Joseph and the blessed Maid,
 Her Son, the Saviour, in a manger laid ;
 Amazed the wondrous story they proclaim,
 The first apostles of his infant fame.

5. * Like Mary let us ponder in our mind
 God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind ;
 Trace we the Babe, who hath retrieved our loss,
 From his poor manger to his bitter cross ;
 Then may we hope, angelic thrones among,
 To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song.

HARK! the herald Angels sing
Glory to the new-born King;
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled:
Joyful all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies,
With the angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem.

*Hark! the herald Angels sing

2 Christ, by highest heaven adored,
Christ, the everlasting Lord,
Late in time behold him come
Offspring of a Virgin's womb!
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see,
Hail the incarnate Deity!
Pleased as man with man to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.

3. Hail the heaven-born Prince of peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
Risen with healing in his wings;
Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.

CRANHAM, (Irreg.)

In moderate time $\text{♩} = 100.$

G. HOLST.

The musical score consists of four staves of music. The top two staves are soprano voices, and the bottom two are bass voices. The music is written in G clef, moderate time, and uses irregular meter indicated by vertical bar lines. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, with some quarter notes and rests.

[The metre of this hymn is peculiar. The music as printed is that of the first verse, and it can easily be adapted to the others.]

Verses 2 and 3 run:

The musical score consists of two staves of music in G clef, continuing from the previous page. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, with some quarter notes and rests, maintaining the irregular meter established earlier.

CHRISTMAS

Christina G. Rossetti, 1830-94.

IN the bleak mid-winter
 Frosty wind made moan,
 Earth stood hard as iron,
 Water like a stone;
 Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
 Snow on snow,
 In the bleak mid-winter,
 Long ago.

2 Our God, heaven cannot hold him

Nor earth sustain;
 Heaven and earth shall flee away
 When he comes to reign:
 In the bleak mid-winter
 A stable-place sufficed
 The Lord God Almighty
 Jesus Christ.

3 Enough for him, whom Cherubim

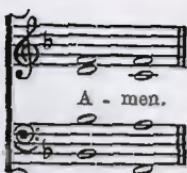

Worship night and day,
 A breastful of milk,
 And a mangerful of hay;
 Enough for him, whom Angels
 Fall down before,
 The ox and ass and camel
 Which adore.

4 Angels and Archangels

May have gathered there,
 Cherubim and Seraphim
 Thronged the air—
 But only his mother
 In her maiden bliss
 Worshipped the Belovèd
 With a kiss.

5. What can I give him

For as I am?
 If I were a shepherd
 I would bring a lamb;
 If I were a wise man
 I would do my part;
 Yet what I can I give him—
 Give my heart.

I T came upon the midnight clear,
 That glorious song of old,
 From Angels bending near the earth
 To touch their harps of gold:
 'Peace on the earth, good-will to men,
 From heaven's all-gracious King!'
 The world in solemn stillness lay
 To hear the Angels sing.

CHRISTMAS

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,

With peaceful wings unfurled;

And still their heavenly music floats

O'er all the weary world;

Above its sad and lowly plains

They bend on hovering wing;

And ever o'er its Babel sounds

The blessed Angels sing.

3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife

The world has suffered long;

Beneath the Angel-strain have rolled

Two thousand years of wrong;

And man, at war with man, hears not

The love-song which they bring:

O hush the noise, ye men of strife,

And hear the Angels sing!

4 * And ye, beneath life's crushing load,

Whose forms are bending low,

Who toil along the climbing way

With painful steps and slow,

Look now! for glad and golden hours

Come swiftly on the wing;

O rest beside the weary road,

And hear the Angels sing!

5. For lo! the days are hastening on,

By prophet-bards foretold,

When, with the ever-circling years,

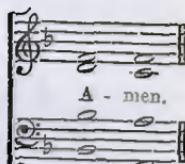

Comes round the age of gold;

When peace shall over all the earth

Its ancient splendours fling,

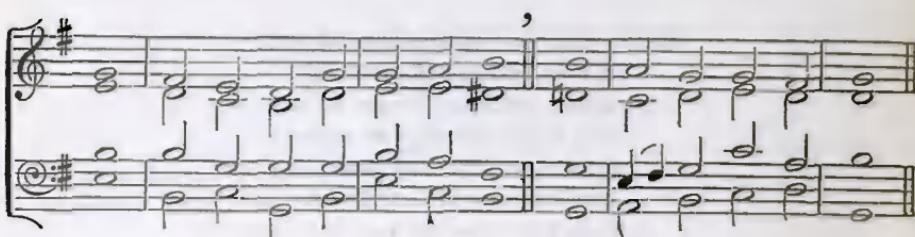

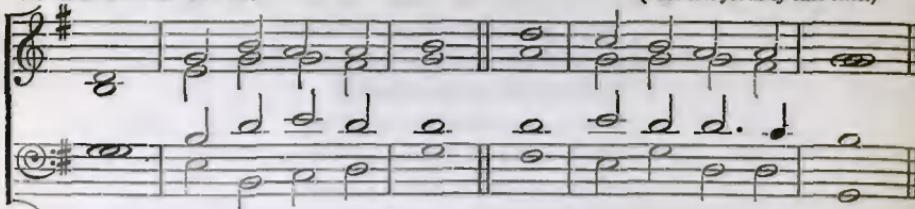

And the whole world send back the song

Which now the Angels sing.

(Modern form of last line.)

C. Coffin, 1676-1749. Tr. W. J. Blew.

Jam desinant suspiria.

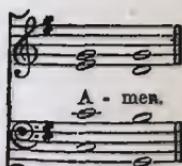

LET sighing cease and woe,
God from on high hath heard,
Heaven's gate is opening wide, and lo!
The long-expected Word.

- 2 Peace! through the deep of night
The heavenly choir breaks forth,
Singing, with festal songs and bright,
Our God and Saviour's birth.
- 3 The cave of Bethlehem
Those wakeful shepherds seek:
Let us too rise and greet with them
That infant pure and meek.

- 4 We enter—at the door
What marvel meets the eye?
A crib, a mother pale and poor,
A child of poverty.
- 5 Art thou the eternal Son,
The eternal Father's ray?
Whose little hand, thou infant one,
Doth lift the world away?
- 6 Yea—faith through that dim cloud,
Like lightning, darts before,
And greets thee, at whose footstool bowed
Heaven's trembling hosts adore.

7 Chaste be our love like thine,
Our swelling souls bring low,
And in our hearts, O Babe divine
Be born, abide, and grow.

8. So shall thy birthday morn,
Lord Christ, our birthday be,
Then greet we all, ourselves new-born,
Our King's nativity.

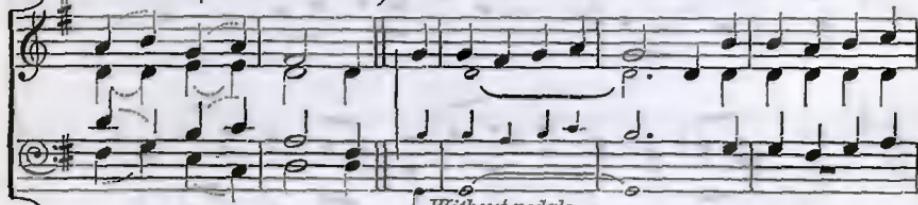

CHRISTMAS

Suitable till Candlemas.

H. R. Bramley.

THE great God of heavèn is come down to earth,

His mother a Virgin, and sinless his birth;

The Father eternal his Father alone:

He sleeps in the manger; he reigns on the throne:

Then let us adore him, and praise his great love:

To save us poor sinners he came from above.

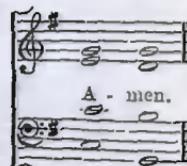

2 A Babe on the breast of a Maiden he lies,
Yet sits with the Father on high in the skies;
Before him their faces the Seraphim hide,
While Joseph stands waiting, unscared, by his side:

3 Lo! here is Emmanuel, here is the Child,
The Son that was promised to Mary so mild;
Whose power and dominion shall ever increase,
The Prince that shall rule o'er a kingdom of peace:

4 The Wonderful Counsellor, boundless in might,
The Father's own image, the beam of his light;
Behold him now wearing the likeness of man,
Weak, helpless, and speechless, in measure a span:

5 O wonder of wonders, which none can unfold:
The Ancient of days is an hour or two old;
The Maker of all things is made of the earth,
Man is worshipped by Angels, and God comes to birth:

6. The Word in the bliss of the Godhead remains,
Yet in flesh comes to suffer the keenest of pains;
He is that he was, and for ever shall be,
But becomes that he was not, for you and for me.

WHILE shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The Angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.

- 2 'Fear not,' said he (for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind);
'Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.'
- 3 'To you in David's town this day
Is born of David's line
A Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:
- 4 'The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.'
- 5 Thus spake the Seraph; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of Angels praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
6. 'All glory be to God on high,
And on the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease.'

Whom in their woe earth cast away,
But heaven with joy received to-day ;
Whose Angels see the Father's face
World without end, and hymn his

2 A voice from Ramah was there sent,
A voice of weeping and lament, [care
When Rachel mourned the children's Whom for the tyrant's sword she bare.
Triumphal is their glory now,
Whom earthly torments could not bow,
What time both far and near that went,
A voice from Ramah was there sent.

5. O city blest o'er all the earth,
Who gloriest in the Saviour's birth,
Whose are his earliest Martyrs dear,
By kindred and by triumph here ;
None from henceforth may call thee small,
Of rival towns thou passest all :
In whom our Monarch had his birth,
O city blest o'er all the earth !

3 * Fear not, O little flock and blest,
The lion that your life opprest !
To heavenly pastures ever new
The heavenly Shepherd leadeth you ;
Who, dwelling now on Sion's hill,
The Lamb's dear footsteps follow still ;
By tyrant there no more distrest,
Fear not, O little flock and blest.

4 * And every tear is wiped away
By your dear Father's hands for ay :
Death hath no power to hurt you more,
Whose own is life's eternal store.
Who sow their seed, and sowing weep,
In everlasting joy shall reap,
What time they shine in heavenly

W. Chatterton Dix, 1837-98.

As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold,
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright,
So, most gracious God, may we
Evermore be led to thee.

2 As with joyful steps they sped,
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore,
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek thy mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare,
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee our heavenly King.

4 Holy Jesu, every day
Keep us in the narrow way ;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds thy glory hide.

5. In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light ;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
Thou its Sun which goes not down :
There for ever may we sing
Alleluyas to our King.

O sola magnarum urbium,

BETHLEHEM, of noblest cities
None can once with thee compare ;
Thou alone the Lord from heaven
Didst for us incarnate bear.

- 2 Fairer than the sun at morning
Was the star that told his birth ;
To the lands their God announcing,
Hid beneath a form of earth.
- 3 By its lambent beauty guided
See the eastern kings appear ;
See them bend, their gifts to offer,
Gifts of incense, gold and myrrh.
- 4 Solemn things of mystic meaning :
Incense doth the God disclose,
Gold a royal child proclaimeth,
Myrrh a future tomb foreshows.

To the Gentile world displayed,
With the Father and the Spirit
Endless praise to thee be paid. Amen.

Bishop R. Heber, 1783-1826.

BRIGHTEST and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid ;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

- 2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining,
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall :
Angels adore him in slumber reclining,
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.
- 3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odours of Edom and offerings divine ?
Gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest or gold from the mine ?
- 4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gifts would his favour secure ;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.
5. Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid ;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

- O WORSHIP the Lord in the beauty of holiness !
 Bow down before him, his glory proclaim ;
 With gold of obedience, and incense of lowness,
 Kneel and adore him, the Lord is his name !
- 2 Low at his feet lay thy burden of carefulness,
 High on his heart he will bear it for thee,
 Comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayerfulness,
 Guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.
- 3 Fear not to enter his courts in the slenderness
 Of the poor wealth thou wouldest reckon as thine :
 Truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,
 These are the offerings to lay on his shrine.
- 4 These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,
 He will accept for the name that is dear ;
 Mornings of joy give for evenings of tearfulness,
 Trust for our trembling and hope for our fear.

Quae stella sole pulchrior.

WHAT star is this, with beams so bright,
More lovely than the noonday light?
'Tis sent to announce a new-born King,
Glad tidings of our God to bring.
2 'Tis now fulfilled what God decreed,
'From Jacob shall a star proceed';
And lo! the eastern sages stand,
To read in heaven the Lord's command.

3 While outward signs the star displays,
An inward light the Lord conveys,
And urges them, with force benign,
To seek the giver of the sign.
4 True love can brook no dull delay :
Through toils and dangers lies their way ;
And yet their home, their friends,
their all,
They leave at once, at God's high call.

- 5 O, while the star of heavenly grace
Invites us, Lord, to seek thy face,
May we no more that grace repel,
Or quench that light which shines so well !
6. To God the Father, God the Son,
And Holy Spirit, Three in One,

SONGS of thankfulness and praise,
Jesu, Lord, to thee we raise,
Manifested by the star
To the sages from afar;
Branch of royal David's stem
In thy birth at Bethlehem;
Anthems be to thee address,

3 Manifest in making whole

Manifest in valiant fight,
Quelling all the devil's might;
Manifest in gracious will,
Ever bringing good from ill;
Anthems be to thee address,

THE Lord is come ! On Syrian soil,
The child of poverty and toil ;
The Man of Sorrows, born to know
Each varying shade of human woe :
His joy, his glory, to fulfil,
In earth and heaven, his Father's will ;
On lonely mount, by festive board,
On bitter Cross, despised, adored.

2 The Lord is come ! In him we trace
The fullness of God's truth and grace ;
Throughout those words and acts divine
Gleams of the eternal splendour shine ;
And from his inmost Spirit flow,
As from a height of sunlit snow,
The rivers of perennial life,
To heal and sweeten Nature's strife.

3. The Lord is come ! In every heart
Where truth and mercy claim a part ;
In every land where right is might,
And deeds of darkness shun the light ;
In every Church where faith and love
Lift earthward thoughts to things above
In every holy, happy home,
We bless thee, Lord, that thou hast come.

Might separate the night from day,
And of the seasons through the year
The well-remembered signs declare :

4 Illuminate our hearts within, [sin;
And cleanse our minds from stain of Unburdened of our guilty load
May we unfettered serve our God.

Thursday Evening.

Magnae Deus potentiae.

6th or 7th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale †.

A LMIGHTY God, who from the flood
Didst bring to light a twofold brood;
Part in the firmament to fly,
And part in ocean's depths to lie;

2 Appointing fishes in the sea,
And fowls in open air to be,
That each, by origin the same,
Its separate dwelling-place might claim:

3 Grant that thy servants, by the tide
Of Blood and water purified,
No guilty fall from thee may know,
Nor death eternal undergo.

4 Be none submerged in sin's distress,
None lifted up in boastfulness;
That contrite hearts be not dismayed,
Nor haughty souls in ruin laid.

5. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;

M AKER of man, who from thy throne
Dost order all things, God alone;
By whose decree the teeming earth
To reptile and to beast gave birth:

2 The mighty forms that fill the land,
Instinct with life at thy command,
Are given subdued to humankind
For service in their rank assigned.

3 From all thy servants drive away
Whate'er of thought impure to-day
Hath been with open action blent,
Or mingled with the heart's intent.

4 In heaven thine endless joys bestow,
And grant thy gifts of grace below;
From chains of strife our souls release,
Bind fast the gentle bands of peace.

3 More sparing therefore let us make
The words we speak, the food we take,
Our sleep and mirth,—and closer barred
Be every sense in holy guard.

4 In prayer together let us fall,
And cry for mercy, one and all,
And weep before the Judge's feet,
And his avenging wrath entreat.

5 Thy grace have we offended sore,
By sins, O God, which we deplore;
But pour upon us from on high,
O pardoning One, thy clemency.

6 Remember thou, though frail we be,
That yet thine handiwork are we;
Nor let the honour of thy name
Be by another put to shame.

7 Forgive the sin that we have wrought;
Increase the good that we have sought;

That we at length, our wanderings o'er,
May please thee here and evermore.

O grant us power to pray;
And when to meet thee we prepare,
Lord, meet us by the way.
3 God of all grace, we come to thee
With broken contrite hearts;
Give, what thine eye delights to see,
Truth in the inward parts;
- 4 Faith in the only sacrifice
That can for sin atone;
To cast our hopes, to fix our eyes,
On Christ, on Christ alone;
5 Patience to watch, and wait, and weep,
Though mercy long delay;
Courage our fainting souls to keep,
And trust thee though thou slay.
6 Give these, and then thy will be done;
Thus, strengthened with all might,
We, through thy Spirit and thy Son,
Shall pray, and pray aright.

O FOR a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free;
A heart that always feels thy Blood
So freely spilt for me:

- 2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My dear Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone:
- 3 A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within:
- 4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine.
- 5 My heart, thou know'st, can never rest
Till thou create my peace;
Till of mine Eden reposest,
From self, and sin, I cease.
6. Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart,
Come quickly from above;
Write thy new name upon my heart,

Help us in thought, and word, and deed,
Each hour on earth we live.

2 O help us, when our spirits bleed
With contrite anguish sore,
And when our hearts are cold and dead,
O help us, Lord, the more.

3 O help us through the prayer of faith
More firmly to believe;
For still the more the servant hath,
The more shall he receive.

4. O help us, Jesu, from on high,
We know no help but thee;
O help us so to live and die
As thine in heaven to be.

*Prys' Psalter, 1621.
(as given in Playford's 'Psalms,' 1677).*

J. Marckant (Old Version, 1560).

- O LORD, turn not away thy face
 From him that lies prostrate,
 Lamenting sore his sinful life
 Before thy mercy-gate;
- 2 Which gate thou openest wide to those
 That do lament their sin:
 Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
 But let me enter in.
- 3 And call me not to mine account
 How I have livèd here;
 For then I know right well, O Lord,
 How vile I shall appear.
- 4 So come I to thy mercy-gate,
 Where mercy doth abound,
 Requiring mercy for my sin
 To heal my deadly wound.
5. Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask,
 This is the total sum;
 For mercy, Lord, is all my suit:
 Lord, let thy mercy come.

T. Haweis, 1732-1820, and others.

O THOU from whom all goodness flows,
I lift my heart to thee;
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
Dear Lord, remember me.

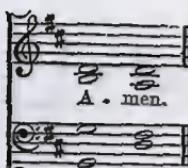

2 When on my poor distressed heart
My sins lie heavily,
Thy pardon grant, new peace impart:
Dear Lord, remember me.

3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
And ills I cannot flee,
O let my strength be as my day:
Dear Lord, remember me.

4 If, for thy sake, upon my name
Shame and reproaches be,
All hail reproach and welcome shame:
Dear Lord, remember me.

5 If worn with pain, disease, or grief
This feeble spirit be;
Grant patience, rest, and kind relief:
Dear Lord, remember me.

6. And O, when in the hour of death
I wait thy just decree,
Be this the prayer of my last breath:
Dear Lord, remember me.

O THOU who dost accord us
 The highest prize and guerdon,
 Thou hope of all our race,
 Jesu, do thou afford us
 The gift we ask of pardon
 For all who humbly seek thy face.

2 With whispered accusation
 Our conscience tells of sinning
 In thought, and word, and deed;
 Thine is our restoration,
 The work of grace beginning
 For souls from every burthen freed.

3 For who, if thou reject us,
 Shall raise the fainting spirit?
 'Tis thine alone to spare:
 If thou to life elect us,
 With cleansèd hearts to near it,
 Shall be our task, our lowly prayer.

4. O Trinity most glorious,
 Thy pardon free bestowing,
 Defend us evermore;
 That in thy courts victorious,
 Thy love more truly knowing,
 We may with all thy Saints adore.

SAVIOUR, when in dust to thee
Low we bow the adoring knee;
When repentant, to the skies
Scarce we lift our weeping eyes:
O, by all thy pains and woe,
Suffered once for man below,
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear our solemn Litany.
2 By thy helpless infant years,
By thy life of want and tears,
By thy days of sore distress
In the savage wilderness,

By the dread mysterious hour
Of the insulting tempter's power:
Turn, O turn a favouring eye,
Hear our solemn Litany.

3 By the sacred griefs that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept;
By the boding tears that flowed
Over Salem's loved abode;
By the anguished sigh that told
Treachery lurked within thy fold:
From thy seat above the sky
Hear our solemn Litany.

By the Cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear and torturing scorn;

By the sad sepulchral stone,
By the vault whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God;
O! from earth to heaven restored,

O'er the dreadful Sacrifice:
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn Litany.

Paraphrase of Anima Christi sanctifica me.

SOUL of Jesus, make me whole,
Meek and contrite make my soul;
Thou most stainless Soul Divine,
Cleanse this sordid soul of mine,
Hallow this my contrite heart,
Purify my every part;
Soul of Jesus, hallow me,

Miserere Domine.

2 Save me, Body of my Lord,
Save a sinner, vile, abhorred;

Bruised and mangled, scourged and

 Sacred stream with blessings rife,
 From thy broken Body shed
 On the Cross, that altar dread;

 Blood of Christ, my succour be,

Miserere Domine.

4 Holy Water, stream that poured
 From thy riven side, O Lord,
 Wash thou me without, within,
 Cleanse me from the taint of sin,
 Till my soul is clean and white,
 Bathed, and purified, and bright
 As a ransomed soul should be,

Miserere Domine.

5 Jesu, by the wondrous power
 Of thine awful Passion hour,
 By the unimagined woe
 Mortal man may never know;
 By the curse upon thee laid,
 By the ransom thou hast paid,
 By thy Passion comfort me,

Miserere Domine.

 By thy last expiring breath,
 Give me the eternal life,
 Purchased by that mortal strife;
 Thou didst suffer death that I
 Might not die eternally;
 By thy dying quicken me,

WEARY of earth and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in;
But there no evil thing may find a home,
And yet I hear a voice that bids me 'Come.'

- 2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land?
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.
- 3 The while I fain would tread the heavenly way,
Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
'Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all.'
- 4 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear,
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near,
And his the Blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.

Part 2.

- 5 O great Absolver, grant my soul may wear
The lowliest garb of penitence and prayer,
That in the Father's courts my glorious dress
May be the garment of thy righteousness.
- 6 Yea, thou wilt answer for me, righteous Lord;
Thine all the merits, mine the great reward;
Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden crown;
Mine the life won, and thine the life laid down.

Yet let my full heart what it can bestow;
Like Mary's gift, let my devotion prove,
Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love.

THIRD MODE MELODY. (D. C. M.)

(rhythm slightly simplified).

J. Addison, 1672-1719.

- WHEN, rising from the bed of death,
O'erwhelmed with guilt and fear,
I see my Maker face to face,
O how shall I appear?
- 2 If yet, while pardon may be found,
And mercy may be sought,
My heart with inward horror shrinks,
And trembles at the thought;
- 3 When thou, O Lord, shalt stand dis-
In majesty severe, [closed]
And sit in judgement on my soul,
O how shall I appear?

- 4 But thou hast told the troubled mind
Who does her sins lament,
The timely tribute of her tears
Shall endless woe prevent.
- 5 Then see the sorrow of my heart,
Ere yet it be too late;
And hear my Saviour's dying groans,
To give those sorrows weight.
6. For never shall my soul despair
Her pardon to procure,
Who knows thine only Son has died
To make her pardon sure.

ALTERNATIVE VERSION (melody in the tenor)

Tallis' Original Version
(rhythm slightly simplified).

The musical score consists of three systems of music for tenor. The notation is in common time with a treble clef. The first two systems are identical, showing a continuous sequence of notes and rests. The third system begins with a comma and the instruction "Slightly slower." The music uses a variety of note heads, including circles, crosses, and dots, along with rests.

[This version may be used, in connexion with the other, for one verse; it is intended for the CHOIR ALONE and must be sung without the organ. It should only be attempted by good choirs.]

NOTE.—This tune is founded on the alternation of $\frac{3}{1}$ and $\frac{6}{2}$ times. This can be easily learnt by a congregation, who will sing the melody by ear. However, should a C. M. tune be thought preferable, CHESHIRE (No. 109) or MARTYRS (No. 449) are also suitable.

THE God of love my Shepherd is,
And he that doth me feed;
While he is mine and I am his,
What can I want or need?
2 He leads me to the tender grass,
Where I both feed and rest;
Then to the streams that gently pass:
In both I have the best.

And bring my mind in frame,
And all this not for my desert,
But for his holy name.

And as it never shall remove
So neither shall my praise.

His appointed time fulfilled,
Born for this, he meets his Passion,
For that this he freely willed,
On the Cross the Lamb is lifted
Where his life-blood shall be spilled.

Thy relaxing sinews bend;
For awhile the ancient rigour
That thy birth bestowed, suspend;
And the King of heavenly beauty

 So on sinners, who had earned
 Endless death, from sin returned,
 Endless blessings shower.

 And with victory cheer us;
 Turn our erring hearts to thee,
 That we crowned for ay may be:

O Haupt voll Blut und Wunden.

O SACRED head, sore wounded,
Defiled and put to scorn;
O kingly head, surrounded
With mocking crown of thorn:
What sorrow mars thy grandeur?
Can death thy bloom deflower?
O countenance whose splendour
The hosts of heaven adore.

2 Thy beauty, long-desired,
Hath vanished from our sight;
Thy power is all expired,
And quenched the light of light.
Ah me! for whom thou diest,
Hide not so far thy grace:
Show me, O Love most highest,
The brightness of thy face.

3* I pray thee, Jesus, own me,

In death's most fearful hour :

And see in my last strife
To me thine arms extended

SEI EHR. (87. 87. 887.)

Attolle paulum lumina.

O SINNER, raise the eye of faith,
To true repentance turning,
Consider well the curse of sin,
Its shame and guilt discerning :
Upon the Crucified One look,
So shalt thou learn, as in a book,
What well is worth thy learning.

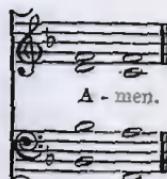

2 Look on the head, with such a crown
Of bitter thorns surrounded ;
Look on the blood that trickles down
The feet and hands thus wounded ;
And see his flesh with scourges rent :
Mark how upon the Innocent
Man's malice hath abounded.

3 But though upon him many a pain
Its bitterness is spending,
Yet more, O how much more ! his heart
Man's wickedness is rending !
Such is the load for sinners borne,
As Mary's Son in woe forlorn
His life for us is ending.

4 None ever knew such pangs before,
None ever such affliction,
As when his people brought to pass
The Saviour's crucifixion.
He willed to bear for us the throes,
For us the unimagined woes,
Of death's most fell infliction.

5 * O sinner, stay and ponder well
Sin's fearful condemnation ;
Think on the wounds that Christ endured
In working thy salvation ;
For if thy Lord had never died,
Nought else could sinful man betide
But utter reprobation.

6. Lord, give us sinners grace to flee
The death of evil-doing,
To shun the gloomy gates of hell,
Thine awful judgement viewing.
So thank we thee, O Christ, to-day,
And so for life eternal pray,
The holy road pursuing.

Cultor Dei memento.

Prudentius, b. 348. Tr. T. A. L.

- SERVANT of God, remember
The stream thy soul bedewing,
The grace that came upon thee
Anointing and renewing.

2 When kindly slumber calls thee,
Upon thy bed reclining,
Trace thou the Cross of Jesus,
Thy heart and forehead signing.

5 Begone, thou crooked serpent,

Who, twisting and pursuing,
By fraud and lie preparest
The simple soul's undoing;

6 Tremble, for Christ is near us,
Depart, for here he dwelleth,
And this, the Sign thou knowest,
Thy strong battalions quelleth.

7 Then while the weary body
Its rest in sleep is nearing,
The heart will muse in silence
On Christ and his appearing.

8. To God, eternal Father,
To Christ, our King, be glory,
And to the Holy Spirit,
In never-ending story. Amen.

The musical score consists of a single staff for basso continuo. The music is in common time, with a key signature of one sharp (G major). The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, with some quarter notes and rests.

 Floating in his languid eye.

THERE is a green hill far away,
 Without a city wall,
 Where the dear Lord was crucified
 Who died to save us all.

- 2 We may not know, we cannot tell,
 What pains he had to bear,
 But we believe it was for us
 He hung and suffered there.
- 3 He died that we might be forgiven,
 He died to make us good;
 That we might go at last to heaven,
 Saved by his precious Blood.
- 4 There was no other good enough
 To pay the price of sin ;
 He only could unlock the gate
 Of heaven, and let us in.
5. O, dearly, dearly has he loved,
 And we must love him too,
 And trust in his redeeming Blood.
 And try his works to do.

WHEN I survey the wondrous Cross,
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast
Save in the death of Christ my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his Blood.

See from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;

Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

- 4 His dying crimson like a robe,
Spreads o'er his body on the Tree;
Then am I dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.
5. Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

WHO is this with garments gory,
Triumphing from Bozrah's way;
This that weareth robes of glory,
Bright with more than victory's ray?
Who is this unwearied comer

From his journey's sultry length,
Travelling through Idume's summer
In the greatness of his strength?

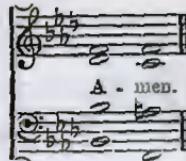

2 Wherefore red in thine apparel
Like the conquerors of earth,
And arrayed like those who carol
O'er the reeking vineyard's mirth?

Who art thou, the valleys seeking
Where our peaceful harvests wave?
'I, in righteous anger speaking,
I, the mighty One to save;
'I, that of the raging heathen
Trod the winepress all alone,
Now in victor-garlands wreathen
Coming to redeem mine own:
I am he with sprinkled raiment,
Glorious for my vengeance-hour,
Ransoming, with priceless payment,
And delivering with power.'

Thorns, and nails, and piercing spear?

4 Thence, poured forth, the water flowed,
Mingled from thy side with blood,—

O COME and mourn with me awhile;
See Mary calls us to her side;
O come and let us mourn with her:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.

4* His Mother cannot reach his face;
She stands in helplessness beside;
Her heart is martyred with her Son's:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.

2 Have we no tears to shed for him,
WhilesoldiersscoffandJewsderide?
Ah, look how patiently he hangs:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.

5 Seven times he spoke, seven words of love;
And all three hours his silence cried
For mercy on the souls of men:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.

3 * How fast his hands and feet are nailed; [tied;
His blessed tongue with thirst is
His failing eyes are blind with blood:
Jesus, our Love is crucified.

6 O break, O break, hard heart of mine;
Thy weak self-love and guilty pride
His Pilate and his Judas were:
Jesus, Our Love, is crucified.

7 A broken heart, a fount of tears,
Ask, and they will not be denied;
A broken heart love's cradle is:
Jesus, our Love, is crucified.

8. O Love of God! O sin of Man!
In this dread act your strength is tried;
And victory remains with Love:

'Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.'

- 'FORGIVE them, O my Father,
They know not what they do :'
The Saviour spake in anguish,
As the sharp nails went through.
- 2 No pained reproaches gave he
To them that shed his Blood,
But prayer and tenderest pity
Large as the love of God.
- 3 For me was that compassion,
For me that tender care ;
I need his wide forgiveness
As much as any there.
- 4 It was my pride and hardness
That hung him on the Tree ;
Those cruel nails, O Saviour,
Were driven in by me.
- 5 And often I have slighted
Thy gentle voice that chid ;
Forgive me too, Lord Jesus ;
I knew not what I did.
6. O depth of sweet compassion !
O love divine and true !
Save thou the souls that slight thee,

'Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.'

'LORD, when thy kingdom comes, remember me ;'
 Thus spake the dying lips to dying ears ;
 O faith, which in that darkest hour could see
 The promised glory of the far-off years !

- 2 No kingly sign declares that glory now,
 No ray of hope lights up that awful hour ;
 A thorny crown surrounds the bleeding brow,
 The hands are stretched in weakness, not in power.
- 3 Hark ! through the gloom the dying Saviour saith,
 'Thou too shalt rest in Paradise to-day ;'
 O words of love to answer words of faith !
 O words of hope for those that live to pray !
- 4 Lord, when with dying lips my prayer is said,
 Grant that in faith thy kingdom I may see ;
 And, thinking on thy Cross and bleeding head,
 May breathe my parting words, 'Remember me.'
- 5 Remember me, but not my shame or sin ;
 Thy cleansing Blood hath washed them all away ;
 Thy precious death for me did pardon win ;
 Thy Blood redeemed me in that awful day.
6. Remember me ; and, ere I pass away,
 Speak thou the assuring word that sets us free,
 And make thy promise to my heart, 'To-day

Harmony by W. PARSONS (slightly altered) in Day's Psalter, 1563.

The musical score consists of four staves of handwritten notation. The top two staves represent the Tenor voice, and the bottom two staves represent the Bass voice. The notation uses a mix of short vertical dashes and horizontal strokes for note heads. Various dynamics are indicated, such as 'pp' (pianissimo), 'f' (fortissimo), and 'HORN' (which appears twice below the bass staff). The music is written in common time.

So dim the lustre of thy royalty,
We hardly know thee, Lord, for what thou art,
Till we begin to take the better part
And lose ourselves in Paradise with thee.
4. Then lift our eyes, dear Lord, from this poor dross,
To see thee reigning in humility,
The King of love; that, wresting gain from loss,
We too may climb the ladder of the Cross,
To find our home in Paradise with thee.

In her trouble so amazing,
Born of woman, would not weep?
Who on Christ's dear Mother thinking,
Such a cup of sorrow drinking,
Would not share her sorrow deep?

THRONED upon the awful Tree,
King of grief, I watch with thee;
Darkness veils thine anguished face,
None its lines of woe can trace,
None can tell what pangs unknown
Hold thee silent and alone;

2 Silent through those three dread hours,
Wrestling with the evil powers,
Left alone with human sin,

Gloom around thee and within,
Till the appointed time is nigh,
Till the Lamb of God may die.

3 Hark that cry that peals aloud
Upward through the whelming cloud!
Thou, the Father’s only Son,
Thou his own anointed One,
Thou dost ask him—can it be?—
‘Why hast thou forsaken me?’

NOTE.—This hymn may also be sung to the Grenoble Melody at Hymn 141.

- 2 When Christ, unconquer'd Lion, first
The dragon's chains by rising burst:
And while with living voice he cries,
The dead of other ages rise.
- 3 Engorged in former years, their prey
Must death and hell restore to-day:
And many a captive soul, set free,
With Jesus leaves captivity.
- 4 Right gloriously he triumphs now,
Worthy to whom should all things bow;
And joining heaven and earth again,
Links in one commonweal the twain.
- 5 And we, as these his deeds we sing,
His suppliant soldiers, pray our King,
That in his palace, bright and vast,
We may keep watch and ward at last.
6. Long as unending ages run,
To God the Father, laud be done:
To God the Son, our equal praise,
And God the Holy Ghost, we raise.
Amen.

Aurora lucis rutilat.

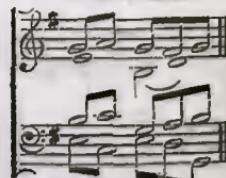

THE day draws on with golden light,
Glad songs go echoing through the height,
The broad earth lifts an answering cheer,
The deep makes moan with wailing fear.

2 For lo, he comes, the mighty King,
To take from death his power and sting,
To trample down his gloomy reign
And break the weary prisoner's chain.

3 Enclosed he lay in rocky cell,
With guard of arm'd sentinel;
But thence returning, strong and free,
He comes with pomp of jubilee.

Nor hope to see their Lord again;
Their Lord, whom rebel thralls defy,
Arraign, accuse, and doom to die.
- 5 But now they put their grief away,
The pains of hell are loosed to-day;
For by the grave, with flashing eyes,
'Your Lord is risen,' the Angel cries.
- 6 Maker of all, to thee we pray,

- 2 Upon the altar of the Cross
His Body hath redeemed our loss;
And tasting of his roseate Blood
Our life is hid with him in God.
- 3 That Paschal eve God's arm was bared;
The devastating Angel spared:
By strength of hand our hosts went free
From Pharaoh's ruthless tyranny.
- 4 Now Christ our Paschal Lamb is slain,
The Lamb of God that knows no stain;
The true Oblation offered here,
Our own unleavened Bread sincere.
- 5 O thou from whom hell's monarch flies,
O great, O very Sacrifice,
Thy captive people are set free,
And endless life restored in thee.

From conquered hell victorious sped;
He thrusts the tyrant down to chains,
And Paradise for man regains.

ALLLELUYA! Alleluia!
Hearts to heaven and voices raise;
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise;
He who on the Cross a victim
For the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of glory,
Now is risen from the dead.
2 Christ is risen, Christ the first-fruits
Of the holy harvest field,
Which will all its full abundance
At his second coming yield;

Then the golden ears of harvest
Will their heads before him wave,
Ripen'd by his glorious sunshine
From the furrows of the grave.
3 Christ is risen, we are risen;
Shed upon us heavenly grace,
Rain, and dew, and gleams of glory
From the brightness of thy face;
That we, Lord, with hearts in heaven
Here on earth may fruitful be,
And by angel-hands be gathered,
And be ever safe with thee.

4. Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glory be to God on high;
To the Father, and the Saviour,
Who has gained the victory;
Glory to the Holy Spirit,
Fount of love and sanctity;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
To the Triune Majesty. Amen.

The musical score consists of four staves of handwritten notation for SATB voices. The top two staves are soprano and alto parts, while the bottom two are bass and tenor parts. The music is in common time and G major. The notation uses vertical stems for bass and tenor, and horizontal stems for soprano and alto. Measures are separated by vertical bar lines, and repeat signs with dots are placed at the beginning of the second and third measures of each staff. The tempo is marked as 'Moderately slow, dignified' with a tempo of 60 BPM.

EASTERTIDE

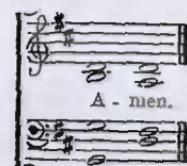

R. Campbell †, 1814-08. Based on Ad regias Agni dapes.

AT the Lamb's high feast we sing
Praise to our victorious King:
Who hath washed us in the tide
Flowing from his piercèd side;
Praise we him whose love Divine
Gives the guests his Blood for wine,
Gives his Body for the feast,
Love the Victim, Love the Priest.

2 * Where the Paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.
Christ, the Lamb whose Blood was shed,
Paschal victim, Paschal bread!
With sincerity and love
Eat we Manna from above.

3 Mighty Victim from on high,
Powers of hell beneath thee lie;
Death is broken in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light.
Now thy banner thou dost wave,
Conquering Satan and the grave.
See the prince of darkness quelled;
Heaven's bright gates are open held.

4. Paschal triumph, Paschal joy,
Only sin can this destroy;
From sin's death do thou set free,
Souls re-born, dear Lord, in thee.
Hymns of glory, songs of praise,
Father, unto thee we raise.
Risen Lord, all praise to thee,
Ever with the Spirit be.

Laud and praise undying.

(rhythm slightly adapted).

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef, the middle staff a bass clef, and the bottom staff a bass clef. The music is in moderate time. The notation includes various note values such as quarter notes, eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and rests. The melody is divided into measures separated by vertical bar lines.

3 Rise, Sion, rise! and looking forth,
Behold thy children round thee!
From east and west, from south and north,
Thy scattered sons have found thee;
And in thy bosom Christ adore
For ever and for evermore.

4. O Father, O co-equal Son,
O co-eternal Spirit,
In persons Three, in substance One,
And One in power and merit;
In thee baptized, we thee adore
For ever and for evermore. Amen.

ROGATION DAYS

J. Keble, 1792-1866.

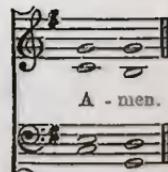

LORD, in thy name thy servants plead,
And thou hast sworn to hear;
Thine is the harvest, thine the seed,
The fresh and fading year.

2 Our hope, when autumn winds blew wild,
We trusted, Lord, with thee;
And still, now spring has on us smiled,
We wait on thy decree.

3 The former and the latter rain,
The summer sun and air,
The green ear, and the golden grain,
All thine, are ours by prayer

4 Thine too by right, and ours by grace,
The wondrous growth unseen,
The hopes that soothe, the fears that brace,
The love that shines serene.

5. So grant the precious things brought forth,
By sun and moon below,
That thee in thy new heaven and earth
We never may forgo.

VENI SANCTE SPIRITUS. (777. D.)

Slow $\text{♩} = 58$.

S. WEBBE the elder, 1740-1816.

The Golden Sequence.

Veni, sancte Spiritus.

13th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

COME, thou holy Paraclete,
And from thy celestial seat
Send thy light and brilliancy:
Father of the poor, draw near;
Giver of all gifts, be here;
Come, the soul's true radiancy:

3 O thou Light, most pure and blest,
Shine within the inmost breast
Of thy faithful company.
Wherethou art not, man hath nought;
Every holy deed and thought
Comes from thy Divinity.

2 Come, of comforters the best.
Of the soul the sweetest guest,
Come in toil refreshingly:
Thou in labour rest most sweet,
Thou art shadow from the heat.
Comfort in adversity.

4 What is soiled, make thou pure;
What is wounded, work its cure;
What is parched, fructify;
What is rigid, gently bend;
What is frozen, warmly tend;
Strengthen what goes erringly.

5. Fill thy faithful, who confide
In thy power to guard and guide,
With thy sevenfold Mystery.
Here thy grace and virtue send:
Grant salvation to the end,
And in heaven felicity.

The musical notation consists of two staves. The top staff uses a treble clef and has a key signature of one sharp. The bottom staff uses a bass clef and has a key signature of one sharp. Both staves have a common time signature. The music features eighth and sixteenth note patterns, with some notes connected by horizontal stems.

NOTE.—This tune can also be used for COME, HOLY GHOST (Hymn 153). In this case each verse will be six lines, instead of four.

This hymn may also be sung to FALKLAND (No. 219).

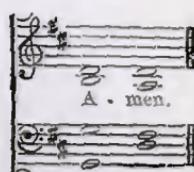

J. Dryden, 1631-1701.
Based on Veni, Creator Spiritus.

CREATOR Spirit, by whose aid
The world's foundations first were laid,
Come, visit every pious mind;
Come, pour thy joys on human kind;
From sin and sorrow set us free,
And make thy temples worthy thee.

2 O Source of uncreated light,
The Father's promised Paraclete,
Thrice holy Fount, thrice holy Fire,
Our hearts with heavenly love inspire;
Come, and thy sacred unction bring
To sanctify us while we sing.

3 Plenteous of grace, descend from high
Rich in thy sevenfold energy;
Make us eternal truths receive,
And practise all that we believe;
Give us thyself, that we may see
The Father and the Son by thee.

4. Immortal honour, endless fame,
Attend the almighty Father's name;
The Saviour Son be glorified,
Who for lost man's redemption died;
And equal adoration be,
Eternal Paraclete, to thee Amen.

O UR blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
 His tender last farewell,
 A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
 With us to dwell.

2 He came in tongues of living flame,
 To teach, convince, subdue;
 All-powerful as the wind he came,
 As viewless too.

3 He came sweet influence to impart,
 A gracious, willing Guest,
 While he can find one humble heart
 Wherin to rest.

4 And his that gentle voice we hear,
 Soft as the breath of even,
 That checks each fault, that calms each fear,
 And speaks of heaven.

5 And every virtue we possess,

WHEN God of old came down from heaven,
In power and wrath he came;
Before his feet the clouds were riven,
Half darkness and half flame:

He came in power and love;
Softer than gale at morning prime Hovered his holy Dove.

Let us not miss the accepted hour;
Save, Lord, by love or fear.

Now gently light, a glorious crown,
On every sainted head.

- 4 And as on Israel's awe-struck ear
The voice exceeding loud,
The trump, that Angels quake to hear,
Thrilled from the deep dark cloud;

Came down his flock to find,
A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
A rushing mighty wind.

- CHRIST is gone up; yet ere he passed
From earth, in heaven to reign,
He formed one holy Church to last
Till he should come again.
2 His twelve Apostles first he made
His ministers of grace;
And they their hands on others laid,
To fill in turn their place.
- 3 So age by age, and year by year,
His grace was handed on;
And still the holy Church is here,
Although her Lord is gone.

 May all thy Church's pastors be.

5. Then, when their work is finished here,
 May they in hope their charge resign;
When the Chief Shepherd shall appear,
 O God, may they and we be thine.

3 Wisdom, and zeal, and faith impart,
Firmness with meekness, from above,
To bear thy people in their heart,

Patris aeterni suboles coaeva.

O WORD of God above,
Who fillest all in all,
Hallow this house with thy sure love,
And bless our festival.

- 2 Grace in this font is stored
To cleanse each guilty child;
The Spirit's blest anointing poured
Brightens the once defiled.
 - 3 Here Christ of his own Blood
Himself the chalice gives,
And feeds his own with Angels' food,
On which the spirit lives.
 - 4 For guilty souls that pine
Sure mercies here abound,
And healing grace with oil and wine
For every secret wound.
 - 5 God from his throne afar,
Comes in this house to dwell;
And prayer, beyond the evening star,
Builds here her citadel.
- Unison.* 6. All might, all praise be thine,
The God whom all adore;
The Father, Son, and Spirit divine,
Both now and evermore. Amen.

DEDICATION OR RESTORATION OF A CHURCH

J. G. Whittier, 1807-92.

ALL things are thine; no gift have we,
Lord of all gifts, to offer thee:
And hence with grateful hearts to-day
Thine own before thy feet we lay.

2 Thy will was in the builders' thought;
Thy hand unseen amidst us wrought;
Through mortal motive, scheme and plan,
Thy wise eternal purpose ran.

3 In weakness and in want we call
On thee for whom the heavens are small;
Thy glory is thy children's good,
Thy joy thy tender Fatherhood.

Unison. 4. O Father, deign these walls to bless;
Fill with thy love their emptiness;
And let their door a gateway be
To lead us from ourselves to thee.

For a Dedication Festival, or for a Special Service of Dedication, the following are also suitable:

- 450 O God, our help in ages past.
- 472 Pray that Jerusalem may have.
- 489 The Church's one foundation.
- 508 We love the place, O God.
- 533 Now thank we all our God.
- 534 Praise the Lord of heaven; praise him in the height.
- 535 Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore him.
- 536 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty.
- 537 Rejoice to-day with one accord.
- 544 O Faith of England, taught of old.

LORD of Creation, bow thine ear, O Christ, to hear
The intercession of thy servant true and dear,
That we unworthy, who have trespassed in thy sight,
May live before thee where he dwells in glorious light.

2 O God our Saviour, look on thine inheritance,
Sealed by the favour shining from thy countenance;
That no false spirit bring to nought the souls of price
Bought by the merit of thy perfect Sacrifice.

3 We bear the burden of our guilt and enmity.
Until thy pardon lift the heart from slavery;
Then through the spending of thy life-blood, King of grace,
Grant us unending triumph in thy holy place.

4. To thee the glorious Christ, our Saviour manifest,
All wreaths victorious, praise and worship be address,
Whom with the living Father humbly we adore,
And the life-giving Spirit, God for evermore. Amen.

- 2 God-fearing, watchful, pure of mind and body,
Holy and humble, thus did all men find him;
While, through his members, to the life immortal
Mortal life called him.
- 3 Thus to the weary, from the life enshrined,
Potent in virtue, flowed humane compassion;
Sick and sore laden, howsoever burdened,
There they found healing.
- 4 So now in chorus, giving God the glory,
Raise we our anthem gladly to his honour,
That in fair kinship we may all be sharers
Here and hereafter.

Be in the highest unto him who reigneth
Changeless in heaven over earthly changes,

NOTE.—This tune is necessarily rather high for congregational use; the hymn may be equally well sung to IN BABILONÉ (No. 145).

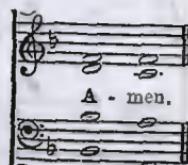

HARK! the sound of holy voices,
Chanting at the crystal sea,
Alleluya, Alleluya,
Alleluya, Lord, to thee:
Multitude, which none can number,
Like the stars in glory stands,
Clothed in white apparel, holding
Palms of victory in their hands.
2 Patriarch, and holy Prophet,
Who prepared the way of Christ,
King, Apostle, Saint, Confessor,
Martyr, and Evangelist,
Saintly Maiden, godly Matron,
Widows who have watched to prayer,
Joined in holy concert, singing
To the Lord of all, are there.
3 They have come from tribulation,
And have washed their robes in blood,
Washed them in the Blood of Jesus;
Tried they were, and firm they stood;

Bishop Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85.
Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented,
Sawn asunder, slain with sword,
They have conquered death and Satan
By the might of Christ the Lord.

4 Marching with thy Cross their banner,
They have triumphed following
Thee, the Captain of salvation,
Thee their Saviour and their King;
Gladly, Lord, with thee they suffered;
Gladly, Lord, with thee they died,
And by death to life immortal
They were born, and glorified.

5 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
Now they walk in golden light,
Now they drink, as from a river,
Holy bliss and infinite,
Love and peace they taste for ever,
And all truth and knowledge see
In the beatific vision
Of the blessed Trinity.

6. God of God, the One-begotten,
Light of light, Emmanuel,
In whose Body joined together
All the Saints for ever dwell;
Pour upon us of thy fullness,
That we may for evermore
God the Father, God the Son, and
God the Holy Ghost adore. Amen.

O Light that pierced and blinded
The zealot in his wrath!

4. Lord, teach thy Church the lesson,
Still in her darkest hour
Of weakness and of danger
To trust thy hidden power.
Thy grace by ways mysterious
The wrath of man can bind,
And in thy boldest foeman
Thy chosen Saint can find!

E'er wrought at thine employ,
Than he, till now so furious
Thy building to destroy?

The music includes various note values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The notation uses a mix of square and circle note heads.

THE PURIFICATION

OFFICE HYMN E.
(M. 214 or 215.)Ascribed to Archbishop Rabanus Maurus, 9th cent. Tr. T. A. L.

ALL prophets hail thee, from of old announcing,
By the inbreathèd Spirit of the Father,
God's Mother, bringing prophecies to fullness,
Mary the maiden.

In moderate time $\text{d} = 96$. To be sung in unison.

Bayeux Church Melody.

2 Thou the true Virgin Mother of the Highest,
Bearing incarnate God in awed obedience,
Meekly acceptest for a sinless offspring Purification.

3 In the high temple Simeon receives thee,
Takes to his bent arms with a holy rapture
That promised Saviour, vision of redemption,
Christ long awaited.

4 Now the fair realm of Paradise attaining,
And to thy Son's throne, Mother of the Eternal,
Raisèd all glorious, yet in earth's devotion
Join with us always.

5. Glory and worship to the Lord of all things
Pay we unresting, who alone adorèd,
Father and Son and Spirit, in the highest Reigneth eternal. Amen.

OLD 120TH. (66. 66. 66.)

Moderately slow $\text{d} = 66.$

Melody from Estie's Psalter, 1599.

J. Ellerton, 1826-93.

HAIL to the Lord who comes,
Comes to his temple gate!
Not with his Angel host,
Not in his kingly state;
No shouts proclaim him nigh,
No crowds his coming wait;

2 But borne upon the throne
Of Mary's gentle breast,
Watched by her dutious love,
In her fond arms at rest;
Thus to his Father's house
He comes, the heavenly Guest.

3 There Joseph at her side
In reverent wonder stands;
And, filled with holy joy,
Old Simeon in his hands
Takes up the promised Child,
The glory of all lands.

Unison.

4 Hail to the great First-born
Whose ransom-price they pay!
The Son before all worlds,
The Child of man to-day,
That he might ransom us
Who still in bondage lay.

5. O Light of all the earth,
Thy children wait for thee!
Come to thy temples here,
That we, from sin set free,
Before thy Father's face
May all presented be!

ST. JAMES. (C. M.)
In moderate time $\text{d} = 69.$

R. COURTVILLE, d. 1735?

The musical score for 'ST. JAMES' is presented in common time, with a key signature of one sharp (G major). The music is divided into two staves. The top staff begins with a quarter note followed by a series of eighth notes and sixteenth notes. The bottom staff follows a similar pattern, starting with a half note. Both staves continue with a mix of quarter notes, eighth notes, and sixteenth notes, maintaining a steady rhythm throughout the page.

NOTE.—A higher setting of this tune will be found at Hymn 341.

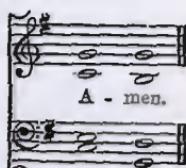

ST. MATTHIAS

(O. H., 174-6.)

H. Alford, 1810-71.

THE highest and the holiest place
 Guards not the heart from sin;
 The Church that safest seems without
 May harbour foes within.

- 2 Thus in the small and chosen band,
 Beloved above the rest,
 One fell from his apostleship,
 A traitor-soul unblest
- 3 But not the great designs of God
 Man's sins shall overthrow;
 Another witness to the truth
 Forth to the lands shall go.
- 4 The soul that sinneth, it shall die;
 Thy purpose shall not fail;
 The word of grace no less shall sound,
 The truth no less prevail.
5. Righteous, O Lord, are all thy ways;
 Long as the worlds endure,
 From foes without and foes within
 Thy Church shall stand secure.

ST. DAVID

B. J. Newell.

WE praise thy name, all-holy Lord,
For him, the beacon-light
That shone beside our western sea
Through mists of ancient night;
Who sent to Ireland's fainting Church
New tidings of thy word:
For David, prince of Cambrian Saints,
We praise thee, holy Lord.

2 For all the saintly band whose prayers
Still gird our land about,
Of whom, lest men disdain their praise,
The voiceless stones cry out;
Our hills and vales on every hand
Their names and deeds record:
For these, thy ancient hero host,
We praise thee, holy Lord.

3. Grant us but half their burning zeal,
But half their iron faith,
But half their charity of heart,
And fortitude to death;
That we with them and all thy Saints
May in thy truth accord,
And ever in thy holy Church
May praise thee, holy Lord.

A VE Maria! blessed Maid!
A Lily of Eden's fragrant shade!
Who can express the love
That nurtured thee, so pure and sweet,
Making thy heart a shelter meet
For Jesus' holy Dove!

2 Ave Maria! Mother blest,
To whom, caressing and caressed,
Clings the eternal Child;
Favoured beyond Archangels' dream,
When first on thee with tenderest gleam
Thy new-born Saviour smiled.

3 Thou wept'st meek Maiden, Mother mild,
Thou wept'st upon thy sinless Child,
Thy very heart was riven:
And yet, what mourning matron here
Would deem thy sorrows bought too dear
By all on this side heaven!

4 A Son that never did amiss,
That never shamed his Mother's kiss,
Nor crossed her fondest prayer:
E'en from the Tree he deign'd to bow
For her his agonizèd brow,
Her, his sole earthly care.

5. Ave Maria! thou whose name
All but adoring love may claim,
Yet may we reach thy shrine;
For he, thy Son and Saviour, vows
To crown all lowly lofty brows
With love and joy like thine.

YE who own the faith of Jesus

Mother of his only Son.

Hail Mary, full of grace.

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. MARY THE VIRGIN

2 Blessed were the chosen people
Out of whom the Lord did come,
Blessèd was the land of promise
Fashioned for his earthly home;
But more blessed far the Mother
She who bare him in her womb.

3 Wherefore let all faithful people
Tell the honour of her name,
Let the Church in her foreshadowed
Part in her thanksgiving claim;
What Christ's Mother sang in gladness
Let Christ's people sing the same.

4 Let us weave our supplications,
She with us and we with her,
For the advancement of the faithful,
For each faithful worshipper,
For the doubting, for the sinful,
For each heedless wanderer.

5 * May the Mother's intercessions
On our homes a blessing win,
That the children all be prospered,
Strong and fair and pure within,
Following our Lord's own footsteps,
Firm in faith and free from sin.

6 * For the sick and for the aged,
For our dear ones far away,
For the hearts that mourn in secret,
All who need our prayers to-day,
For the faithful gone before us,
May the holy Virgin pray.

7. Praise, O Mary, praise the Father,
Praise thy Saviour and thy Son,
Praise the everlasting Spirit,
Who hath made thee ark and throne
O'er all creatures high exalted,
Lowly praise the Three in One.

Amen.

THE Saint who first found grace to pen
The Life which was the Life of men,
And shed abroad the Gospel's ray,
His fame we celebrate to-day.

- 2 Lo, drawn by Pentecostal fire,
His heart conceived its great desire,
When pure of mind, inspired, he heard
And with his hand set forth the Word.
- 3 Then, clearly writ, the Godhead shone
Serene and fair to look upon;
And through that record still comes power
To lighten souls in death's dark hour.
- 4 O holy mind, for wisdom fit
Wherein that Life of lives stood writ,
May we through minds of like accord
Show forth the pattern of our Lord.
- 5 And so may all whose minds are dark
Be led to truth by good Saint Mark,
And after this our earthly strife
Stand written in the Book of Life.
6. Praise God who made the world so fair,
And sent his Son our Saviour there,
And by his Holy Spirit wist
To teach the first Evangelist. Amen.

P. D.

- THE winter's sleep was long and deep,
 But earth is awakened and gay;
For the life ne'er dies that from God doth rise,
 And the green comes after the grey.
- 2 So God doth bring the world to spring;
 And on this holy day
Doth the Church proclaim her Apostles' fame,
 To welcome the first of May.
- 3 Two Saints of God went by the road
 That leadeth on to light;
And they gave up all at their Master's call,
 To work in their Master's sight.
- 4 Would Philip's mind the Father find?
 Lo, he hath found the Way;
For to know the Son is to know the One
 Whom the earth and the heavens obey.
- 5 And, James, 'twas thine by grace divine
 To preach the Christian life,
Where our faith is shown by our works alone,
 And love overcometh strife.
6. Lord, grant that we may brethren be—
 As Christians live in deed;
For it is but so we can learn to know
 The truth that to thee doth lead.

THE Son of Consolation!
Of Levi's priestly line,
Filled with the Holy Spirit
And fervent faith divine,
With lowly self-oblation,
For Christ an offering meet,
He laid his earthly riches
At the Apostles' feet.

2 The Son of Consolation!

With praise, and joy, and light.

4 The Son of Consolation!

Lord, hear our humble prayer,
That each of us thy children
This blessed name may bear;
That we, sweet comfort shedding
O'er homes of pain and woe,
'Midst sickness and in prisons,
May seek thee here below.

WITH gold most precious, and with sanguine hues of morn,
O Saviour gracious, Light of light, this day adorn,
To sinners granting pardon, peace, and welcome home,
Where heaven is chanting praise of splendid martyrdom.

- 2 For thy true servant Peter bearing high the keys,
And Paul whose fervent word proclaimed thy mysteries,
By cross victorious and by sword-stroke triumphing,
Now share the glorious court of life's eternal King.

The royal Master gave in charge the heavenly gate,
In sin's defiling bondage be our joy to gauge
The reconciling virtue of thine embassage.

Fuller and richer be the truth we learn of thee,
Till for the failing doctrine that in part we know
His all-revealing light our bounteous God bestow.

And deeply drinking from the fount of either love,
Ye stood in union like twin olive trees of grace;
Through whose communion may we seek the Father's face.

FORSAKEN once, and thrice denied,
 The risen Lord gave pardon free,
 Stood once again at Peter's side,
 And asked him, 'Lov'st thou me?'

- 2 How many times with faithless word
 Have we denied his holy name,
 How oft forsaken our dear Lord,
 And shrunk when trial came!
- 3 Saint Peter, when the cock crew clear,
 Went out, and wept his broken faith;
 Strong as a rock through strife and fear
 He served his Lord till death.
- 4 How oft his cowardice of heart
 We have without his love sincere,
 The sin without the sorrow's smart,
 The shame without the tear!
- 5 O oft forsaken, oft denied,
 Forgive our shame, wash out our sin;
 Look on us from thy Father's side
 And let that sweet look win.
6. Hear when we call thee from the deep,
 Still walk beside us on the shore,
 Give hands to work, and eyes to weep,
 And hearts to love thee more.

NOW in holy celebration
 Sing we of that Mother blest,
 In whose flesh for men's salvation
 God incarnate deigned to rest,
 When a kindred salutation
 Named in faith the mystic Guest.

* Lo, the advent Word confessing,
 Spake for joy the voice yet dumb,
 Through his mother's lips addressing
 Her, of motherhood the sum,—
 Bower of beauty, blest and blessing,
 Crowned with fruit of Life to come.

 'Comes to me this great reward?
 For when first I heard the greeting
 Of the Mother of my Lord,
 In my womb, the joy repeating,
 Leapt my babe in sweet accord!'

4 Lo, at that glad commendation
 Joy found voice in Mary's breast
 While in holy exultation
 She her Maker's power confess,
 At whose word each generation
 Now henceforward names her

MARY, weep not, weep no longer,
Now thy heart hath gained its goal;
Here, in truth, the Gardener standeth,
But the Gardener of thy soul,
Who within thy spirit's garden
By his love hath made thee whole.

2 Now from grief and lamentation
Lift thy drooping heart with cheer;
While for love of him thou mournest,
Lo, thy Lord regained is here!
Fainting for him, thou hast found him;
All unknown, behold him near!

SAINTS' DAYS: ST. MARY MAGDALENE

2* Whence thy sorrow, whence thy weeping,
Since with thee true bliss abides?
In thy heart, though undiscovered,
Balm of consolation hides:
Holding all, thou canst no longer
Lack the cure that Health provides.

4 Nay, no wonder if she knows not
Till the Sower's seed be sown,
Till from him, the Word eternal,
Light within her heart is thrown.
Lo, he calls her; lo, 'Rabboni,'
She in turn her Lord doth own.

5 Faith that washed the feet of Jesus,
Fed with dew the Fount of Grace,
Win for us a like compassion,
That, with all the ransomed race,
At the glory of his rising
We may see him face to face!

6. Glory be to God and honour,
Who, preferring sacrifice,
Far above the rich man's bounty,
Sweetness found in Mary's sighs,
Who for all, his love foretasting,
Spreads the banquet of the skies.

W. Bright, 1824-1901.

HE sat to watch o'er customs paid,
A man of scorned and hardening
Alike the symbol and the tool [trade;
Of foreign masters' hated rule.

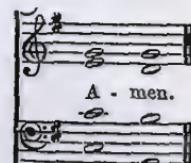

3 Enough, when thou wert passing by,
To hear thy voice, to meet thine eye:
He rose, responsive to the call,
And left his task, his gains, his all.

2 But grace within his breast had stirred;
There needed but the timely word;
It came, true Lord of souls, from thee,
That royal summons, 'Follow me.'

4 O wise exchange! with these to part,
And lay up treasure in thy heart;
With twofold crown of light to shine
Amid thy servants' foremost line.

5 Come, Saviour, as in days of old;
Pass where the world has strongest hold,
And faithless care and selfish greed
Are thorns that choke the holy seed.

6. Who keep thy gifts, O bid them claim
The steward's, not the owner's name;
Who yield all up for thy dear sake,
Let them of Matthew's wealth partake.

COELITES PLAUDANT. (11 11. 11 5.)

In moderate time $\text{d} = 96$. To be sung in unison.

Rosen Church Melody.

The musical score consists of four staves of music. The top two staves are in G major, indicated by a clef and a key signature of one sharp. The bottom two staves are also in G major. The music is in common time, indicated by a 'C' at the beginning of each staff. The notes are primarily quarter notes and eighth notes, with some sixteenth-note patterns. The vocal line follows a simple harmonic progression, primarily consisting of chords of G major and D major.

- 2 Send thy Archangel, Michael, to our succour;
Peacemaker blessedèd, may he banish from us
Striving and hatred, so that for the peaceful
All things may prosper.
- 3 Send thy Archangel, Gabriel, the mighty;
Herald of heaven, may he from us mortals
Spurn the old serpent, watching o'er the temples
Where thou art worshipped.
- 4 Send thy Archangel, Raphael, the restorer
Of the misguided ways of men who wander,
Who at thy bidding strengthens soul and body
With thine anointing.
- 5 May the blest Mother of our God and Saviour,
May the assembly of the Saints in glory,
May the celestial companies of Angels
Ever assist us.
6. Father almighty, Son and Holy Spirit,
God ever blessed, be thou our preserver;
Thine is the glory which the Angels worship,
Veiling their faces. Amen.

J. M. Neale, 1818-66.

AROUND the throne of God a band
Of glorious Angels always stand;
Bright things they see, sweet harps they hold,
And on their heads are crowns of gold.

- 2 Some wait around him, ready still
To sing his praise and do his will;
And some, when he commands them, go
To guard his servants here below.
- 3 Lord, give thy Angels every day
Command to guide us on our way,
And bid them every evening keep
Their watch around us while we sleep.
4. So shall no wicked thing draw near,
To do us harm or cause us fear;
And we shall dwell, when life is past,
With Angels round thy throne at last.

Φωστῆρες τῆς ἀΐλου.

STARS of the morning, so gloriously bright,
Filled with celestial resplendence and light,
These that, where night never followeth day,
Raise the Trisagion ever and ay:

2 These are thy counsellors, these dost thou own,
Lord God of Sabaoth, nearest thy throne;
These are thy ministers, these dost thou send,
Help of the helpless ones! man to defend.

Unison. 3 These keep the guard amid Salem's dear bowers;
Thrones, Principalities, Virtues, and Powers;
Where, with the Living Ones, mystical Four,
Cherubim, Seraphim bow and adore.

4 * 'Who like the Lord?' thunders Michael the Chief;
Raphael, 'the cure of God,' comforteth grief;
And, as at Nazareth, prophet of peace,
Gabriel, 'the Light of God,' bringeth release.

5 Then, when the earth was first poised in mid space,
Then, when the planets first sped on their race,
Then, when were ended the six days' employ,
Then all the Sons of God shouted for joy.

Unison. 6. Still let them succour us; still let them fight,
Lord of angelic hosts, battling for right;
Till, where their anthems they ceaselessly pour,
We with the Angels may bow and adore.

THEY come, God's messengers of love,
 They come from realms of peace above,
 From homes of never-fading light,
 From blissful mansions ever bright.

- 2 They come to watch around us here,
 To soothe our sorrow, calm our fear:
 Ye heavenly guides, speed not away,
 God willeth you with us to stay.
- 3 But chiefly at its journey's end
 'Tis yours the spirit to befriend,
 And whisper to the willing heart,
 'O Christian soul, in peace depart.'
- 4 Blest Jesu, thou whose groans and tears
 Have sanctified frail nature's fears,
 To earth in bitter sorrow weighed,
 Thou didst not scorn thine Angel's aid.
- 5 To us the zeal of Angels give,
 With love to serve thee while we live;
 To us an Angel-guard supply,
 When on the bed of death we lie.
6. To God the Father, God the Son.
 And God the Spirit, Three in One,

If there be that skills to reckon
All the number of the blest,

Of the everlasting rest,
Which, their earthly exile finished,
They by merit have possest.

Happily and safely past,
Now the years of their affliction
In their memory they recast,
And the end of all perfection
They can contemplate at last.

All in common right possess;
There each member hath his portion

In the Body's blessedness;
So that he, the least in merits,
Shares the guerdon none the less.

There the Unity of Essence
Perfectly revealed shall be;
While we hail the Threefold Godhead
And the simple Unity.

Whatsoe'er thy present pain;
Such untold reward through suffering
Thou may'st merit to attain:

- 1 UR Father's home eternal,
O Christ, thou dost prepare
With many divers mansions,
And each one passing fair;
They are the victors' guerdon,
Who, through the hard-won fight,
Have followed in thy footsteps,
And reign with thee in light.
- 2 Amidst the happy number
The Virgins' crown and queen,
The ever-virgin Mother
Is first and foremost seen;
The Patriarchs in their triumph
Thy praises nobly sing,
The Prophets of thy wisdom
Adore the nations' King;
- 3 The Apostles reign in glory,
The Martyrs joy in thee;
The Virgins and Confessors
Thy shining brightness see;

And every patient sufferer,
Who sorrow dared contemn,
For each especial anguish
Hath one especial gem.

- 4 *The holy men and women,
Their earthly struggle o'er,
With joy put off the armour
That they shall need no more;
For these, and all that battled
Beneath their Monarch's eyes,
The harder was the conflict
The brighter is the prize.
5. And every faithful servant,
Made perfect in thy grace,
Hath each his fitting station
'Mid those that see thy face;
The bondsman and the noble,
The peasant and the king.
All gird one glorious Monarch
In one eternal ring.

Jam lucis orto sidere.

5th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That he, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm to-day:
2 Would guard our hearts and tongues from strife;
From anger's din would hide our life;

From all ill sights would turn our eyes;
Would close our ears from vanities:
3 Would keep our inmost conscience
pure;
Our souls from folly would secure;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence.

- 4 So we, when this new day is gone,
And night in turn is drawing on,
With conscience by the world unstained
Shall praise his name for victory gained.
5. All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

Anciently the Hymns for the hours were sung with the special doxologies of the M. and E. Office Hymns during Christmastide, Epiphany, Eastertide, Ascension, and Whitsuntide.

The doxology section begins with a single staff of music, followed by a large stylized letter 'N' on a blank staff, and then continues with another staff of music. The notation is consistent with the previous hymn, using the same clefs and time signature.

Doubt of what it holds in store

Lest it prove a time of loss,
Mark it, Saviour, with thy Cross.

2 If it flow on calm and bright,
Be thyself our chief delight;
If it bring unknown distress,
Good is all that thou canst bless;
Only, while its hours begin,
Pray we, keep them clear of sin.

Well for us, before thine eyes
All our danger open lies;
Turn not from us, while we plead

Live each moment on thy grace,
All our selves to thee consign,
Fold up all our wills in thine,
Think, and speak, and do, and be
Simply that which pleases thee.

Part 2.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Redeem thy mis-spent time that's past
Live this day as if 'twere thy last:
Improve thy talent with due care;
For the great Day thyself prepare.
- 3 Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear;
Think how all-seeing God thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.
- 4 By influence of the light Divine
Let thy own light in good works shine;
Reflect all heaven's propitious ways
In ardent love and cheerful praise.
- 5* Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the Angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praise to the eternal King.
- 6 Awake, awake, ye heavenly choir,
May your devotion me inspire,
- 7 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept
And hast refreshed me whilst I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake
I may of endless light partake.
- 8 Heaven is, dear Lord, where'er thou art,
O never then from me depart;
For to my soul 'tis hell to be
But for one moment void of thee.
- 9 Lord, I my vows to thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.
- 10 Direct, control, suggest, this day
All I design, or do, or say; [might,

*Original version of melody by
O. GIBBONS, 1583-1625.*

Suitable also for Mid-day Services.

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

FORTH in thy name, O Lord, I go,
My daily labour to pursue;
Thee, only thee, resolved to know,
In all I think, or speak, or do.

- 2 The task thy wisdom hath assigned
 O let me cheerfully fulfil;
 In all my works thy presence find,
 And prove thine acceptable will.
- 3 Preserve me from my calling's snare,
 And hide my simple heart above,
 Above the thorns of choking care,
 The gilded baits of worldly love.
- 4 Thee may I set at my right hand,
 Whose eyes my inmost substance see,
 And labour on at thy command,
 And offer all my works to thee.
- 5 Give me to bear thy easy yoke,
 And every moment watch and pray,
 And still to things eternal look,
 And hasten to thy glorious day;
6. For thee delightfully employ
 Whate'er thy bounteous grace hath given,
 And run my course with even joy,
 And closely walk with thee to heaven.

MELCOMBE. (L. M.)
Moderately slow $\text{♩} = 60.$

S. WEBBE the elder, 1740-1816.

NOTE.—A higher setting of this tune will be found at Hymn 631.

J. Keble, 1792-1866.

NEW every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove;
Through sleep and darkness safely
brought,
Restored to life, and power, and

2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

4 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
As more of heaven in each we see;
Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care.

5 * We need not bid, for cloistered cell,
Our neighbour and our work farewell,
Nor strive to wind ourselves too high
For sinful man beneath the sky :

6 * The trivial round, the common task,
Would furnish all we ought to ask,—
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

7. Only, O Lord, in thy dear love
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us this and every day
To live more nearly as we pray.

OFFICE HYMN. Sext.Ascribed to St. Ambrose, 340-97.Tr. J. M. Neale.

Rector potens, verax Deus.

O GOD of truth, O Lord of might,
Who orderest time and change aright,
And send'st the early morning ray,
And light'st the glow of perfect day :

2 Extinguish thou each sinful fire,
And banish every ill desire;
And while thou keep'st the body whole,
Shed forth thy peace upon the soul.

3. O Father, that we ask be done,

OFFICE HYMN. None.

Rerum Deus tenax vigor.

Ascribed to St. Ambrose, 340-97.

Tr. J. M. Neale.

O GOD, Creation's secret force,
Thyself unmoved, all motion's source,
Who from the morn till evening ray
Through all its changes guid'st the day:

2 Grant us, when this short life is past,
The glorious evening that shall last;
That, by a holy death attained,
Eternal glory may be gained.

3. O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

The musical score for the concluding portion of the hymn consists of two staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef and has a key signature of one sharp. The bottom staff uses a bass clef and has a key signature of one sharp. The music concludes with a final cadence, indicated by a double bar line and the word "Amen".

ALFRETON. (L. M.)

'Supplement to the NEW VERSION,' 1708.

William Wordsworth, 1770-1850.

BLEST are the moments, doubly blest,
That, drawn from this one hour of rest,
Are with a ready heart bestowed
Upon the service of our God!

2 * Each field is then a hallowed spot,
An altar is in each man's cot,
A church in every grove that spreads
Its living roof above our heads.

3 Look up to heaven! the industrious sun
Already half his race hath run;
He cannot halt or go astray,
But our immortal spirits may.

4 Lord, since his rising in the east,
If we have faltered or transgressed,
Guide, from thy love's abundant source,
What yet remains of this day's course;

5. Help with thy grace, through life's short day,
Our upward and our downward way;
And glorify for us the west,
When we shall sink to final rest.

At even when the sun was set
The sick, O Lord, around thee lay;
O, in what divers pains they met!
O with what joy they went away!

2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we Oppressed with various ills draw near;
What if thy form we cannot see?
We know and feel that thou art here.

3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel;
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved thee well,
And some have lost the love they had;

4 And some have found the world is vain,
Yet from the world they break not free;
And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in thee;

5 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin;
And they who fain would serve thee best
Are conscious most of wrong within.

6 O Saviour Christ, thou too art Man;
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide;

7. Thy touch has still its ancient power,
No word from thee can fruitless fall;
Hear in this solemn evening hour,
And in thy mercy heal us all.

T. TALLIS, c. 1515-85.

Bishop T. Ken, 1637-1711.

GLORY to thee, my God, this night | 2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
For all the blessings of the light; | The ill that I this day have done,
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings, | That with the world, myself, and thee,
Beneath thy own almighty wings. | I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the awful day.

4 O may my soul on thee repose,
And with sweet sleep mine eyelids close,
Sleep that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

5* When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

6* You, my blest guardian, whilst I sleep
Close to my bed your vigils keep;
Divine love into me instil,
Stop all the avenues of ill.

7. Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise him, all creatures here below,
Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef, the middle staff an alto clef, and the bottom staff a bass clef. The time signature is 2/4. The key signature is B-flat major. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, primarily in quarter note time values. Measures are separated by vertical bar lines, and repeat signs with dots indicate measure repeats.

J. Ellerton, 1826-93.

SAVIOUR, again to thy dear name we raise
 With one accord our parting hymn of praise.
 Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
 That in this house have called upon thy name.

2 Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the coming night;
 Turn thou for us its darkness into light;
 From harm and danger keep thy children free,
 For dark and light are both alike to thee.

3 Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life;
 Peace to thy Church from error and from strife;
 Peace to our land, the fruit of truth and love;
 Peace in each heart, the Spirit from above:

 It is not night if thou be near:
 O may no earth-born cloud arise
 To hide thee from thy servant's eyes.

- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
 My wearied eyelids gently steep,
 Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
 For ever on my Saviour's breast.
- 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
 For without thee I cannot live;
 Abide with me when night is nigh,
 For without thee I dare not die.

 Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
 Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;

HURSLEY. (L.M.)

Slow $d = 80$.

Abridged from melody in

'Katholisches Gesangbuch,' Vienna, c. 1774.

The image shows three staves of musical notation for the hymn tune Hursley. Each staff is divided into measures by vertical bar lines. The notation uses a combination of quarter and eighth notes, with various dynamics such as 'p' (piano) and 'f' (forte) indicated. The first staff (Measure 1) starts with a treble clef, followed by a bass clef. The second staff (Measure 2) starts with a bass clef, followed by a treble clef. The third staff (Measure 3) follows the same pattern. The music is divided into three sections, each consisting of two staves.

As this hymn is very frequently sung, it is thought advisable to add here an alternative tune. The former tune is the more suitable for use in church.

THE duteous day now closeth,
Each flower and tree reposeth,
Shade creeps o'er wild and wood:
Let us, as night is falling,
On God our Maker calling,
Give thanks to him, the Giver good.

2 Now all the heavenly splendour
Breaks forth in starlight tender
From myriad worlds unknown;
And man, the marvel seeing,
Forgets his selfish being,
For joy of beauty not his own.

3 His care he drowneth yonder,
Lost in the abyss of wonder;
To heaven his soul doth steal:
This life he disesteemeth,
The day it is that dreameth,
That doth from truth his vision seal.

4. Awhile his mortal blindness
May miss God's lovingkindness,
And grope in faithless strife:
But when life's day is over
Shall death's fair night discover
The fields of everlasting life.

Let love awake, and pay
Her evening sacrifice.

2 As Christ upon the Cross,
In death reclined,
Into his Father's hands
His parting soul resigned,

3 So now herself my soul
Would wholly give
Into his sacred charge,
In whom all spirits live;

4 So now beneath his eye
Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast,

5 Save that his will be done,
Whate'er betide,
Dead to herself, and dead
In him to all beside.

In all his power and love
Henceforth alive in me—

Kept and led us day by day;
Now there comes the first and best,
Day of worship, light and rest.

2 Hallow, Lord, the coming day!
When we meet to praise and pray,
Hear thy word, thy Feast attend,

Hours of happy service spend;
To our hearts be manifest,
Lord of labour and of rest!

3 For thy children gone before
We can trust thee and adore;
All their earthly week is past,
Sabbath-time is theirs at last;
Fold them, Father, to thy breast,
Give them everlasting rest.

4. Guide us all the days to come,
Till thy mercy call us home:
All our powers do thou employ,
Be thy work our chiefest joy;
Then, the promised land possest,
Bid us enter into rest.

O DAY of rest and gladness,

Most beautiful, most bright;
On thee the high and lowly,
Through ages joined in tune,
Sing Holy, Holy, Holy,
To the great God triune.

Unison.

2 On thee at the creation
The light first had its birth;
On thee for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth;

The Spirit sent from heaven;
And thus on thee most glorious
A triple light was given.

3 Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry dreary sand;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land:
A day of sweet refection,
A day thou art of love,
A day of resurrection
From earth to things above.

4. New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest.

To thee, blest Three in One. Amen.

THE summer days are come again;
 Once more the glad earth yields
 Her golden wealth of ripening grain,
 And breath of clover fields,
 And deepening shade of summer woods,
 And glow of summer air,
 And winging thoughts, and happy moods
 Of love and joy and prayer.

2. The summer days are come again;
 The birds are on the wing;
 God's praises, in their loving strain,

 We lift our song to him.

COME, ye thankful people, come,

Ere the winter storms begin;
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied;
Come to God's own temple, come;
Raise the song of harvest-home!
We ourselves are God's own field,
Fruit unto his praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown;

Unison. 4. Then, thou Church triumphant, come,
Raise the song of harvest-home;
All are safely gathered in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
There for ever purified
In God's garner to abide:
Come, ten thousand Angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest-home!

First the blade and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear:
Grant, O harvest Lord, that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take his harvest home;
From his field shall purge away
All that doth offend, that day;
Give his Angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast.
But the fruitful ears to store
In his garner evermore.

WHEN spring unlocks the flowers to paint the laughing soil;
 When summer's balmy showers refresh the mower's toil;
 When winter binds in frosty chains the fallow and the flood;
 In God the earth rejoiceth still, and owns his Maker good.

- 2 The birds that wake the morning, and those that love the shade;

Ever may our souls be fed
With this true and living Bread,
Day by day with strength supplied
Through the life of him who died.

2. Vine of heaven, thy Blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice;
'Tis thy wounds our healing give;
To thy Cross we look and live:
Thou our life! O let us be Rooted, grafted, built on thee.

HOLY COMMUNION

The musical score consists of four staves of music, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is in common time. The lyrics are as follows:

shed, By whom the words of life were sp - ken, And in whose death our sins are dead: Look on the heart by sor - row bro - ken,

Look on the tears by sin ners shed, And be thy feast to us the ken That by thy grace our souls are fed! A - men.

[As this hymn consists of one verse only, it is suggested that it be sung twice over; once by the CHOIR ALONE and again by choir and people in unison. It may also be used as a short motet for unaccompanied singing by the choir.]

slow $\text{d} = 69$ ($\text{D} = 34$).

Melody by J. CRÜGER, 1598-1662.

The musical score is handwritten in black ink on five staves. The key signature is F major (one sharp). The time signature is common time (indicated by a 'C'). The vocal parts are labeled above the staves: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. The notation uses a mix of short vertical dashes and horizontal strokes for note heads, with vertical stems extending downwards. Measure numbers are present above the first system.

NOTE.—The original rhythm of line 3 is as follows, and may be substituted for the above, if preferred:

This is a second handwritten musical score for the same hymn, showing an alternative rhythmic interpretation for the third line. The vocal parts are labeled above the staves: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. The notation uses a mix of short vertical dashes and horizontal strokes for note heads, with vertical stems extending downwards.

Before Communion, or Preparation.

J. Franck, 1618-77. Tr. C. Winkworth.

Schmücke dich.

DECK thyself, my soul, with gladness,
Leave the gloomy haunts of sadness,
Come into the daylight's splendour,
There with joy thy praises render
Unto him whose grace unbounded
Hath this wondrous banquet founded ;
High o'er all the heavens he reigneth,
Yet to dwell with thee he deigneth.

2* Now I sink before thee lowly,
Filled with joy most deep and holy,
As with trembling awe and wonder
On thy mighty works I ponder;
How, by mystery surrounded,
Depths no man hath ever sounded,
None may dare to pierce unbidden
Secrets that with thee are hidden.

Part 2.

3 Sun, who all my life dost brighten ;
Light, who dost my soul enlighten ;
Joy, the sweetest man e'er knoweth ;
Fount, whence all my being floweth :
At thy feet I cry, my Maker,
Let me be a fit partaker
Of this blessed food from heaven,
For our good, thy glory, given.

4. Jesus, Bread of Life, I pray thee,
Let me gladly here obey thee ;
Never to my hurt invited,
Be thy love with love requited :
From this banquet let me measure,
Lord, how vast and deep its treasure ;
Through the gifts thou here dost give me,
As thy guest in heaven receive me.

And drink the holy Blood for you outpoured,
Saved by that Body, hallowed by that Blood,
Whereby refreshed we render thanks to God.

By that his Cross and Blood the victory won.
Offered was he for greatest and for least:
Himself the Victim, and himself the Priest.

That, in a type, celestial mysteries told.
He, Ransomer from death and Light from shade,
Giveth his holy grace his saints to aid.

And take the safeguard of salvation here.
He that in this world rules his saints and shields,
To all believers life eternal yields:

For the heart and brain's delight,
For the mystic harmony
Linking sense to sound and sight:

Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above,
For all gentle thoughts and mild:

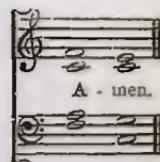

5* For each perfect gift of thine
To our race so freely given,
Graces human and divine,
Flowers of earth and buds of heaven:

6* For thy Bride that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore
This pure sacrifice of love:

O bring them back, good Shepherd of the sheep,
Back to the Faith which Saints believed of old,
Back to the Church which still that Faith doth keep:
Soon may we all one Bread, one Body be,

Which the world's eternal King,
In a noble womb once dwelling,
Shed for this world's ransoming.

2 Given for us, for us descending,
Of a Virgin to proceed,
Man with man in converse blending,
Scattered he the Gospel seed,
Till his sojourn drew to ending,
Which he closed in wondrous deed.

3 At the last great Supper lying
Circled by his brethren's band,
Meekly with the law complying,
First he finished its command,
Then, immortal Food supplying,
Gave himself with his own hand.

4 Word made Flesh, by word he maketh
Very bread his Flesh to be;
Man in wine Christ's Blood partaketh:
And if senses fail to see,
Faith alone the true heart waketh
To behold the mystery.

At the Communion.

Part 2.

Tantum ergo.

5 Therefore we, before him bending,
This great Sacrament revere;
Types and shadows have their ending,
For the newer rite is here;
Faith, our outward sense befriending,
Makes the inward vision clear.

6. Glory let us give, and blessing
To the Father, and the Son;
Honour, might, and praise addressing,
While eternal ages run;
Ever too his love confessing,
Who, from both, with both is one.
Amen.

ALBANO. (C. M.)
Moderately slow $\text{d} = 60.$

V. NOVELLO, 1781-1861.

The musical notation consists of two staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. Both staves have four measures per line. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, with some quarter notes and rests. The key signature changes between the two staves.

NOTE.—This hymn may also be sung to Song 67 (No. 197).

W. Bright, 1824-1901.

- ONCE, only once, and once for all,
His precious life he gave;
Before the Cross in faith we fall,
And own it strong to save.
- 2 'One offering, single and complete,'
With lips and hearts we say;
But what he never can repeat
He shows forth day by day.
- 3 For as the priest of Aaron's line
Within the holiest stood,
And sprinkled all the mercy-shrine
With sacrificial blood;
- 4 So he, who once atonement wrought,
Our Priest of endless power,
Presents himself for those he bought
In that dark noontide hour.
- 5 His Manhood pleads where now it lives
On heaven's eternal throne,
And where in mystic rite he gives
Its presence to his own.
6. And so we show thy death, O Lord,
Till thou again appear,
And feel, when we approach thy board,
We have an altar here.

Adoro te devote.

St. Thomas Aquinas, 1227-74.
Tr. Bishop J. R. Woodford.

THEE we adore, O hidden Saviour, thee,
Who in thy Sacrament art pleased to be;
Both flesh and spirit in thy presence fail,
Yet here thy Presence we devoutly hail.

2 O blest Memorial of our dying Lord,
Who living Bread to men doth here afford!
O may our souls for ever feed on thee,
And thou, O Christ, for ever precious be.

3 * Fountain of goodness, Jesu, Lord and God.
Cleanse us, unclean, with thy most cleansing
Blood;

Increase our faith and love, that we may know
The hope and peace which from thy Presence

Melody from Damon's Psalter, 1591.
rhythm according to the Scottish Psalter, 1623.

NOTE.—This hymn may also be sung to WILTSHIRE (No. 502).

Suitable also for other occasions.

W. Couper, 1731-1900.

THERE is a fountain filled with Blood,
Drawn from Emmanuel's veins,
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.

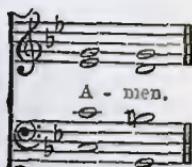

3 Dear dying Lamb, thy precious Blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved to sin no more.

4 E'er since by faith I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save,
When this poor lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave.

6 Lord, I believe thou hast prepared,
Unworthy though I be,
For me a blood-bought free reward,
A golden harp for me.

NOTE.—This hymn may also be sung to SOUTH CERNEY (No. 359).

P. Wesley, 1707-88.

VICTIM Divine, thy grace we claim
 While thus thy precious Death we show ;
 Once offered up, a spotless Lamb,
 In thy great temple here below,
 Thou didst for all mankind atone,
 And standest now before the throne.

- 2 Thou standest in the holiest place,
 As now for guilty sinners slain ;
 Thy Blood of sprinkling speaks and prays
 All-prevalent for helpless man ;
 Thy Blood is still our ransom found,
 And spreads salvation all around.
3. We need not now go up to heaven
 To bring the long-sought Saviour down ;
 Thou art to all already given,
 Thou dost e'en now thy banquet crown :
 To every faithful soul appear,
 And show thy real Presence here.

WE pray thee, heavenly Father,
To hear us in thy love,
And pour upon thy children
The unction from above;
That so in love abiding,
From all defilement free,
We may in pureness offer
Our Eucharist to thee.

2 All that we have we offer,
For it is all thine own,
All gifts, by thine appointment,
In bread and cup are shown;
One thing alone we bring not,
The wilfulness of sin,
And all we bring is nothing
Save that which is within.

- 3 Within the pure oblation,
Beneath the outward sign,
By that his operation,—
The Holy Ghost divine,—
Lies hid the sacred Body,
Lies hid the precious Blood,
Once slain, now ever glorious,
Of Christ our Lord and God.
4. Wherefore, though all unworthy
To offer sacrifice,
We pray that this our duty
Be pleasing in thine eyes;
For praise, and thanks and worship,
For mercy and for aid,
The Catholic oblation
Of Jesus Christ is made.

WITH Christ we share a mystic grave,
 With Christ we buried lie;
 But 'tis not in the darksome cave
 By mournful Calvary.

- 2 The pure and bright baptismal flood
 Entombs our nature's stain:
 New creatures from the cleansing wave
 With Christ we rise again.
- 3 Thrice blest, if through this world of sin

CONFIRMATION

W. Bright, 1824-1901.

BEHOLD us, Lord, before thee met,
Whom each bright angel serves
and fears,
Who on thy throne rememberest yet
Thy spotless boyhood's quiet years;
Whose feet the hills of Nazareth trod,
Who art true Man and perfect God.

2 * To thee we look, in thee confide,
Our help is in thine own dear
name;
For who on Jesus e'er relied,
And found not Jesus still the same?
Thus far thy love our souls hath brought:
O establish well what thou hast wrought.

5. So bless us with the gift complete
By hands of thy chief pastors given,
That awful Presence kind and sweet
Which comes in sevenfold might from heaven;
Eternal Christ, to thee we bow,
Give us thy Spirit here and now.

3 The seed of our baptismal life,
O living Word, by thee was sown;
So where thy soldiers wage their strife
Our post we take, our vows we own,
And ask, in thine appointed way,

MARRIAGE

J. Ellerton, 1829-93.

- O FATHER all creating,
Whose wisdom, love, and power
First bound two lives together
In Eden's primal hour,
To-day to these thy children
Thine earliest gifts renew,—
A home by thee made happy,
A love by thee kept true.
- 2 O Saviour, Guest most bounteous
Of old in Galilee,
Vouchsafe to-day thy presence
With these who call on thee;

Their store of earthly gladness
Transform to heavenly wine,
And teach them, in the tasting,
To know the gift is thine.

3 O Spirit of the Father,
Breathe on them from above,
So mighty in thy pureness,
So tender in thy love;
That guarded by thy presence,
From sin and strife kept free,
Their lives may own thy guidance,
Their hearts be ruled by thee.

4. Except thou build it, Father,
The house is built in vain;
Except thou, Saviour, bless it,
The joy will turn to pain;
But nought can break the marriage
Of hearts in thee made one,
And love thy Spirit hallows
Is endless love begun.

Verses 2 and 3 at Holy Communion only.

De profundis exclamantes.

13th cent. Tr. R. F. Littledale.

CHRIST, enthroned in highest heaven,
Hear us crying from the deep,
For the faithful ones departed,
For the souls of all that sleep;
As thy kneeling Church entreateth,
Hearken, Shepherd of the sheep.

2 * King of Glory, hear our voices,
Grant thy faithful rest, we pray;
We have sinned, and may not bide it,
If thou mark our steps astray,
Yet we plead that saving Victim,
Which for them we bring to-day.

3 * That which thou thyself hast offered
To thy Father, offer we;
Let it win for them a blessing,
Bless them, Jesu, set them free:
They are thine, they wait in patience,
Merciful and gracious be.

7. Hear and answer prayers devoutest,
Break, O Lord, each binding chain,
Dash the gates of death asunder,
Quell the devil and his train;
Bring the souls which thou hast ransomed
Evermore in joy to reign.

4 They are thine, O take them quickly,
Thou their Hope, O raise them high;
Ever hoping, ever trusting,
Unto thee they strive and cry;
Day and night, both morn and even,
Be, O Christ, their Guardian nigh.

5 * Let thy plenteous loving-kindness
On them, as we pray, be poured;
Let them through thy boundless mercy,
From all evil be restored;
Hearken to the gentle pleading
Of thy Mother, gracious Lord.

6 * When, O kind and radiant Jesu,
Kneels the Queen thy throne before,
Let the court of Saints attending,
Mercy for the dead implore;
Hearken, loving Friend of sinners,
Whom the Cross exalted bore.

NOTE.—An alternative setting of this tune, with the melody in the tenor will be found at Hymn 114.

Prudentius, b. 348. Tr. P. D.
Deus igne fons animarum.

FATHER of spirits, whose divine control
Doth bind the soul and body into one,
Thou wilt restore this body now undone;
For once it was the mansion of a soul,
Where dwelt the glowing wisdom of thy Son.

2 Thou, Maker of the body, dost ordain
That this thine image, moulded by thy will,
Our every hope in glory shall fulfil;
So, till the body thou dost build again,
Thou wilt preserve the spirit freed from ill.

3 In that blest region shall this spirit dwell
Where flowers undying bloom on every side:
For, lo, we trust thy word, O Crucified,
When in thy triumph over death and hell,
The thief forgiven took thee for his guide.

4. Our brother goeth by the shining way,
That ever to the faithful open lies:
Lord, train thy servant now in Paradise,
And bless him in his fatherland, we pray,
Till thou shalt bid his body to arise.

R. F. Littledale, 1883-90.

IN Paradise resting,
By life's eternal well,
The tender lambs of Jesus
In greenest pastures dwell.

2 There palms and tiny crownlets
Aglow with brightest gem,
Bedeck the baby martyrs
Who died in Bethlehem.

3 With them the rose-wreathed army
Of children undefiled,
Who passed through mortal torments
For love of Christ the Child;

4 With them in peace unending,
With them in joyous mirth,
Are all the stainless infants
Which since have gone from earth.

5 The Angels, once their guardians,
Their fellows now in grace,
With them, in love adoring,
See God the Father's face.

6 The lullaby to hush them
In that eternal rest,
Is sweet angelic singing.
Their nurse God's Mother blest.

7. O Jesu, loving Shepherd,
Who tenderly dost bear
Thy lambs in thine own bosom,
Bring us to join them there.

Thou hast laid thy burden down:
Grant him, Lord, eternal rest,

- 2 Angels bear thee to the land
Where the towers of Sion rise;
Safely lead thee by the hand
To the fields of Paradise:
- 3 White-robed, at the golden gate
Of the new Jerusalem,
May the host of Martyrs wait;
Give thee part and lot with them:
- 4 Friends and dear ones gone before
To the land of endless peace,
Meet thee on that further shore
Where all tears and weeping cease:
- 5 * Rest in peace: the gates of hell
Touch thee not, till he shall come
For the souls he loves so well,—
Dear Lord of the heavenly home:

EIN' FESTE BURG. (87. 87. 66. 667.)

Very slow and solemn $\text{♩} = 40$ Present form of melody by
M. LUTHER, 1483-1546.

A handwritten musical score for 'Ein' feste Burg' in G major, 2/4 time. The score consists of six staves of music, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The music is divided into five systems by vertical bar lines. The first system starts with a half note followed by eighth-note pairs. The second system begins with a dotted half note. The third system starts with a half note followed by eighth-note pairs. The fourth system begins with a dotted half note. The fifth system starts with a half note followed by eighth-note pairs. The sixth staff continues the pattern from the fifth system. The music is written in a clear, cursive hand, with some ink used for the clefs, key signatures, and stems.

GENERAL HYMNS

Martin Luther, 1483-1546. Tr. Thomas Carlyle.

Ein' feste Burg.

Unison.

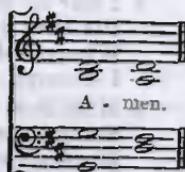

A SAFE stronghold our God is still,
 A trusty shield and weapon;
 He'll help us clear from all the ill
 That hath us now o'er taken.
 The ancient prince of hell
 Hath risen with purpose fell;
 Strong mail of craft and power
 He wear eth in this hour;
 On earth is not his fellow.

2 With force of arms we nothing can,
 Full soon were we down-ridden;
 But for us fights the proper Man,
 Whom God himself hath bidden.
 Ask ye, Who is this same?
 Christ Jesus is his name,
 The Lord Sabaoth's Son;
 He, and no other one,
 Shall conquer in the battle.

3 * And were this world all devils o'er
 And watching to devour us,
 We lay it not to heart so sore;
 Not they can overpower us.
 And let the prince of ill
 Look grim as e'er he will,
 He harms us not a whit;
 For why?—his doom is writ;
 A word shall quickly slay him.

Unison.

4. God's word, for all their craft and force,
 One moment will not linger,
 But, spite of hell, shall have its course;
 'Tis written by his finger.
 And though they take our life,
 Goods, honour, children, wife,
 Yet is their profit small;
 These things shall vanish all,
 The city of God remaineth.

NOTE.—The tune OLD 124TH (No. 114) is equally suitable to this hymn, and can be sung to it by repeating the words of the last line of each verse.

H. F. Lyle, 1793-1847.

- A BIDE with me; fast falls the eventide;
 The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide!
 When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
 Help of the helpless, O abide with me.
- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
 Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
 Change and decay in all around I see;
 O thou who changest not, abide with me.
- 3 I need thy presence every passing hour;
 What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
 Who like thyself my guide and stay can be?
 Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.
- 4 I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless;
 Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
 Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
 I triumph still, if thou abide with me.
- 5 Hold thou thy Cross before my closing eyes;
 Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
 Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
 In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

'Yea, a crown, in very surety,
But of thorns.'

4 If I find him, if I follow,
What his guerdon here?
'Many a sorrow, many a labour,
Many a tear.'

Unison. 5 If I still hold closely to him,
What hath he at last?
'Sorrow vanquished, labour ended,
Jordan past.'

6 If I ask him to receive me,
Will he say me nay?
'Not till earth, and not till heaven

Hic breve vivitur.

Bernard of Cluny, 12th cent.

Tr. J. M. Neale.

BRIEF life is here our portion,
Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
The life that knows no ending,
The tearless life, is there.

2 O happy retribution,
Short toil, eternal rest,
For mortals and for sinners
A mansion with the blest!

3 And martyrdom hath roses
Upon that heavenly ground,
And white and virgin lilies
For virgin-souls abound.

4 There grief is turned to pleasure,
Such pleasure as below
No human voice can utter,
No human heart can know.

Unison.

5 And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown.

6 And now we watch and struggle,
And now we live in hope,
And Sion in her anguish
With Babylon must cope.

7 But he whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see him
Shall have him for their own.

8 The morning shall awaken,
The shadows shall decay,
And each true-hearted servant
Shall shine as doth the day.

Unison. 9. Then all the halls of Sion
For ay shall be complete,
And, in the Land of Beauty,
All things of beauty meet.

English Traditional Melody.

NOTE.—This hymn may be also sung to STUTTGART (No. 40).

J. H. Newman, 1801-50.

FIRMLY I believe and truly
God is Three, and God is One;
And I next acknowledge duly
Manhood taken by the Son.
2 And I trust and hope most fully
In that Manhood crucified;

And each thought and deed unruly
Do to death, as he has died.
3 Simply to his grace and wholly
Light and life and strength belong,
And I love supremely, solely,
Him the Holy, him the Strong.

- 4 And I hold in veneration,
For the love of him alone,
Holy Church as his creation,
And her teachings as his own.
5. Adoration ay be given,
With and through the angelic host,
To the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

391 (continued)

Verse 2, lines 5 and 6
should run :

Al! then my spi - rit faints To reach the land I love,

J. Montgomery, 1771-1854.

FOR ever with the Lord !'
Amen ; so let it be ;
Life from the dead is in that word,
'Tis immortality,
Here in the body pent,
Absent from him I roam,
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.

2 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near
At times to faith's foreseeing eye
Thy golden gates appear!
Ah ! then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of Saints,
Jerusalem above.

- 3 'For ever with the Lord !'—
Father, if 'tis thy will,
The promise of that faithful word
E'en here to me fulfil.
Be thou at my right hand,
Then can I never fail;
Uphold thou me, and I shall stand;
Fight, and I must prevail.
4. So when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.
Knowing as I am known,
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before the throne,
'For ever with the Lord !'

Playford's Psalms, 1671. Adapted from NEWTOWN in Scottish Psalter, 1685.

The musical score consists of two staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. Both staves have a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is in common time. The notes are primarily quarter notes and eighth notes, with some sixteenth-note patterns and rests. The first staff begins with a whole note followed by a half note. The second staff begins with a half note followed by a whole note.

W. Cooper, 1731-1800.

GOD moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

- 2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.
- 3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take,
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.
- 4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.
- 5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.
6. Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

H. F. Lyte, 1793-1847.

GOD of mercy, God of grace,
Show the brightness of thy face:
Shine upon us, Saviour, shine,
Fill thy Church with light divine;
And thy saving health extend
Unto earth's remotest end.

2 Let the people praise thee, Lord ;
Be by all that live adored :
Let the nations shout and sing.
Glory to their Saviour King;
At thy feet their tributes pay,
And thy holy will obey.

3. Let the people praise thee, Lord ;
Earth shall then her fruits afford ;
God to man his blessing give,
Man to God devoted live ;
All below, and all above,
One in joy, and light, and love.

O quam juvat fratres.

C. Coffin, 1676-1749. Tr. F. H.

HAPPY are they, they that love God,
Whose hearts have Christ confess'd,
Who by his Cross have found their life,
And 'neath his yoke their rest.

2 Glad is the praise, sweet are the songs,
When they together sing; [ear
And strong the prayers that bow the
Of heaven's eternal King.

- 3 Christ to their homes giveth his peace,
And makes their loves his own:
But ah, what tares the evil one
Hath in his garden sown.
- 4 Sad were our lot, evil this earth,
Did not its sorrows prove
The path whereby the sheep may find
The fold of Jesu's love.

5. Then shall they know, they that love him,
How all their pain is good;
And death itself cannot unbind
Their happy brotherhood.

399 (continued)

F. W. Faber, 1814-63

HARK! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore;
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!

*Angels of Jesus, Angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night!*

- 2 Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come:
And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.
- 3 Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,
And laden souls, by thousands meekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to thee.
- 4 Rest comes at length; though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
All journeys end in welcomes to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.
- 5 Angels! sing on, your faithful watches keeping,
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
While we toil on, and soothe ourselves with weeping,
Till life's long night shall break in endless love.

W. Cowper, 1731-1800.

HARK, my soul! it is the Lord;
 'Tis thy Saviour, hear his word;
 Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee:
 'Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?

- 2 'I delivered thee when bound,
 And, when wounded, healed thy wound;
 Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
 Turned thy darkness into light.
- 3 'Can a woman's tender care
 Cease towards the child she bare?
 Yes, she may forgetful be,
 Yet will I remember thee.
- 4 'Mine is an unchanging love,
 Higher than the heights above,
 Deeper than the depths beneath,
 Free and faithful, strong as death.
- 5 'Thou shalt see my glory soon,
 When the work of grace is done;
 Partner of my throne shalt be;
 Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?'
6. Lord, it is my chief complaint
 That my love is weak and faint;
 Yet I love thee, and adore;
 O for grace to love thee more!

R. Butler, 1615-91.

HE wants not friends that hath thy love,
 And may converse and walk with thee,
 And with thy Saints here and above,
 With whom for ever I must be.

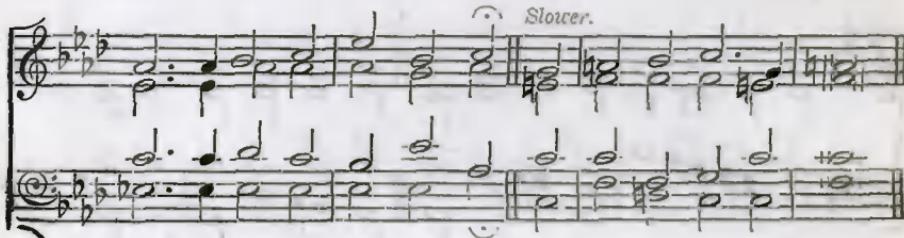

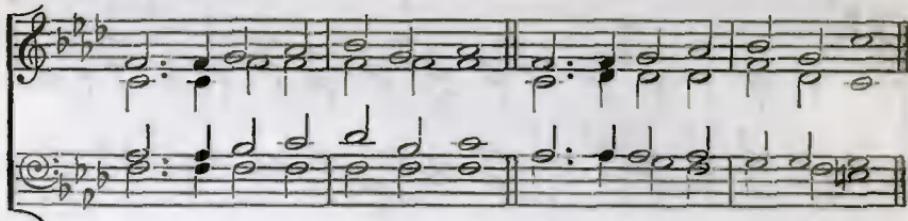

- 2 In the communion of Saints
 Is wisdom, safety and delight;
 And when my heart declines and faints,
 It's raised by their heat and light!
- 3 As for my friends, they are not lost;
 The several vessels of thy fleet,
 Though parted now, by tempests toss'd,
 Shall safely in the haven meet.
- 4 Still we are centred all in thee,
 Members, though distant, of one Head;
 In the same family we be,
 By the same faith and spirit led.
- 5 Before thy throne we daily meet
 As joint-petitioners to thee;
 In spirit we each other greet,
 And shall again each other see.
6. The heavenly hosts, world without end,
 Shall be my company above;
 And thou, my best and surest Friend,
 Who shall divide me from thy love?

R. S. GEORGE.

R. Herrick, 1591-1674.

IN the hour of my distress,
When temptations me oppress,
And when I my sins confess,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.

- 2 When I lie within my bed,
Sick in heart, and sick in head,
And with doubts discomfited,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.
- 3 When the house doth sigh and weep,
And the world is drowned in sleep,
Yet mine eyes the watch do keep,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.
- 4 When, God knows, I'm lost about,
Either with despair or doubt,
Yet, before the glass be out,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.
5. When the Judgement is revealed,
And that opened which was sealed,
When to thee I have appealed,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me.

What light beyond compare.

Urbs Sion aurea.

Bernard of Cluny, 12th cent.
Tr. J. M. Neale.

They stand, those halls of Sion,
Conjubilant with song,
And bright with many an Angel,
And all the Martyr throng:
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene,
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

GENERAL HYMNS

3 There is the throne of David,
And there, from care released,
The song of them that triumph,
The shout of them that feast;

And they who, with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

4. O sweet and blessed country,
Shall I ever see thy face?
O sweet and blessed country,
Shall I ever win thy grace?
Exult, O dust and ashes!
The Lord shall be thy part:
His only, his for ever,
Thou shalt be, and thou art!

17th cent. Tr. Sir H. W. Baker.
Dignare me, O Jesu, rogo te.

JESU, grant me this, I pray,
Ever in thy heart to stay;
Let me evermore abide
Hidden in thy wounded side.

2 If the evil one prepare,
Or the world, a tempting snare,
I am safe when I abide
In thy heart and wounded side.

3 If the flesh, more dangerous still,
Tempt my soul to deeds of ill,
Naught I fear when I abide
In thy heart and wounded side.

4. Death will come one day to me;
Jesu, cast me not from thee:
Dying let me still abide
In thy heart and wounded side.

HOLLINGSIDE. (77.77. D.)

Moderately slow $\text{d} = 66$.

J. B. DYRES, 1825-70.

The musical score is handwritten in black ink on white paper. It features two staves for voices and one staff for basso continuo. The top two staves represent the upper voices, and the bottom staff represents the continuo. The music is in common time (indicated by a '2' over a '4') and G major (indicated by a single sharp sign). The vocal parts consist of eighth and sixteenth-note patterns, while the continuo part includes sustained notes and some sixteenth-note figures. The handwriting is clear and legible, though there are some minor variations in note heads and stems.

JESU, Lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high:

GENERAL HYMNS

Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

3 * Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
More than all in thee I find:
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name;
I am all unrighteousness;
False and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

4. Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound;
Make and keep me pure with'n.
Thou of life the fountain art;
Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

Saviour, pure and holy,
On thy love relying
Hear me humbly crying.

- 2 Prince of life and power,
My salvation's tower,
On the Cross I view thee
Calling sinners to thee.
- 3 There behold me gazing
At the sight amazing;
Bending low before thee,
Helpless I adore thee.
- 4 By thy red wounds streaming,
With thy Life-blood gleaming,
Blood for sinners flowing,
Pardon free bestowing;
- 5 By that fount of blessing,
Thy dear love expressing,
All my aching sadness
Turn thou into gladness.

- 2 Jesu, too late I thee have sought,
How can I love thee as I ought?
And how extol thy matchless fame,
The glorious beauty of thy name?
- 3 Jesu, what didst thou find in me,
That thou hast dealt so lovingly?
How great the joy that thou hast brought,
So far exceeding hope or thought!
4. Jesu, of thee shall be my song,
To thee my heart and soul belong;

JESU, name all names above;
Jesu, best and dearest;
Jesu, Fount of perfect love,
Holiest, tenderest, nearest:
Jesu, Source of grace completest;
Jesu purest, Jesu sweetest;
Jesu, Well of power Divine,
Make me, keep me, seal me thine!
2 Woe that I have turned aside
After fleshly pleasure!
Woe that I have never tried
For the heavenly treasure!

4. Jesu, open me the gate
That of old he entered
Who, in that most lost estate,
Wholly on thee ventured;
Thou, whose wounds are ever pleading
And thy Passion interceding,
From my misery let me rise
To a home in Paradise!

Treasure, safe in homes supernal,
Incorruptible, eternal;
Treasure no less price hath won
Than the Passion of the Son!

3 Jesu, crowned with thorns for me,
Scourged for my transgression!
Witnessing, through agony,
That thy good confession!
Jesu, clad in purple raiment,
For my evils making payment:
Let not all thy woe and pain,
Let not Calvary be in vain!

Jesu, dulcis memoria.

JESU, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.

2 Nor voice cansing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than thy blest name,
O Saviour of mankind!

3 O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,

To those who fall, how kind thou art!
How good to those who seek!

4 But what to those who find? Ah! this
Nor tongue nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus! what it is,
None but his loved ones know.

5 Jesu, our only joy be thou,

NOTE. — This tune may also be used for Part 1.

Part 2.

Jesu, Rex admirabilis,

6 O Jesu, King most wonderful,
Thou Conqueror renowned,
Thou sweetness most ineffable,
In whom all joys are found!

7 When once thou visitest the heart,
Then truth begins to shine;
Then earthly vanities depart;
Then kindles love divine.

8 O Jesu! Light of all below!
Thou Fount of life and fire,
Surpassing all the joys we know,
And all we can desire:

9 May every heart confess thy name,
And ever thee adore;
And, seeking thee, itself inflame
To seek thee more and more.

10 Thee may our tongues for ever bless,
Thee may we love alone;
And ever in our lives express
The image of thine own.

A musical ending consisting of two staves. The top staff is in G major (G clef) and the bottom staff is in C major (C clef). Both staves end with a double bar line and the word "A - men." written below them.

Part 3.

Jesu, decus angelicum.

11 O Jesu, thou the beauty art
Of Angel worlds above;
Thy name is music to the heart,
Enchanting it with love.

12 Celestial sweetness unalloyed!
Who eat thee hunger still;
Who drink of thee still feel a void,
Which nought but thou can fill.

13 O my sweet Jesu! hear the sighs
Which unto thee I send;
To thee mine inmost spirit cries,
My being's hope and end!

14 Stay with us, Lord, and with thy light
I lumine the soul's abyss;
Scatter the darkness of our night,
And fill the world with bliss.

15. O Jesu! spotless virgin-flower!
Our life and joy! to thee
Be praise, beatitude, and power
Through all eternity.

 And the city's crowded clangour
 Cries aloud for sin to cease;
 And the homesteads and the woodlands
 Plead in silence for their peace.

Thou didst note my working breast,
Thou hast spared me.

2 Wherefore with my utmost art

Though my sins against me cried,
Thou didst clear me;
And alone, when they replied,
Thou didst hear me.

3 Seven whole days, not one in seven,

In my heart, though not in heaven,
I can raise thee.
Small it is, in this poor sort
To enrol thee:
E'en eternity's too short
To extol thee.

J. H. NEWMAN, 1811-90.

LEAD, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
 Lead thou me on;
 The night is dark, and I am far from home,
 Lead thou me on.
 Keep thou my feet; I do not ask to see
 The distant scene; one step enough for me.

- 2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou
 Shouldst lead me on;
 I loved to choose and see my path; but now
 Lead thou me on.
 I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
 Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

3. So long thy power hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on
 O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
 The night is gone,
 And with the morn those Angel faces smile,
 Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

MANNHEIM. (87. 87. 87.)
Moderately slow $\text{d} = 66$.Altered from Chorale
by F. FILITZ, 1804-76.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef, the middle staff an alto clef, and the bottom staff a bass clef. All staves are in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The music features a repeating pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, primarily using the notes A, B, C, D, E, and G.

J. Edmeston, 1791-1867.

LEAD us, heavenly Father, lead us
O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but thee;
Yet possessing every blessing
If our God our Father be.

2 Saviour! breathe forgiveness o'er us,
All our weakness thou dost know,
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert thou didst go.

3. Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy:
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy!

C. Wesley, 1707-88, and others.

LET saints on earth in concert sing
With those whose work is done;
For all the servants of our King
In earth and heaven are one.

- 2 One family, we dwell in him,
One Church, above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.
- 3 One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of his host hath crossed the flood,
And part is crossing now.
- 4 E'en now to their eternal home
There pass some spirits blest,
While others to the margin come,
Waiting their call to rest.
5. Jesu, be thou our constant Guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And bring us safe to heaven.

Richard Baxter †, 1615-91.

LORD, it belongs not to my care
Whether I die or live;
To love and serve thee is my share,
And this thy grace must give.

- 2 If life be long, I will be glad,
That I may long obey;
If short, yet why should I be sad
To end my little day?
- 3 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before;
He that into God's kingdom comes
Must enter by this door.
- 4 Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet
Thy blessed face to see:
For if thy work on earth be sweet,
What will thy glory be!
- 5 Then I shall end my sad complaints
And weary, sinful days,
And join with the triumphant Saints
That sing my Saviour's praise.
6. My knowledge of that life is small,
The eye of faith is dim;
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with him.

The musical score consists of three staves of handwritten music. The top staff is for the soprano voice, the middle for the alto, and the bottom for the bass. The music is written in common time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation includes various note heads (solid, hollow, and cross), stems, and rests. Measure numbers 1 through 12 are indicated above the staves. The bass staff ends with a repeat sign and a double bar line, followed by measures 13 through 16.

O. Wendell Holmes, 1800-94.

- LORD of all being, throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
 Centre and soul of every sphere,
 Yet to each loving heart how near!
- 2 Sun of our life, thy quickening ray
 Sheds on our path the glow of day;
 Star of our hope, thy softened light
 Cheers the long watches of the night.
- 3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn,
 Our noontide is thy gracious dawn,
 Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign;
 All, save the clouds of sin, are thine.
- 4 Lord of all life, below, above,
 Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
 Before thy ever-blazing throne
 We ask no lustre of our own.
- 5. Grant us thy truth to make us free
 And kindling hearts that burn for thee,
 Till all thy living altars claim
 One holy light, one heavenly flame.

LOVE Divine, all loves excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down,
Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion,
Pure unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.

2 Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more thy temples leave.

C. Wesley, 1707-88.
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve thee as thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise thee, without ceasing,
Glory in thy perfect love.

3. Finish then thy new creation,
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see thy great salvation,
Perfectly restored in thee,
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise!

Amor Patris et Filii.

LOVE of the Father, love of God the Son,
From whom all came, in whom was all begun;
Who forstest heavenly beauty out of strife,
Creation's whole desire and breath of life.

2 Thou the all-holy, thou supreme in might,
Thou dost give peace, thy presence maketh right;
Thou with thy favour all things dost enfold,
With thine all-kindness free from harm wilt hold.

3 Hope of all comfort, splendour of all aid,
That dost not fail nor leave the heart afraid:
To all that cry thou dost all help accord,
The Angels' armour, and the Saints' reward.

4 Purest and highest, wisest and most just,
There is no truth save only in thy trust;
Thou dost the mind from earthly dreams recall,
And bring through Christ to him for whom are all.

5 Eternal glory, all men thee adore,
Who art and shalt be worshipped evermore:
Us whom thou madest, comfort with thy might,
And lead us to enjoy the heavenly light.

All staves are in B-flat major (two flats) and common time (indicated by a 'C'). The music features eighth and sixteenth note patterns, with some notes having stems pointing up and others down. Measure lines divide the music into measures, and rests are also present.

Ray Palmer, 1803-87.

MY faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
O let me from this day
Be wholly thine.

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

4. When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Saviour, then in love
Fear and distrust remove;
O bear me safe above,
A ransomed soul.

Teach us, as ever in thy sight,
To live our life to thee.

- 2 And thou, who cam'st on earth to die
That fallen man might live thereby,
O hear us, for to thee we cry,
In hope, O Lord, to thee.
- 3 Teach us the lesson thou hast taught,
To feel for those thy Blood hath bought,
That every word, and deed, and thought
May work a work for thee.
- 4 For all are brethren, far and wide,
Since thou, O Lord, for all hast died:
Then teach us, whatsoe'er betide,
To love them all in thee.
- 5 In sickness, sorrow, want, or care,
Whate'er it be, 'tis ours to share;
May we, where help is needed, there

O GOD of truth, whose living word
Upholds whate'er hath breath,
Look down on thy creation, Lord,
Enslaved by sin and death.

- 2 Set up thy standard, Lord, that we
Who claim a heavenly birth
May march with thee to smite the lies
That vex thy groaning earth.
- 3 Ah! would we join that blest array,
And follow in the might
Of him, the Faithful and the True,
In raiment clean and white!

- 4 We fight for truth! we fight for God!
Poor slaves of lies and sin;
He who would fight for thee on earth
Must first be true within.

- 5 Then, God of truth, for whom we long—
Thou who wilt hear our prayer—
Do thine own battle in our hearts,
And slay the falsehood there.

6. Yea, come! then, tried as in the fire,
From every lie set free,
Thy perfect truth shall dwell in us,

NEUMARK. (S. S. S. S.)

Slow $\text{d} = 72$.

Original version of melody by

G. NEUMARK, 1821-81.

The musical score consists of four staves of handwritten music. The top three staves are vocal parts: soprano (treble clef), alto (C-clef), and tenor (B-flat clef). The bottom staff is for the bass (F-clef) and includes a 'Ped.' instruction. The music features various note values (eighth and sixteenth notes), rests, and dynamic markings like 'p' (piano). The key signature changes between staves, with some sections in G major and others in F major or D major. The tempo is marked as slow ($\text{d} = 72$). The score concludes with an 'A-men.' at the end of the fourth staff.

E. H. Plumptre, 1821-81.

O LORD of hosts, all heaven possessing,
Behold us from thy sapphire throne,
In doubt and darkness dimly guessing,
We might thy glory half have known;
But thou in Christ hast made us thine,
And on us all thy beauties shine.

2 Illumine all, disciples, teachers,
Thy law's deep wonders to unfold;
With reverent hand let wisdom's preachers [old;
Bring forth their treasures, new and
Let oldest, youngest, find in thee
Of truth and love the boundless sea.

3 Let faith still light the lamp of science,
And knowledge pass from truth to truth,
And wisdom, in its full reliance,
Renew the primal awe of youth;
So holier, wiser, may we grow,
As time's swift currents onward flow.

GENERAL HYMNS

4. Bind thou our life in fullest union
 With all thy Saints from sin set free;
 Uphold us in that blest communion
 Of all thy Saints on earth with thee;
 Keep thou our souls, or there, or here,

O Amor quam ecstaticus. 15th cent. Tr. B. Webb.

O LOVE, how deep, how broad, how high!
 How passing thought and fantasy
 That God, the Son of God, should take
 Our mortal form for mortals' sake.

- 2 He sent no Angel to our race
 Of higher or of lower place,
 But wore the robe of human frame,
 And he himself to this world came.
- 3 For us baptized, for us he bore
 His holy fast, and hungered sore;
 For us temptations sharp he knew;
 For us the tempter overthrew.

4 For us to wicked men betrayed,
 Scourged, mocked, in crown of thorns arrayed;
 For us he bore the Cross's death;
 For us at length gave up his breath.

Unison.

- 5 For us he rose from death again,
 For us he went on high to reign,
 For us he sent his Spirit here
 To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.
6. All honour, laud, and glory be,
 O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee,
 All glory, as is ever meet,
 To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

VATER UNSER. (88. 88. 88.)

Very slow and solemn. $\text{d} = 48.$

462

Melody from Schumann's Geistegesangbuch, 1839.

Harmony from J. S. BACH.

The musical score consists of four staves of handwritten music. The first three staves are in G major, while the fourth staff begins in G major and ends in E major. The music is written in common time. Various dynamics like 'p' (piano), 'f' (forte), and 'mf' (mezzo-forte) are indicated throughout the score. Note heads are represented by small circles or dots, with stems extending either up or down.

NOTE.—Another harmonization of this tune will be found at Hymn 539.

O QUICKLY come, dread Judge of all;
For, awful though thine advent be,
All shadows from the truth will fall,
And falsehood die, in sight of thee:
O quickly come; for doubt and fear

UNISON.

2 O quickly come, great King of all;
Reign all around us, and within;

L. Tattgett, 1825-60.

Let sin no more our souls enthral,
Let pain and sorrow die with sin:
O quickly come; for thou alone
Canst make thy scattered people one.

3 O quickly come, true Life of all,
For death is mighty all around;
On every home his shadows fall,
On every heart his mark is found:
O quickly come; for grief and pain
Can never cloud thy glorious reign.

GENERAL HYMNS

4. O quickly come, sure Light of all,

F. L. Hosmer.

O THOU in all thy might so far,
 In all thy love so near,
 Beyond the range of sun and star,
 And yet beside us here:

2 What heart can comprehend thy name,
 Or searching find thee out,
 Who art within, a quickening flame,
 A presence round about?

3 Yet though I know thee but in part,
 I ask not, Lord, for more;
 Enough for me to know thou art,
 To love thee, and adore.

4. And dearer than all things I know
 Is childlike faith to me,
 That makes the darkest way I go
 An open path to thee.

GENERAL HYMNS

OLD 120TH. (66. 66. 66.)

Moderately slow $\text{♩} = 60$.

464

Melody from Esti's Psalter, 1592.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef, the middle staff an alto clef, and the bottom staff a bass clef. All staves are in common time (indicated by a 'C'). The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some notes having stems pointing up and others down. Measure lines divide the music into measures. The first staff begins with a whole rest followed by a dotted half note. The second staff begins with a half note. The third staff begins with a whole note.

F. T. Palgrave, 1894-07.

O THOU not made with hands,
Not throned above the skies,
Nor walled with shining walls,
Nor framed with stones of price,
More bright than gold or gem,
God's own Jerusalem!

2 Where'er the gentle heart
Finds courage from above;
Where'er the heart forsook
Warms with the breath of love;
Where faith bids fear depart,
City of God, thou art.

5. Not throned above the skies,
Nor golden-walled afar,
But where Christ's two or three
In his name gathered are,
Be in the midst of them,
God's own Jerusalem.

3 Thou art where'er the proud
In humbleness melts down;
Where self itself yields up;
Where Martyrs win their crown;
Where faithful souls possess
Themselves in perfect peace;

4 Where in life's common ways
With cheerful feet we go;
Where in his steps we tread,
Who trod the way of woe;
Where he is in the heart,
City of God, thou art.

*Adapted from a melody in LA FEILLÉE,
'Méthode du plain-chant,' 1782.*

P. Abelard, 1079-1142.

Tr. J. M. Neale.

- O WHAT their joy and their glory must be,
Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see!
Crown for the valiant; to weary ones rest;
God shall be all, and in all ever blest.
- 2 What are the Monarch, his court, and his throne?
What are the peace and the joy that they own?
Tell us, ye blest ones, that in it have share,
If what ye feel ye can fully declare.
- 3 Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,
'Vision of peace,' that brings joy evermore!
Wish and fulfilment can severed be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.
- 4 We, where no trouble distraction can bring,
Safely the anthems of Sion shall sing;
While for thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
Thy blessed people shall evermore raise.
- 5 There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one and no more;
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the Angels and us shall belong.
- 6 Now in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh,
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.
- 7 Low before him with our praises we fall,
Of whom, and in whom, and through whom are all;
Of whom, the Father; and through whom, the Son;
In whom, the Spirit, with these ever One. Amen.

HANOVER. (55. 55. 65. 65.)

Slow $\text{C} = 72$.

Probably by DR. CROFT, 1678-1727.

Ps. 104.

Sir R. Grant †, 1785-1838.

O WORSHIP the King
All glorious above;
O gratefully sing
His power and his love:
Our Shield and Defender,
The Ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendour,
And girded with praise.

GENERAL HYMNS

Unison. 2 O tell of his might,
 O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light,
 Whose canopy space.
His chariots of wrath
 The deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path
 On the wings of the storm.

3 This earth, with its store
 Of wonders untold,
Almighty, thy power
 Hath founded of old;
Hath stablished it fast
 By a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast,
 Like a mantle, the sea.

4 * Thy bountiful care
 What tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air,
 It shines in the light;
It streams from the hills,
 It descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils
 In the dew and the rain.

5 * Frail children of dust,
 And feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust,
 Nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender!
 How firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender,
 Redeemer, and Friend.

Unison. 6. O measureless Might,
 Ineffable Love,
While Angels delight
 To hymn thee above,
Thy humbler creation,
 Though feeble their lays,
With true adoration
 Shall sing to thy praise.

GENERAL HYMNS

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE. (77.77.)

467

Moderately quick $\text{d} = 108.$

H. J. GAUNTLETT, 1805-76.

The musical score consists of two staves of music. The top staff is in G clef and the bottom staff is in C clef. Both staves use common time. The music is set in a 77.77 harmonic rhythm, indicated by the text "Moderately quick d = 108." The notes are primarily quarter and eighth notes, with some sixteenth-note patterns. The score is divided into two sections by a double bar line with repeat dots.

H. Kirke White (1785-1800),

Frances S. Fuller-Maitland and others (1827).

OFT in danger, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians, onward go;
Bear the toil, maintain the strife,
Strengthened with the Bread of Life.

2 Onward, Christians, onward go,
Join the war, and face the foe;
Will ye flee in danger's hour?
Know ye not your Captain's power?

Unison. 3 Let your drooping hearts be glad;
March in heavenly armour clad;
Fight, nor think the battle long,
Victory soon shall tune your song.

4 Let not sorrow dim your eye,
Soon shall every tear be dry;
Let not fears your course impede,
Great your strength, if great your need.

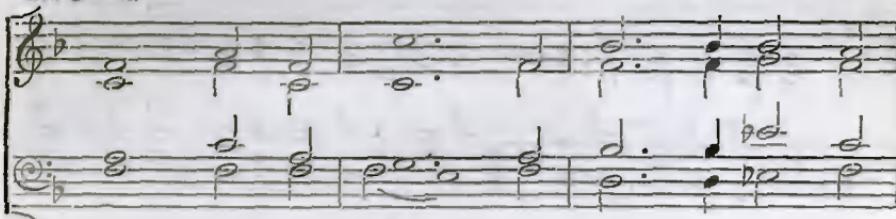

Unison. 5. Onward then in battle move;
More than conquerors ye shall prove;
Though opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldiers, onward go.

Slow $\text{d} = 60.$ First strain of Song 46.
O. GIBBONS, 1583-1625.

Bishop E. H. Bickersteth, 1825-1906.

PEACE, perfect peace, in this dark world of sin?
The Blood of Jesus whispers peace within.

- 2 Peace, perfect peace, by thronging duties pressed?
To do the will of Jesus, this is rest.
- 3 Peace, perfect peace, with sorrows surging round?
On Jesus' bosom nought but calm is found.
- 4 Peace, perfect peace, with loved ones far away?
In Jesus' keeping we are safe and they.
- 5 Peace, perfect peace, our future all unknown?
Jesus we know, and he is on the throne.
- 6 Peace, perfect peace, death shadowing us and ours?
Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.
7. It is enough: earth's struggles soon shall cease,
And Jesus call us to heaven's perfect peace.

GENERAL HYMNS

BENEVENTO. (7.7.7. D.)
Moderately slow, dignified $\text{C} = 60$.Attributed to S. WEBBE the elder, 1740-1816.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef, the middle staff an alto clef, and the bottom staff a bass clef. The music is in common time (indicated by a 'C'). The notation includes various note heads (solid black, hollow, and cross-hatched) and rests, suggesting a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The key signature is G major (no sharps or flats).

NOTE.—Another tune for this hymn will be found in the Appendix.

Ps. 84.

- PLEASANT are thy courts above
In the land of light and love;
Pleasant are thy courts below
In this land of sin and woe:
O, my spirit longs and faints
For the converse of thy Saints,
For the brightness of thy face,
For thy fullness, God of grace.
2 Happy birds that sing and fly
Round thy altars, O most High;
Happier souls that find a rest
In a heavenly Father's breast;

Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.

- 3 Happy souls, their praises flow
Even in this vale of woe;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies;
On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach thy throne at length,
At thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

4. Lord, be mine this prize to win,
Guide me through a world of sin,
Keep me by thy saving grace,
Give me at thy side a place;
Sun and shield alike thou art,
Guide and guard my erring heart.
Grace and glory flow from thee;
Shower, O shower them, Lord, on me.

- PRAISE to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise,
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.
- 2 O loving wisdom of our God!
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.
- 3 O wisest love! that flesh and blood
Which did in Adam fail,
Should strive afresh against their foe,
Should strive and should prevail;
- 4 And that a higher gift than grace
Should flesh and blood refine,
God's presence and his very Self,
And Essence all-divine.
- 5 O generous love! that he who smote
In Man for man the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo;

And on the Cross on high,
Should teach his brethren, and inspire

PRAY when the morn is breaking,
 Pray when the noon is bright,
 Pray with the eve's declining,
 Pray in the hush of night:
 With mind made pure of passion,
 All meaner thoughts away,
 Low in thy chamber kneeling
 Do thou in secret pray.

2 Remember all who love thee,
 All who are loved by thee,
 And next for those that hate thee
 Pray thou, if such there be:
 Last for thyself in meekness
 A blessing humbly claim,
 And link with each petition
 Thy great Redeemer's name.

STILL will we trust, though earth seem dark and dreary,
 And the heart faint beneath his chastening rod,
 Though rough and steep our pathway, worn and weary,
 Still will we trust in God!

2 Our eyes see dimly till by faith anointed,
 And our blind choosing brings us grief and pain ;
 Through him alone, who hath our way appointed,
 We find our peace again.

3 Choose for us, God, nor let our weak preferring
 Cheat our poor souls of good thou hast designed :•
 Choose for us, God ; thy wisdom is unerring,
 And we are fools and blind.

4 * So from our sky the night shall furl her shadows,
 And day pour gladness through his golden gates,
 Our rough path lead to flower-enamelled meadows,
 Where joy our coming waits.

 And to one hope she presses
 With every grace endued.

3 Though with a scornful wonder
 Men see her sore opprest,
 By schisms rent asunder,
 By heresies distrest,
 Yet Saints their watch are keeping,
 Their cry goes up, 'How long?'
 And soon the night of weeping
 Shall be the morn of song.

4 'Mid toil, and tribulation,
 And tumult of her war,
 She waits the consummation
 Of peace for evermore;
 Till with the vision glorious
 Her longing eyes are blest,
 And the great Church victorious
 Shall be the Church at rest.

5. Yet she on earth hath union
 With God the Three in One,
 And mystic sweet communion
 With those whose rest is won:
 O happy ones and holy!
 Lord, give us grace that we
 Like them, the meek and lowly,
 On high may dwell with thee.

(Original form).*

Ps. 23.

Sir H. W. Baker, 1801-77.

- THE King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his
And he is mine for ever.
- 2 Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul he leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow
With food celestial feedeth.

- 3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.
- 4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy Cross before to guide me.

5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth:
And O what transport of delight
From thy pure chalice floweth!

6. And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise
Within thy house for ever.

A-men.

Ps. 23.

- THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye;
My noonday walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.
2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales and dewy meads
My weary wandering steps he leads,
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

- J. Addison, 1672-1719.*
- 3 Though in a bare and rugged way
Through devious lonely wilds I stray,
Thy bounty shall my pains beguile;
The barren wilderness shall smile
With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.
4. Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For thou, O Lord, art with me still:
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.

W. JONES, 1720-1800.

Ps. 85-6.

- THE Lord will come and not be slow,
His footsteps cannot err;
Before him righteousness shall go,
His royal harbinger.

2 Truth from the earth, like to a flower,
Shall bud and blossom then;

And justice, from her heavenly bower,
Look down on mortal men.
Unison.
3 Rise, God, judge thou the earth in
This wicked earth redress; [might,
For thou art he who shalt by right
The nations all possess.

4 The nations all whom thou hast made
Shall come, and all shall frame
To bow them low before thee, Lord,
And glorify thy name.

By thy strong hand are done:
Thou in thy everlasting seat
Remainest God alone.

[It is suggested that the first part of this tune be sung by the CHOIR ALONE and the refrain by choir and people together. The last verse should be sung full throughout.]

NOTE.—This hymn may also be sung to SOLL'S SEIN (No. 288).

Mrs. C. F. Alexander, 1823-95.

THE roseate hues of early dawn,
The brightness of the day,
The crimson of the sunset sky,
How fast they fade away!

Unison.

O for the pearly gates of heaven,
O for the golden floor;
O for the Sun of righteousness
That setteth nevermore!

2 The highest hopes we cherish here,
How fast they tire and faint;
How many a spot defiles the robe
That wraps an earthly saint!

Unison.

O for a heart that never sins,
O for a soul washed white;
O for a voice to praise our King,
Nor weary day or night!

3. Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
And grace to lead us higher;
But there are perfectness and peace,
Beyond our best desire.

Unison. O by thy love and anguish, Lord,
O by thy life laid down,
O that we fall not from thy grace,
Nor cast away our crown!

THE world is very evil;
 The times are waxing late;
 Be sober and keep vigil,
 The Judge is at the gate:
 The Judge that comes in mercy,
 The Judge that comes with might,
 To terminate the evil,
 To diadem the right.

GENERAL HYMNS

2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
Let right to wrong succeed ;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead.
Then glory yet unheard of Shall shed abroad its ray,
Resolving all enigmas,
An endless Sabbath-day.

3 The home of fadeless splendour,
Of flowers that fear no thorn,
Where they shall dwell as children
Who here as exiles mourn ;
The peace of all the faithful,
The calm of all the blest,
Inviolate, unvaried,
Divinest, sweetest, best ;

4 The peace that is for heaven,
And shall be too for earth ;
The palace that re-echoes
With festal song and mirth ;
The garden breathing spices,
The paradise on high ;
Grace beautified to glory,
Unceasing minstrelsy.

5 O happy, holy portion,
Refection for the blest ;
True vision of true beauty,
Sweet cure of all distrest !
Strive, man, to win that glory ;
Toil, man, to gain that light ;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight ;

6. And through the sacred lilies
And flowers on every side,
The happy dear-bought people
Go wandering far and wide ;
Their one and only anthem,
The fullness of his love,
Who gives, instead of torment,
Eternal joys above.

496 (continued)

Sir H. W. Baker, 1821-77.

THREE is a blessed home
Beyond this land of woe,
Where trials never come,
Nor tears of sorrow flow;
Where faith is lost in sight,
And patient hope is crowned,
And everlasting light
Its glory throws around.

2 There is a land of peace,
Good Angels know it well,
Glad songs that never cease
Within its portals swell;
Around its glorious throne
Ten thousand Saints adore
Christ, with the Father One
And Spirit, evermore.

3 O joy all joys beyond,
To see the Lamb who died,
And count each sacred wound
In hands, and feet, and side;
To give to him the praise
Of every triumph won,
And sing through endless days
The great things he hath done.

Unison. 4. Look up, ye saints of God,
Nor fear to tread below
The path your Saviour trod
Of daily toil and woe;
Wait but a little while
In uncomplaining love,
His own most gracious smile
Shall welcome you above.

J. Keble, 1792-1866.

THREE is a book who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

2 The works of God above, below,
Within us and around,
Are pages in that book, to show
How God himself is found.

3 The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love, [small
Wherewith encompassed, great and
In peace and order move.

4 The moon above, the Church below,
A wondrous race they run;
But all their radiance, all their glow,
Each borrows of its sun.

5 * The Saviour lends the light and heat
That crowns his holy hill;
The Saints, like stars, around his seat
Perform their courses still.

11 Two worlds are ours: 'tis only sin
Forbids us to descrie
The mystic heaven and earth within,
Plain as the sea and sky.

12. Thou, who hast given me eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out thee,
And read thee everywhere.

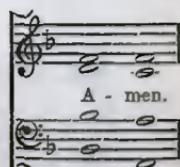

6 * The Saints above are stars in heaven—
What are the saints on earth?
Like trees they stand whom God has
Our Eden's happy birth. [given,

7 * Faith is their fixed unswerving root,
Hope their unfading flower,
Fair deeds of charity their fruit,
The glory of their bower.

8 The dew of heaven is like thy grace,
It steals in silence down;
But where it lights, the favoured place
By richest fruits is known.

9 * One name, above all glorious names,
With its ten thousand tongues
The everlasting sea proclaims,
Echoing angelic songs.

10 The raging fire, the roaring wind,
Thy boundless power display;
But in the gentler breeze we find
Thy Spirit's viewless way.

I. Watts, 1674-1748.

THREE is a land of pure delight,
Where Saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O could we make our doubts remove,
These gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unclouded eyes!
6. Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore!

THREE'S a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice,
Which is more than liberty.

2 There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgement given.

3 There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.

4 For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.

5 But we make his love too narrow
By false limits of our own;
And we magnify his strictness
With a zeal he will not own.

6 There is plentiful redemption
In the Blood that has been shed,
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

7 'Tis not all we owe to Jesus;
It is something more than all;
Greater good because of evil,
Larger mercy through the fall.

8. If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

THEY whose course on earth is o'er,
Think they of their brethren more?
They before the throne who bow,
Feel they for their brethren now?

2 We, by enemies distrest—
They in Paradise at rest;
We the captives—they the freed—
We and they are one indeed;

3 One in all we seek or shun,
One—because our Lord is one;
One in home and one in love—
We below, and they above.

4 Those whom space on* earth divides,
Mountains, rivers, ocean-tides;
Have they with each other part?
Have they fellowship in heart?

5 Each to each may be unknown,
Wide apart their lots be thrown;
Differing tongues their lips may speak,
One be strong, and one be weak;

6 Yet in Sacrament and prayer
Each with other hath a share;
Hath a share in tear and sigh,
Watch, and fast and litany.

7 Saints departed even ^{thus}
Hold communion still with us;
Still with us, beyond the veil,
Praising, pleading without fail.

Stepping fearless through the night.

3 One the light of God's own presence
O'er his ransomed people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread;

One the faith which never tires,
One the earnest looking forward,
One the hope our God inspires:

5 One the strain that lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One the march in God begun;

6 One the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the One Almighty Father
Reigns in love for evermore.

Choose thou for me, my God,
So shall I walk aright.

Else I must surely stray.

Arnold's 'Complete Psalter,' 1756.*

William Blake, 1757-1827.

TO Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love,
All pray in their distress,
And to these virtues of delight
Return their thankfulness.

2 For Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love,
Is God our Father dear;
And Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love,
Is Man, his child and care.

3 For Mercy has a human heart,
Pity, a human face;
And Love, the human form divine,
And Peace, the human dress.

4 Then every man, of every clime,
That prays in his distress,
Prays to the human form divine:
Love, Mercy, Pity, Peace.

5. And all must love the human form,
In heathen, Turk, or Jew;
Where Mercy, Love, and Pity dwell,
There God is dwelling too.

GENERAL HYMNS

c. 15th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale

Gloriosi Salvatoris.

To the name that brings salvation
Honour, worship, laud we pay:
That for many a generation
Hid in God's foreknowledge lay,
But to every tongue and nation
Holy Church proclaims to-day.

2 * Name of gladness, name of pleasure,
By the tongue ineffable,
Name of sweetness passing measure,
To the ear delectable;
'Tis our safeguard and our treasure,
'Tis our help 'gainst sin and hell.

3 * 'Tis the name for adoration,
'Tis the name of victory;
'Tis the name for meditation
In the vale of misery:
'Tis the name for veneration
By the citizens on high.

4 'Tis the name that whoso preaches
Finds it music in his ear;
'Tis the name that whoso teaches
Finds more sweet than honey's cheer:
Who its perfect wisdom reaches
Makes his ghostly vision clear.

5 'Tis the name by right exalted
Over every other name:
That when we are sore assaulted
Puts our enemies to shame:
Strength to them that else had halted,
Eyes to blind, and feet to lame.

6. Jesu, we thy name adoring,
Long to see thee as thou art:
Of thy clemency imploring
So to write it in our heart,
That hereafter, upward soaring,
We with Angels may have part.

WE love the place, O God,
Wherein thine honour dwells;
The joy of thine abode
All earthly joy excels.

2 We love the house of prayer,
Wherein thy servants meet;
And thou, O Lord, art there
Thy chosen flock to greet.

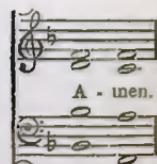

3 We love the sacred font,
For there the holy Dove
To pour is ever wont
His blessing from above.

4 We love thine altar, Lord;
O, what on earth so dear!
For there, in faith adored,
We find thy presence near.

5 We love the word of life,
The word that tells of peace,
Of comfort in the strife,
And joys that never cease.

6 We love to sing below
For mercies freely given;
But O, we long to know
The triumph-song of heaven!

7. Lord Jesus, give us grace
On earth to love thee more,
In heaven to see thy face,
And with thy Saints adore.

- WE saw thee not when thou didst come
To this poor world of sin and death,
Nor e'er beheld thy cottage-home
In that despisèd Nazareth ;
But we believe thy footsteps trod
Its streets and plains, thou Son of God.
- 2 We did not see thee lifted high
Amid that wild and savage crew,
Nor heard thy meek, imploring cry,
'Forgive, they know not what they do' ;
Yet we believe the deed was done
Which shook the earth and veiled the sun.
- 3 We stood not by the empty tomb
Where late thy sacred Body lay,
Nor sat within that upper room,
Nor met thee in the open way ;
But we believe that Angels said,
'Why seek the living with the dead ?'
- 4 We did not mark the chosen few,
When thou didst in the cloud ascend,
First lift to heaven their wondering view,
Then to the earth all prostrate bend ;
Yet we believe that mortal eyes
From that far mountain saw thee rise.
5. And now that thou dost reign on high,
And thence thy waiting people bless,
No ray of glory from the sky
Doth shine upon our wilderness ;
But we believe thy faithful word,
And trust in our redeeming Lord.

T. Kelly, 1769-1854.

WE sing the praise of him who died,
Of him who died upon the Cross;
The sinner's hope let men deride,
For this we count the world but loss.
2 Inscribed upon the Cross we see
In shining letters, 'God is love';
He bears our sins upon the Tree;
He brings us mercy from above.

- 3 The Cross! it takes our guilt away;
It holds the fainting spirit up;
It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
And sweetens ev'ry bitter cup.
- 4 It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes its terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light;
5. The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinners' refuge here below,
The Angels' theme in heaven above.

- WHEN all thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.
- 2 Unnumbered comforts to my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.

- 3 When in the slippery paths of youth
With heedless steps I ran,
Thine arm unseen conveyed me safe,
And led me up to man.
- 4 When worn with sickness oft hast thou
With health renewed my face;
And when in sins and sorrows sunk,
Revived my soul with grace.

5 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue,
And after death in distant worlds
The glorious theme renew.

6. Through all eternity to thee
A joyful song I'll raise;

To utter all thy praise.

Beim frühen Morgenlicht.

WHEN morning gilds the skies,
My heart awaking cries,
May Jesus Christ be praised :
Alike at work and prayer
To Jesus I repair;
May Jesus Christ be praised.

2 The sacred minster bell
It peals o'er hill and dell,
May Jesus Christ be praised :
O hark to what it sings,
As joyously it rings,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

3* My tongue shall never tire
Of chanting in the choir,
May Jesus Christ be praised :
The fairest graces spring
In hearts that ever sing,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

4* When sleep her balm denies,
My silent spirit sighs,
May Jesus Christ be praised :
When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

5 Does sadness fill my mind ?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised :
Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

6 The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say,
May Jesus Christ be praised :
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

Unison. 7 In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised :
Let air, and sea, and sky
From depth to height reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

WHEN our heads are bowed with woe,
When our bitter tears o'erflow,
When we mourn the lost, the dear,
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.

- 2 Thou our throbbing flesh hast worn,
Thou our mortal griefs hast borne,
Thou hast shed the human tear;
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.
- 3 When the sullen death-bell tolls
For our own departed souls,
When our final doom is near,
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.
- 4 Thou hast bowed the dying head,
Thou the blood of life hast shed,
Thou hast filled a mortal bier;
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.
- 5 When the heart is sad within
With the thought of all its sin,
When the spirit shrinks with fear,
Gracious Son of Mary, hear.

Though the sins were not thine own;
Thou hast deigned their load to bear;

LLANSANNAN. (87. 87. D.)

Welsh Hymn Melody.

Bishop W. W. How, 1823-97.

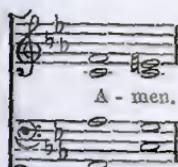

WHO is this so weak and helpless,
 Child of lowly Hebrew maid,
 Rudely in a stable sheltered,
 Coldly in a manger laid?
 'Tis the Lord of all creation,
 Who this wondrous path hath trod;
 He is God from everlasting,
 And to everlasting God.

2 Who is this—a Man of Sorrows,
 Walking sadly life's hard way,
 Homeless, weary, sighing, weeping
 Over sin and Satan's sway?

'Tis our God, our glorious Saviour,
 Who above the starry sky
 Now for us a place prepareth
 Where no tear can dim the eye.

3 Who is this—behold Him raining
 Drops of blood upon the ground?
 Who is this—despised, rejected,
 Mocked, insulted, beaten, bound?
 'Tis our God, who gifts and graces
 On his Church now poureth down;
 Who shall smite in holy vengeance
 All his foes beneath his throne.

4. Who is this that hangeth dying,
 With the thieves on either side?
 Nails his hands and feet are tearing,
 And the spear hath pierced his side.
 'Tis the God who ever liveth
 'Mid the shining ones on high,
 In the glorious golden city
 Reigning everlasting.

WILT thou forgive that sin, by man begun,
Which was my sin though it were done before?
Wilt thou forgive that sin, through which I run,
And do run still, though still I do deplore?
When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
For I have more.

GENERAL HYMNS

2 Wilt thou forgive that sin which I have won
 Others to sin, and made my sin their door?
 Wilt thou forgive that sin which I did shun
 A year or two, but wallowed in a score?
 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 For I have more.

3. I have a sin of fear, that when I've spun
 My last thread, I shall perish on the shore;
 But swear by thyself, that at my death thy Son
 Shall shine, as he shines now and heretofore:
 And, having done that, thou hast done:
 I fear no more.

WORK is sweet, for God has blest
 Honest work with quiet rest;
 Rest below, and rest above,
 In the mansions of his love,
 When the work of life is done,
 When the battle's fought and won.
2 Work ye, then, while yet 'tis day,
 Work, ye Christians, while ye may;
 Work for all that's great and good,

Working for your daily food,
 Working whilst the golden hours,
 Health, and strength, and youth, are
3 Working not alone for gold, [yours.
 Not for work that's bought and sold;
 Not the work that worketh strife,
 But the working of a life;
 Careless both of good or ill,
 If ye can but do his will.

4. Working ere the day is gone,
 Working till your work is done;
 Not as traffickers at marts,
 But as fitteth honest hearts;
 Working till your spirits rest
 With the spirits of the blest.

The music includes various note values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'p' (piano) and 'f' (forte). The vocal parts are likely represented by the top two staves, while the bottom two staves provide harmonic support.

YE holy Angels bright,
Who wait at God's right hand,
Or through the realms of light
Fly at your Lord's command,
Assist our song,
For else the theme
Too high doth seem

3 Ye saints, who toil below,
Adore your heavenly King,
And onward as ye go
Some joyful anthem sing;
Take what he gives
And praise him still,
Through good or ill,
Who ever lives!

4. My soul, bear thou thy part,
Triumph in God above:
And with a well-tuned heart
Sing thou the songs of love!
Let all thy days
Till life shall end,
Whate'er he send,
Be filled with praise.

Gave speech, and strength, and sight;

THOU to whom the sick and dying
 Ever came, nor came in vain,
 Still with healing words replying
 To the wearied cry of pain,
 Hear us, Jesu, as we meet
 Suplicants at thy mercy-seat.

2 Still the weary, sick, and dying
 Need a brother's, sister's care;
 On thy higher help relying
 May we now their burden share,
 Bringing all our offerings meet,
 Suplicants at thy mercy-seat.

3 May each child of thine be willing,
 Willing both in hand and heart,
 All the law of love fulfilling,
 Ever comfort to impart;
 Ever bringing offerings meet,
 Suppliant to thy mercy-seat.

FATHER of men, in whom are one
All humankind beneath thy sun,
Stablish our work in thee begun.
Except the house be built of thee,
In vain the builder's toil must be:
O strengthen our infirmity!

2 Man lives not for himself alone,
In others' good he finds his own,
Life's worth in fellowship is known.
We, friends and comrades on life's way,
Gather within these walls to pray:
Bless thou our fellowship to-day.

3 O Christ, our Elder Brother, who
By serving man God's will didst do,
Help us to serve our brethren too.
Guide us to seek the things above,
The base to shun, the pure approve,
To live by thy free law of love.

Unison. 4. In all our work, in all our play,
Be with us, Lord, our Friend, our Stay;
Lead onward to the perfect day:
Then may we know, earth's lesson o'er,
With comrades missed or gone before,
Heaven's fellowship for evermore.

1 ORD of life and King of glory,
Who didst deign a child to be,
Cradled on a mother's bosom,
Throned upon a mother's knee:
For the children thou hast given
We must answer unto thee!

2 Since the day the blessed Mother
Thee, the world's Redeemer, bore,
Thou hast crowned us with an honour
Women never knew before;
And that we may bear it meetly
We must seek thine aid the more.

5. May we keep our holy calling
Stainless in its fair renown,
That when all the work is over
And we lay the burden down,
Then the children thou hast given
Still may be our joy and crown!

3 Grant us, then, pure hearts and patient,
That in all we do or say
Little souls our deeds may copy,
And be never led astray;
Little feet our steps may follow
In a safe and narrow way.

4 When our growing sons and daughters
Look on life with eager eyes,
Grant us then a deeper insight
And new powers of sacrifice:
Hope to trust them, faith to guide them,
Love that nothing good denies.

FATHER, who on man dost shower
 Gifts of plenty from thy dower,
 To thy people give the power
 All thy gifts to use aright.

2 Give pure happiness in leisure,
 Temperance in every pleasure,
 Holy use of earthly treasure,
 Bodies clear and spirits bright.

5 Thou who art our Captain ever
 Lead us on to great endeavour;
 May thy Church the world deliver,
 Give us wisdom, courage, might.
 6. Father, who hast sought and found us,
 Son of God, whose love has bound us,

VATER UNSER. (88.88.88.)
Very slow and solemn $\text{d} = 48.$ Melody from SCHUMANN'S Gesangbuch, 1830.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef, the middle staff a bass clef, and the bottom staff another bass clef. The music is written in common time (indicated by a 'C'). The notation includes various note heads (solid black, hollow, and cross-hatched) and rests, suggesting a harmonic interpretation of the hymn tune. The organ pedal part is indicated at the bottom of the third staff.

NOTE.—Another harmonization of this tune will be found at Hymn 462.

A. C. Benson.

O LORD of hosts, who didst upraise
Strong captains to defend the right,
In darker years and sterner days,
And armedst Israel for the fight;
Thou madest Joshua true and strong,
And David framed the battle-song.

2 And must we battle yet? Must we,
Who bear the tender name Divine,
Still barter life for victory,
Still glory in the crimson sign?
The Crucified between us stands,
And lifts on high his wounded hands.

5. As rains that weep the clouds away,
As winds that leave a calm in heaven,
So let the slayer cease to slay;
The passion healed, the wrath forgiven,
Draw nearer, bid the tumult cease,
Redeemer, Saviour, Prince of Peace!

3 Lord, we are weak and wilful yet,
The fault is in our clouded eyes;
But thou, through anguish and regret,
Dost make thy faithless children wise: [dost approve
Through wrong, through hate, thou
The far-off victories of love.]

4 * And so, from out the heart of strife,
Diviner echoes peal and thrill;
The scorned delights, the lavished life,
The pain that serves a nation's will:
Thy comfort stills the mourner's cries,
And love is crowned by sacrifice.

'O save us in our agony!'
Thy word above the storm rose high,
'Peace, be still.'

3 The wild winds hushed; the angry deep
Sank, like a little child, to sleep;
The sullen billows ceased to leap,

THY hand, O God, has guided
Thy flock, from age to age;
The wondrous tale is written,
Full clear, on every page;
Our fathers owned thy goodness,
And we their deeds record;
And both of this bear witness,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

2 Thy heralds brought glad tidings
To greatest, as to least;
They bade men rise, and hasten
To share the great King's feast;

THE CHURCH

And this was all their teaching,
In every deed and word,
To all alike proclaiming
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

3 Through many a day of darkness,
Through many a scene of strife,
The faithful few fought bravely
To guard the nation's life.
Their Gospel of redemption,
Sin pardoned, man restored,
Was all in this enfolded,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

4 * And we, shall we be faithless?
Shall hearts fail, hands hang down?
Shall we evade the conflict,
And cast away our crown?
Not so: in God's deep counsels
Some better thing is stored;
We will maintain, unflinching,
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Unison. 5. Thy mercy will not fail us,

That the light of the glorious Gospel of truth may shine throughout the world;
Fight we the fight with sorrow and sin, to set their captives free,
That the earth may be filled with the glory of God as the waters cover
the sea.

5. All we can do is nothing worth unless God blesses the deed;
Vainly we hope for the harvest-tide till God gives life to the seed;
Yet nearer and nearer draws the time, the time that shall surely be,
When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God as the waters cover the sea.

LIFT up your heads, ye gates of brass;
Ye bars of iron, yield,
And let the King of glory pass:
The Cross is in the field.

- 2 That banner, brighter than the star
That leads the train of night,
Shines on their march, and guides from far
His servants to the fight.
- 3 A holy war those servants wage;
Mysteriously at strife,
The powers of heaven and hell engage
For more than death or life.

Unison. 4 Ye armies of the living God,
His sacramental host!
Where hallowed footsteps never trod,
Take your appointed post.

- 5 Though few and small and weak your bands,
Strong in your Captain's strength,
Go to the conquest of all lands,
All must be his at length.

Unison. 6 Uplifted are the gates of brass,
The bars of iron yield;
Behold the King of glory pass:
The Cross hath won the field.

From peopled towns and fields between
Uplift the voice of psalms.
Raise, ancient East, the anthem high,
And let the youthful West reply.

2 Lo! in the clouds of heaven appears
God's well-belovèd Son;
He brings a train of brighter years,
His kingdom is begun:
He comes a guilty world to bless
With mercy, truth and righteousness.

When at his feet shall lie
All rule, authority, and power
Beneath the ample sky:
When he shall reign from pole to pole,
The Lord of every human soul;

Amid their daily cares,
And by the loving life he led
Shall strive to pattern theirs;
And he, who conquered death, shall win
The mightier conquest over sin.

2* The tumult and the shouting dies;

 Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
 Lest we forget—lest we forget!

3* Far-called, our navies melt away;

 The walls of gold entomb us,
 The swords of scorn divide,
 Take not thy thunder from us,
 But take away our pride.

 From lies of tongue and pen,
 From all the easy speeches
 That comfort cruel men,
 From sale and profanation
 Of honour and the sword,
 From sleep and from damnation,
 Deliver us, good Lord!

ONCE to every man and nation
Comes the moment to decide,
In the strife of truth with falsehood,
For the good or evil side;
Some great cause, God's new Messiah,
Offering each the bloom or blight—
And the choice goes by for ever
'Twixt that darkness and that light.

2 Then to side with truth is noble,
When we share her wretched crust,
Ere her cause bring fame and profit,
And 'tis prosperous to be just;
Then it is the brave man chooses,
While the coward stands aside,
And the multitude make virtue
Of the faith they had denied.

3 * By the light of burning martyrs,
Christ, thy bleeding feet we track,
Toiling up new Calvaries ever
With the Cross that turns not back.
New occasions teach new duties;
Time makes ancient good uncouth;
They must upward still and onward
Who would keep abreast of truth.

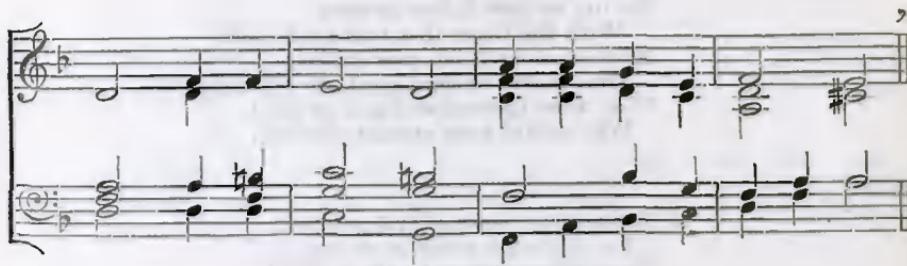

4. Though the cause of evil prosper,
Yet 'tis truth alone is strong;
Though her portion be the scaffold,
And upon the throne be wrong—
Yet that scaffold sways the future,
And, behind the dim unknown,
Standeth God within the shadow,
Keeping watch above his own.

2 Unto great honour, glory undeservèd,
 Hast thou exalted us, and drawn thee nigh;
 Nor, from thy judgements when our feet had swervèd,
 Didst thou forsake, nor leave us, Lord most high.

3 In thee our fathers trusted and were savèd,
 In thee destroyed thrones of tyrants proud;
 From ancient bondage freed the poor enslavèd:
 To sow thy truth poured out their saintly blood.

4 Us now, we pray, O God, in anger scorn not,
 Nor to vainglorying leave, nor brutish sense;
 In time of trouble thy face from us turn not,

 Let strength and courage lead o'er land and wave;
 To our souls' armour grant celestial brightness,
 Joy to our hearts, and faith beyond the grave.

MISSION SERVICES

Elizabeth C. Clephane, 1830-69.

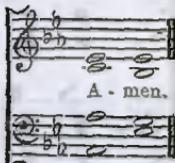

BENEATH the Cross of Jesus
I fain would take my stand—
The shadow of a mighty Rock
Within a weary land;
A home within a wilderness,
A rest upon the way,
From the burning of the noontide heat
And the burden of the day.

2 O safe and happy shelter!
O refuge tried and sweet!
O trysting-place where heaven's love
And heaven's justice meet!
As to the exiled patriarch
That wondrous dream was given,
So seems my Saviour's Cross to me
A ladder up to heaven.

3 There lies beneath its shadow,
But on the further side,
The darkness of an open grave
That gapes both deep and wide;
And there between us stands the Cross,
Two arms outstretched to save,
Like a watchman set to guard the way
From that eternal grave.

4 Upon that Cross of Jesus
Mine eye at times can see
The very dying form of One,
Who suffered there for me.
And from my stricken heart, with tears,
Two wonders I confess,—
The wonders of redeeming love,
And my own worthlessness.

5. I take, O Cross, thy shadow,
For my abiding-place;
I ask no other sunshine than
The sunshine of his face:
Content to let the world go by,
To know no gain nor loss,—
My sinful self my only shame,
My glory all—the Cross.

- 6 There the forests ever blossom,
Like our orchards here in May;
There the gardens never wither,
But eternally are gay :

- HOLY Ghost, come down upon thy children,
Give us grace and make us thine;
Thy tender fires within us kindle,
Blessèd Spirit, Dove divine.
- 2 For all within us good and holy
Is from thee, thy precious gift;
In all our joys, in all our sorrows,
Wistful hearts to thee we lift.
Holy Ghost, come down, &c.
- 3 For thou to us art more than father,
More than sister, in thy love;
So gentle, patient, and forbearing,
Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove.
Holy Ghost, come down, &c.
- 4 O we have grieved thee, gracious Spirit!
Wayward, wanton, cold are we;
And still oursins, new every morning,
Never yet have wearied thee.
Holy Ghost, come down, &c.
- 5 Ah! sweet Consoler, though we cannot
Love thee as thou lovest us,
Yet if thou deign'st our hearts to kindle
They will not be always thus.
Holy Ghost, come down, &c.
6. With hearts so vile how dare we venture,
King of kings, to love thee so?
And how canst thou, with such compassion,
Bear so long with things so low?

- I COULD not do without thee,
O Saviour of the lost,
Whose precious Blood redeemed me
At such tremendous cost;
Thy righteousness, thy pardon,
Thy precious Blood must be
My only hope and comfort,
My glory and my plea.
2 I could not do without thee,
I cannot stand alone,
I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own;

But thou, beloved Saviour,
Art all in all to me,
And weakness will be power
If leaning hard on thee.

- 3 I could not do without thee,
O Jesus, Saviour dear;
E'en when my eyes are holden
I know that thou art near;
How dreary and how lonely
This changeful life would be Without the sweet communion,
The secret rest with thee.

4. I could not do without thee,
For years are fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneliness
The river must be passed;
But thou wilt never leave me,
And though the waves roll high,
I know thou wilt be near me,
And whisper, 'It is I.'

H. Bonar, 1808-89.

I HEARD the voice of Jesus say,
 'Come unto me and rest;
 Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
 Thy head upon my breast':
 I came to Jesus as I was,
 Weary, and worn, and sad;
 I found in him a resting-place,
 And he has made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 'Behold, I freely give
 The living water, thirsty one;
 Stoop down, and drink, and live':
 I came to Jesus, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream;
 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in him.

3. I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 'I am this dark world's Light;
 Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright':
 I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In him my Star, my Sun;
 And in that light of life I'll walk
 Till travelling days are done.

In verses 2 and 3 lines 5 and 6 run thus:

I came to Je-sus and I drank of that life-giv-ing stream.

I LAY my sins on Jesus,
The spotless Lamb of God;
He bears them all, and frees us
From the accursed load.
I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White in his Blood most precious,
Till not a spot remains.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus—
All fullness dwells in him;
He heals all my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem.

4. I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy Child.
I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng,
To sing with Saints his praises,
To learn the Angels' song.

576

F. Whitfield †, 1827-1904.

I NEED thee, precious Jesu,
For I am full of sin;
My soul is dark and guilty,
My heart is dead within.
I need the cleansing fountain
Where I can always flee,
The Blood of Christ most precious,
The sinner's perfect plea.

2 I need thee, precious Jesu,
For I am very poor;
A stranger and a pilgrim,
I have no earthly store.

4. I need thee, precious Jesu,
And hope to see thee soon,
Encircled with the rainbow,
And seated on thy throne;
There, with thy blood-bought children,
My joy shall ever be,
To sing thy praises, Jesu,
To gaze, my Lord, on thee.

I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares;
He from them all releases,
He all my sorrows shares.

3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine;
His right hand me embraces,
I on his breast recline.
I love the name of Jesus—
Immanuel, Christ, the Lord;
Like fragrance on the breezes
His name abroad is poured.

4. I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy Child.
I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng,
To sing with Saints his praises,
To learn the Angels' song.

I need the love of Jesus
To cheer me on my way,
To guide my doubting footsteps,
To be my strength and stay.

3 I need thee, precious Jesu:
I need a friend like thee,
A friend to soothe and pity,
A friend to care for me.
I need the heart of Jesus
To feel each anxious care,
To tell my every trouble,
And all my sorrow share.

- O JESUS, I have promised
To serve thee to the end;
Be thou for ever near me,
My Master and my Friend;
I shall not fear the battle
If thou art by my side,
Nor wander from the pathway
If thou wilt be my Guide.
- 2 O let me feel thee near me:
The world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle,
The tempting sounds I hear;
My foes are ever near me,
Around me and within;
But, Jesus, draw thou nearer,
And shield my soul from sin.
- 3 O let me hear thee speaking
In accents clear and still,
Above the storms of passion,
The murmurs of self-will;

- O speak to reassure me,
To hasten or control;
O speak, and make me listen,
Thou Guardian of my soul.
- 4 O Jesus, thou hast promised
To all who follow thee,
That where thou art in glory
There shall thy servant be;
And, Jesus, I have promised
To serve thee to the end;
O give me grace to follow,
My Master and my Friend.
5. O let me see thy footmarks,
And in them plant mine own;
My hope to follow duly
Is in thy strength alone;
O guide me, call me, draw me,
Uphold me to the end;
And then in heaven receive me,
My Saviour and my Friend.

O JESU, thou art standing
Outside the fast-closed door,
In lowly patience waiting
To pass the threshold o'er:
Shame on us, Christian brothers,
His name and sign who bear,
O shame, thrice shame upon us
To keep him standing there!

2 O Jesu, thou art knocking:
And lo! that hand is scarred,
And thorns thy brow encircle,
And tears thy face have marred:
O love that passeth knowledge
So patiently to wait!
O sin that hath no equal
So fast to bar the gate!

3. O Jesu, thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,
'I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat me so?'
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door:
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us nevermore.

STAND up!—stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the Cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss.
From victory unto victory
His army he shall lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The solemn watchword hear,
If while ye sleep he suffers,
Away with shame and fear;
Where'er ye meet with evil,
Within you or without,
Charge for the God of battles,
And put the foe to rout.

3 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey,
Forth to the mighty conflict
In this his glorious day.

Ye that are men now serve him
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

4 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the Gospel armour,
Each piece put on with prayer;
Where duty calls or danger,
Be never wanting there!

5. Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song.
To him that overcometh
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally.

The musical score consists of four staves of music. The top two staves are soprano voices, and the bottom two are bass voices. The music is in common time, with a key signature of one sharp (G major). The tempo is marked as $\text{♩} = 100$. The melody is bright and rhythmic, with many eighth and sixteenth note patterns. The score concludes with a final chord and the word "A-men."

Frances R. Harergal, 1836-79.

- TAKE my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to thee;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for thee.
- 2 Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King;
Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from thee.

Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as thou shalt choose.

3. Take my will, and make it thine:
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart; it is thine own:
It shall be thy royal throne.
Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At thy feet its treasure-store.
Take myself, and I will be
Ever, only, all for thee.

583

W. H. DOANE.

The musical score is composed of six staves of music. The top four staves represent the main melody, while the bottom two staves provide harmonic support. The music is in G major and common time. The notation includes various note values such as quarter notes, eighth notes, and sixteenth notes, along with rests. The score is divided into four distinct sections by vertical bar lines. The first section concludes with a repeat sign and a double bar line, which leads into a 'REFRAIN' section. The 'REFRAIN' section is repeated at the end of the page.

REFRAIN.

This section of the musical score provides the lyrics for the 'REFRAIN' of the song. The lyrics are written in a simple, rhythmic pattern that corresponds to the music. The treble staff contains the words 'Tell me the old, old story,' and the bass staff provides harmonic support.

[From 'Sacred Songs and Solos.]

K. Hankey.

TELL me the old, old story,
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love.
Tell me the story simply,
As to a little child,
For I am weak and weary,
And helpless and defiled.

*Tell me the old, old story,
Of Jesus and his love.*

2 Tell me the story slowly,
That I may take it in—
That wonderful redemption,
God's remedy for sin.
Tell me the story often,
For I forget so soon;
The early dew of morning
Has passed away at noon.

3 Tell me the story softly,
With earnest tones and grave;
Remember, I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save.
Tell me that story always,
If you would really be,
In any time of trouble,
A comforter to me.

4. Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear.
Yes, and when that world's glory
Shall dawn upon my soul,
Tell me the old, old story,
'Christ Jesus makes thee whole.'

1 THERE were ninety and nine that safely lay
In the shelter of the fold,
And one was out on the hills away,
Far off from the gates of gold;
Away on the mountains wild and bare,
Away from the tender Shepherd's care.

2 'Lord, thou hast here thy ninety and nine;
Are they not enough for thee?'
But the Shepherd made answer: 'This of mine
Has wandered away from me;
And although the road be rough and steep,
I go to the desert to find my sheep.'

3 But none of the ransomed ever knew
How deep were the waters crossed;
Nor how dark the night that the Lord passed through
Ere he found his sheep that was lost.
Out in the desert he heard its cry—
Sick and hopeless, and ready to die.

4 'Lord, whence are those blood-drops all the way,
That mark out the mountain's track?'
'They were shed for one that had gone astray
Ere the Shepherd could bring him back.'
'Lord, whence are thy hands so rent and torn?'
'They are pierc'd to-night by many a thorn.'

5. And all through the mountains, thunder-riven,
And up from the rocky steep,
There rose a cry to the gates of heaven,
'Rejoice! I have found my sheep!'
And the Angels echoed around the throne,
'Rejoice, for the Lord brings back his own!'

THOU didst leave thy throne and thy kingly crown
When thou camest to earth for me;
But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room
For thy holy nativity.

*O come to my heart, Lord Jesus;
There is room in my heart for thee.*

2 Heaven's arches rang when the Angels sang,
Proclaiming thy royal degree;
But in lowly birth didst thou come to earth,
And in great humility.

3 The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest
In the shade of the cedar tree;
But thy couch was the sod, O thou Son of God,
In the deserts of Galilee.

4 Thou camest, O Lord, with the living word
That should set thy people free;
But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn
They bore thee to Calvary.

5. When heaven's arches shall ring, and her choirs shall sing
At thy coming to victory,
Let thy voice call me home, saying, Yet there is room,
There is room at my side for thee.

The musical score consists of two staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. Both staves have a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is in common time. The notes are primarily eighth notes, with some sixteenth-note patterns. The score ends with a repeat sign and the instruction "D.C." (Da Capo).

Bishop Chr. Wordsworth, 1807-85.

HEAVENLY Father, send thy blessing
On thy children gathered here,
May they all, thy name confessing,
Be to thee for ever dear;
May they be, like Joseph, loving,
Dutiful, and chaste, and pure;
And their faith, like David proving,
Steadfast unto death endure.

2 Holy Saviour, who in meekness
Didst vouchsafe a Child to be,
Guide their steps, and help their weakness,
Bless, and make them like to thee;
Bear thy lambs when they are weary,
In thine arms, and at thy breast;
Through life's desert, dry and dreary,
Bring them to thy heavenly rest.

3. Spread thy golden pinions o'er them,
Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
Guide them, lead them, go before them,
Give them peace, and joy, and love;
Temples of the Holy Spirit,
May they with thy glory shine,
And immortal bliss inherit,
And for evermore be thine!

I LOVE to hear the story
Which Angel voices tell,
How once the King of glory
Came down on earth to dwell.
I am both weak and sinful,
But this I surely know,
The Lord came down to save me,
Because he loved me so.

I'm glad my blessed Saviour
Was once a Child like me,
To show how pure and holy
His little ones might be;
And if I try to follow
His footsteps here below,
He never will forsake me,
Because he loves me so.

3. To tell his love and mercy
My sweetest songs I'll raise ;
And though I cannot see him,
I know he hears my praise;
For he himself has promised
That even I may go
To sing among his Angels,
Because he loves me so.

I THINK when I read that sweet story of old,
 When Jesus was here among men,
 How he called little children as lambs to his fold,
 I should like to have been with him then.
 I wish that his hands had been placed on my head,
 That his arm had been thrown around me;
 And that I might have seen his kind look when he said,
 'Let the little ones come unto me.'

2 Yet still to his footstool in prayer I may go,
 And ask for a share in his love;
 And if I thus earnestly seek him below,
 I shall see him and hear him above:
 In that beautiful place he is gone to prepare
 For all that are washed and forgiven,
 And many dear children are gathering there,
 'For of such is the kingdom of heaven.'

3. But thousands and thousands who wander and fall
 Never heard of that heavenly home;
 I should like them to know there is room for them all,
 And that Jesus has bid them to come.
 I long for the joy of that glorious time,
 The sweetest, and brightest, and best,
 When the dear little children of every clime
 Shall crowd to his arms and be blest.

- IT is a thing most wonderful,
Almost too wonderful to be,
That God's own Son should come from heaven,
And die to save a child like me.
- 2 And yet I know that it is true :
He chose a poor and humble lot,
And wept, and toiled, and mourned,
and died,
For love of those who loved him not.
- 3 I cannot tell how he could love
A child so weak and full of sin ;
His love must be most wonderful,
If he could die my love to win.
- 4 I sometimes think about the Cross,
And shut my eyes, and try to see
The cruel nails and crown of thorns,
And Jesus crucified for me.

- 5 But even could I see him die,
I could but see a little part
Of that great love, which, like a fire,
Is always burning in his heart.
- 6 It is most wonderful to know
His love for me so free and sure ;
But 'tis more wonderful to see
My love for him so faint and poor.
7. And yet I want to love thee, Lord ;
O light the flame within my heart,
And I will love thee more and more,
Until I see thee as thou art.

ONCE in royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a Mother laid her Baby

Mary was that Mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little Child.

2 He came down to earth from heaven,
Who is God and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable,
And his cradle was a stall ;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

EPIPHANY PROCESSION

FROM the eastern mountains
Pressing on they come,
Wise men in their wisdom,
To his humble home;

G. Thring, 1828-1905.

EPIPHANY PROCESSION

Stirred by deep devotion,
Hasting from afar,
Ever journeying onward,
Guided by a star.

2 There their Lord and Saviour
Meek and lowly lay,
Wondrous light that led them
Onward on their way,
Ever now to lighten
Nations from afar,
As they journey homeward
By that guiding star.

3 Thou who in a manger
Once hast lowly lain,
Who dost now in glory
O'er all kingdoms reign,
Gather in the heathen,
Who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness
Of thy guiding star.

4 Gather in the outcasts,
All who've gone astray,
Throw thy radiance o'er them,
Guide them on their way;
Those who never knew thee,
Those who've wandered far,
Guide them by the brightness
Of thy guiding star.

Unison. 5 Onward through the darkness
Of the lonely night,
Shining still before them
With thy kindly light,
Guide them, Jew and Gentile,
Homeward from afar,
Young and old together,
By thy guiding star.

6*. Until every nation,
Whether bond or free,
'Neath thy star-lit banner,
Jesu, follows thee,
O'er the distant mountains
To that heavenly home
Where nor sin nor sorrow
Evermore shall come.

Melody by C. BICKNELL,

If required, the following Carol may also be sung.

G. Moultrie, 1829-85.

- COME, faithful people, come away,
Your homage to your Monarch pay;
It is the feast of palms to-day:
Hosanna in the highest!
- 2 When Christ, the Lord of all, drew nigh
On Sunday morn to Bethany,
He called two loved ones standing by:
- 3 'To yonder village go,' said he,
'An ass and foal tied shall ye see,
Loose them and bring them unto me':
- 4 'If any man dispute your word,
Say, "They are needed by the Lord,"
And he permission will accord':
- 5 The two upon their errand sped,
And found the ass as he had said,
And on the colt their clothes they spread:
- 6 They set him on his throne so rude;
Before him went the multitude,
And in their way their garments strewed:
- 7 * Go, Saviour, thus to triumph borne,
Thy crown shall be the wreath of thorn,
Thy royal garb the robe of scorn:
- 8 * They thronged before, behind, around,
They cast palm-branches on the ground,
And still rose up the joyful sound:
- 9 'Blessed is Israel's King,' they cry;
'Blessed is he that cometh nigh
In name of God the Lord most high'
10. Thus, Saviour, to thy Passion go,
Arrayed in royalty of woe,
Assumed for sinners here below:

RIDE on! ride on in majesty!
Hark, all the tribes hosanna cry;
Thine humble beast pursues his road
With palms and scattered garments strowed

2 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die:
O Christ, thy triumphs now begin
O'er captive death and conquered sin.

3 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
The wingèd squadrons of the sky
Look down with sad and wondering eyes
To see the approaching sacrifice.

4 Ride on! ride on in majesty!
Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh;
The Father, on his sapphire throne,
Expects his own anointed Son.

Unison. 5. Ride on! ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die;
Bow thy meek head to mortal pain,
Then take, O God, thy power, and reign.

Salve, festa dies.

HAIL thee, Festival Day! blest day that art hallowed for ever;
Day wherein God o'ercame hell and arose from the dead.

- 2 Lo, the fair beauty of earth, from the death of the winter arising,
Every good gift of the year now with its Master returns.
- 3 He who was nailed to the Cross is God and the Ruler of all things;
All things created on earth worship the Maker of all.
- 4 God of all pity and power, let thy word be assured to the doubting;
Light on the third day returns: rise, Son of God, from the tomb!
- 5 Ill doth it seem that thy limbs should linger in lowly dishonour,
Ransom and price of the world, veiled from the vision of men.
- 6 * Ill it beseemeth that thou, by whose hand all things are encompassed,
Captive and bound should remain, deep in the gloom of the rock.
- 7 * Rise now, O Lord, from the grave and cast off the shroud that enwrapped
Thou art sufficient for us: nothing without thee exists. [thee;
- 8 Mourning they laid thee to rest, who art Author of life and creation;
Treading the pathway of death, life thou bestowedst on man.
- 9 Show us thy face once more, that the ages may joy in thy brightness;
Give us the light of day, darkened on earth at thy death.
- 10 * Out of the prison of death thou art rescuing numberless captives;
Freely they tread in the way whither their Maker has gone.

EASTER-DAY : EVENING PROCESSION

Attributed to 17th cent. Tr. J. M. Neale.

ALLELUYA! Alleluya! Alleluya!
Ye sons and daughters of the King,
Whom heavenly hosts in glory sing,
To-day the grave hath lost its sting.
Alleluia!

- 2 On that first morning of the week,
Before the day began to break,
The Marys went their Lord to seek.
- 3 An Angel bade their sorrow flee,
For thus he spake unto the three :
'Your Lord is gone to Galilee.'
- 4 That night the Apostles met in fear,
Amidst them came their Lord most dear,
And said : 'Peace be unto you here!'

- 5 When Thomas afterwards had heard
That Jesus had fulfilled his word,
He doubted if it were the Lord.
- 6 'Thomas, behold my side,' saith he,
'My hands, my feet, my body see ;'
'And doubt not, but believe in me.'
- 7 No longer Thomas then denied ;
He saw the feet, the hands, the side ;
'Thou art my Lord and God,' he cried.
- 8 *Blessèd are they that have not seen,
And yet whose faith hath constant been,
In life eternal they shall reign.

9 *On this most holy day of days,
To God your hearts and voices raise
In laud, and jubilee, and praise.

10*. And we with Holy Church unite,
As evermore is just and right,
In glory to the King of Light.

ASCENSION-DAY PROCESSION

Bishop Venantius Fortunatus (530-600),
Salve, festa dies. (Sarum Processional.) Tr. P. D.

HAIL thee, Festival Day! blest day that art hallowed for ever;
Day when our God ascends high in the heavens to reign.

- 2 Lo, the fair beauty of earth, from the death of the winter arising,
Every good gift of the year now with its Master returns.
- 3 Daily the loveliness grows, adorned with the glory of blossom ;
Heaven her gates unbars, flinging her increase of light.
- 4 Christ in his triumph ascends, who hath vanquished the devil's dominion;
Gay is the woodland with leaves, bright are the meadows with flowers.
- 5 Christ overwhelms the domain of Hades and rises to heaven ;
Fitly the light gives him praise—meadows and ocean and sky.

ASCENSION-DAY : PROCESSION

- 6 Loosen, O Lord, the enchain'd, the spirits imprisoned in darkness;
Rescue, recall into life those who are rushing to death.
- 7 * So shalt thou bear in thine arms an immaculate people to heaven,
Bearing them pure unto God, pledge of thy victory here.
- 8 * Jesu the Health of the world, Creator of man and Redeemer,
Son of the Father supreme, only-begotten of God!
- 9 * Equal art thou, co-eternal, in fellowship ay with the Father;
In the beginning by thee all was created and made.
- 10 *. And it was thou, blessed Lord, who discerning humanity's sorrow,
Humbledst thyself for our race, taking our flesh for thine own.

TRINITY SUNDAY PROCESSION

Aeterna Lux, Divinitas. 18th cent. Tr. R. F. Littledeale †.

- ETERNAL Light, Divinity,
O Unity in Trinity,
Thy holy name thy servants bless,
To thee we pray, and thee confess.
- 2 We praise the Father, mighty One;
We praise the sole-begotten Son;
We praise the Holy Ghost above,
Who joins them in one bond of love.
- 3 For of the Father infinite
Begotten is the Light of light,
And from his love eternally
Proceeds the Spirit, God most high.
- 4 None can more high or holy be,
Co-equal is their Deity,
The substance of the Three is One,
And equal laud to them is done.
- 5 The Three are One Immensity,
The Three One highest Verity,
The Three One perfect Charity,
And they are man's Felicity.
- 6 O Verity! O Charity!
O Ending and Felicity!
In thee we hope, in thee believe,
Thyself we love, to thee we cleave.
- 7 Thou First and Last, from whom there springs
The Fount of all created things,
Thou art the Life which moves the whole,
Sure Hope of each believing soul.
- 8 *Thou who alone the world hast made,
Art still its one sufficing aid,
The only Light for gazing eyes,
And, unto them that hope, the Prize.

DEDICATION FESTIVAL PROCESSION

c. 13th cent. (York Processional.)

Tr. M. F. B.

Salve, festa dies.

HAIL thee, Festival Day! blest day that art hallowed for ever;
 Day when the Church, Christ's bride, is to her bridegroom espoused.

- 2 This is the house of God, a place of peace and refreshing;
 Solomon here to the poor offers a treasure untold.
- 3 Scion of David is he who has called us to share in his glory;
 Here in his Father's house God we shall find him and man.
- 4 Ye who have put on Christ are indeed his mystical body,
 If ye have kept the faith, longed to become as your Lord.

DEDICATION FESTIVAL PROCESSION

- 5 Mystical also the new and the heavenly city of Sion,
Fitly adorned for her spouse, clad with the light from on high.
- 6 * Here, at his holy font, does the heavenly King and the righteous
Grace for their cleansing and growth grant to his people on earth.
- 7 * Tower of David is this; here are pledges of life and salvation,
If with unwavering feet swift to this stronghold we run.
- 8 * Here is the ark of God, a refuge of grace to the faithful;
Safe to the haven it bears mariners tossed by the waves.
9. Ladder of Jacob, by none but by thee we can mount to the heavens;
Grant that thy people, O Lord, thither ascending may reign.

ETERNAL Power, whose high abode
Becomes the grandeur of a God,
Infinite lengths beyond the bounds
Where stars revolve their little rounds:

- 2 Thee while the first Archangel sings,
He hides his face behind his wings;
And ranks of shining thrones around
Fall worshipping and spread the ground.
3. Lord, what shall earth and ashes do?
We would adore our Maker too!
From sin and dust to thee we cry,
The Great, the Holy, and the High!

Rise to thy presence.

2 Thus in our solemn Feast of Dedication,
[devotion,
Graced with returning rites of due
Ever thy children, year by year rejoicing,
Chant in thy temple.

3 This is thy palace; here thy presence-chamber;
Here may thy servants, at the mystic banquet,
Daily adoring, take thy Body broken,
Drink of thy Chalice.

7 Lord, we beseech thee, as we throng thy temple,
By thy past blessings, by thy present bounty,
Smile on thy children, and with tender mercy
Hear our petitions.

8. God in Three Persons, Father everlasting,
Son co-eternal, ever-blessed Spirit,
Thine be the glory, praise, and adoration,
Now and for ever. Amen.

4 Here for thy children stands the holy laver, [nature,
Fountain of pardon for the guilt of Cleansed by whose water springs a race anointed,
Liegemen of Jesus.

5 Here in our sickness, healing grace aboundeth, [freshment;
Light in our blindness, in our toil re-Sin is forgiven, hope o'er fear pre-vaileth,
Joy over sorrow.

6 Hallowed this dwelling where the Lord abideth, [Heaven;
This is none other than the gate of Strangers and pilgrims, seeking homes eternal,
Pass through its portals.

637

OLD 117TH. (8.8.8.8.)
Moderately slow, dignified $\text{d} = 60$.

*Melody in the Genevan Psalter, 1551
(as given in the Scottish Psalter, 1635).*

[May be sung throughout in unison.]

NOTE.—This hymn may also be sung to SOUTH CERNEY (No. 359).

At the entrance into the Choir.

G. Tersteegen, 1697-1769. Tr. J. Wesley.

Gott ist gegenwärtig.

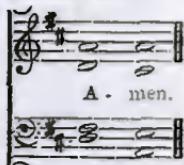

Lo! God is here! let us adore
And own how dreadful is this place!
Let all within us feel his power,
And silent bow before his face,
Who know his power, his grace who prove,
Serve him with awe, with reverence love.

Unison. 2. Lo! God is here! Him day and night
The united choirs of Angels sing;
To him, enthroned above all height,
Heaven's hosts their noblest praises bring;
To thee may all our thoughts arise
Ceaseless, accepted Sacrifice.

At the Sanctuary step.

- * y. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness.
- * R. And let thy saints sing with joyfulness.

Collect for St. Simon and St. Jude.

PROCESSIONAL

ST. AUSTIN. (C. M.)

In moderate time $\text{d} = 144$.

638 (PART 1)

English Traditional Melody.

The musical notation consists of two staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. Both staves have a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is in common time, indicated by a 'C' below the clef. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, with some quarter notes and rests. The melody is simple and repetitive, typical of traditional processional tunes.

NOTE.—This tune may also be used for Parts 2 and 3.

PROCESSION FOR ANY SAINT'S DAY

F. B. P. † (c. 1580). Based on St. Augustine.
There is no hunger, heat, nor cold,
But pleasure every way.

- 1 JERUSALEM, my happy home,
When shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?
- 2 O happy harbour of the Saints!
O sweet and pleasant soil!
In thee no sorrow may be found,
No grief, no care, no toil.
- 3 In thee no sickness may be seen,
No hurt, no ache, no sore;
In thee there is no dread of death,
But life for evermore.
- 4 No dampish mist is seen in thee,
No cold nor darksome night;
There every soul shines as the sun;
There God himself gives light.
- 5 There lust and lucre cannot dwell;
There envy bears no sway;
- 6 Jerusalem, Jerusalem,
God grant I once may see
Thy endless joys, and of the same
Partaker ay may be!
- 7 Thy walls are made of preciousstones,
Thy bulwarks diamonds square;
Thy gates are of right orient pearl;
Exceeding rich and rare;
- 8 *Thy turrets and thy pinnacles
With carbuncles do shine;
Thy very streets are paved with gold,
Surpassing clear and fine;
- 9 *Thy houses are of ivory,
Thy windows crystal clear;
Thy tiles are made of beaten gold—
O God that I were there!
- 10 *Within thy gates no thing doth come
That is not passing clean,
No spider's web, no dirt, no dust,
No filth may there be seen.
- 11 Ah, my sweet home, Jerusalem,
Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end,
Thy joys that I might see!

SAINT'S DAY PROCESSION

SOUTHILL. (C.M.)

In moderate time $\text{C} = 80.$

638 (PART 2)

English Traditional Melody.

The musical score consists of two staves of music in common time. The top staff uses a treble clef, and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. The music is in common time. The organ part is indicated by the word "Org." followed by a series of eighth-note patterns.

NOTE.—This tune may also be used for Parts 1 and 3.

Part 2.

(If sung separately, may begin with verse 1.)

- 12 Thy Saints are crowned with glory great;
They see God face to face;
They triumph still, they still rejoice:
Most happy is their case.
- 13 We that are here in banishment,
Continually do mourn;
We sigh and sob, we weep and wail,
Perpetually we groan.
- 14 Our sweet is mixed with bitter gall,
Our pleasure is but pain,
Our joys scarce last the looking on,
Our sorrows still remain.
- 15 But there they live in such delight,
Such pleasure and such play,
As that to them a thousand years
Doth seem as yesterday.
- 16 *Thy vineyards and thy orchards are
Most beautiful and fair,
Full furnished with trees and fruits,
Most wonderful and rare;
- 17 *Thy gardens and thy gallant walks
Continually are green;
There grow such sweet and pleasant flowers
As nowhere else are seen.
- 18 *There's nectar and ambrosia made,
There's musk and civet sweet;
There many a fair and dainty drug
Is trodden under feet.
- 19 *There cinnamon, there sugar grows,
There nard and balm abound;
What tongue can tell, or heart conceive,
The joys that there are found!

(This Part may conclude with verse 26.)

PROCESSIONAL

638 (PART 3)

JERUSALEM. (C. M.)

In moderate time $\text{d} = 80.$

T. WORSLEY STANIFORTH.

The musical notation consists of two staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. Both staves have a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The music is in common time, indicated by a 'C'. The tempo is marked as 'Moderate' with $\text{d} = 80$. The notation includes various note values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The music is divided into measures by vertical bar lines.

NOTE.—This tune may also be used for Parts 1 and 2.

Part 3.

(If sung separately, may begin with verse 1.)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 20 Quite through the streets with silver sound
The flood of life doth flow,
Upon whose banks on every side
The wood of life doth grow. | 23 Our Lady sings Magnificat
With tune surpassing sweet;
And all the Virgins bear their parts,
Sitting about her feet. |
| 21 There trees for evermore bear fruit,
And evermore do spring;
There evermore the Angels sit,
And evermore do sing; | 24 Te Deum doth Saint Ambrose sing,
Saint Austin doth the like;
Old Simeon and Zachary
Have not their songs to seek. |
| 22 There David stands with harp in hand
As master of the choir: [blest
Ten thousand times that man were
That might this music hear. | 25 There Magdalene hath left her moan,
And cheerfully doth sing
With blessed Saints, whose harmony
In every street doth ring. |
| 26. Jerusalem, my happy home,
Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end
Thy joys that I might see! | |

If the starred verses are omitted, Parts 1 and 2 together will form a Procession of average length; or either Part separately will form a short Hymn suitable for general use.

The following are also suitable for Saints' Days:

- | | |
|---|---|
| 172 Sion's daughters.
200 Joy and triumph everlasting.
218 Ye who own (B.V.M.).
245 Stars of the morning (Michaelmas).
252 Our Father's home. | 412 Jerusalem the golden.
519 Ye watchers.
641 For all the Saints.
642 Forward! be our watchword.
643 Onward, Christian soldiers. |
| 644 Rejoice, ye pure in heart. | |

EATINGTON. (C. M.)
In moderate time $\text{d} = 72.$

DR. CROFT, 1678-1727.

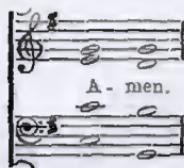

At the entrance into the Choir.

C. Wesley, 1707-88.

THE Church triumphant in thy love,
 Their mighty joys we know;
 They sing the Lamb in hymns above,
 And we in hymns below.

2 Thee in thy glorious realm they praise,
 And bow before thy throne;
 We in the kingdom of thy grace:
 The kingdoms are but one.

3. The holy to the holiest leads,
 From hence our spirits rise,
 And he that in thy statutes treads
 Shall meet thee in the skies.

The following are also suitable for Saints' Days, at the entrance into the choir.

196 For all thy Saints, O Lord.
 249 (5, 6) Let all who served.

372 (1, 2, 3, or 4, 5, 6) Bright the vision.
 535 (2) Praise the Lord.

SUITABLE FOR USE IN PROCESSION

H. Alford †, 1810-71.

FORWARD! be our watchword,
Steps and voices joined;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind;
Burns the fiery pillar
At our army's head;
Who shall dream of shrinking,
By our Captain led?
Forward through the desert,
Through the toil and fight;
Jordan flows before us,
Sion beams with light.

2 Forward, when in childhood
Buds the infant mind;
All through youth and manhood,
Not a thought behind;
Speed through realms of nature,
Climb the steps of grace;
Faint not, till around us
Gleams the Father's face.
Forward, all the life-time,
Climb from height to height;
Till the head be hoary,
Till the eve be light.

3 Forward, flock of Jesus,
Salt of all the earth,
Till each yearning purpose
Spring to glorious birth;
Sick, they ask for healing,
Blind, they grope for day;
Pour upon the nations
Wisdom's loving ray.
Forward, out of error,
Leave behind the night;
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light.

Unison.

4 Glories upon glories
Hath our God prepared,
By the souls that love him
One day to be shared;
Eye hath not beheld them,
Ear hath never heard;
Nor of these hath uttered
Thought or speech a word;
Forward, marching eastward,
Where the heaven is bright,
Till the veil be lifted,
Till our faith be sight.

5 * Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours:
Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold;
Flows the gladdening river,
Shedding joys untold.
Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit's might;
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light.

6 * Into God's high temple
Onward as we press,
Beauty spreads around us,
Born of holiness;
Arch, and vault, and carving,
Lights of varied tone,
Softened words and holy,
Prayer and praise alone:
Every thought upraising
To our city bright,
Where the tribes assemble
Round the throne of light.

7 * Nought that city needeth
Of these aisles of stone;
Where the Godhead dwelleth
Temple there is none;
All the saints that ever
In these courts have stood
Are but babes, and feeding
On the children's food.
On through sign and token,
Stars amidst the night,
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light.

Unison.

8. To the Father's glory
Loudest anthems raise;
To the Son and Spirit
Echo songs of praise;
To the Lord Almighty,
Blessèd Three in One,
Be by men and Angels
Endless honour done.
Weak are earthly praises,
Dull the songs of night;
Forward into triumph,
Forward into light!

Onward, Christian soldiers,

March-ing as to war,

rear, With the Cross of Je-sus

[By permission of Novello & Co. Ltd.]

ONWARD, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ the royal Master
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, his banners go!
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the Cross of Jesus
Going on before.

2 At the sign of triumph
Satan's legions flee;
On then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory.
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise.

5. Onward, then, ye people,
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song;
Glory, laud, and honour
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and Angels sing.

S. Baring-Gould, 1834-1924.

3 Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the Saints have trod;
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine
One in charity.

Unison.

4 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.

- REJOICE, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing ;
Your orient banner wave on high,
The Cross of Christ your King.
- 2 Bright youth and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek,
Raise high your free exulting song,
God's wondrous praises speak.
- 3 With all the Angel choirs,
With all the saints on earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth.
- 4 Your clear hosannas raise,
And alleluyas loud ;
Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud.
- Unison.*
- 5 With voice as full and strong
As ocean's surging praise,
Send forth the hymns our fathers loved,
The psalms of ancient days.
- 6 Yes on, through life's long path,
Still chanting as ye go,
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.
- 7 Still lift your standard high,
Still march in firm array,
As warriors through the darkness toil
Till dawns the golden day.
- 8 At last the march shall end,
The wearied ones shall rest,
The pilgrims find their Father's home,
Jerusalem the blest.
- Unison.*
- 9 Then on, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing :
Your orient banner wave on high,
The Cross of Christ your King.

G. Thring, 1828-1908.

SAVIOUR, blessed Saviour,
Listen while we sing,
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King.
All we have we offer,
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to thee.

2 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee.
Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die;
Thou, that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.

3 Great and ever greater
Are thy mercies here;
True and everlasting
Are the glories there;
Where no pain, nor sorrow,
Toil, nor care, is known,
Where the Angel-legions
Circle round thy throne.

Unison. 7. Higher then and higher

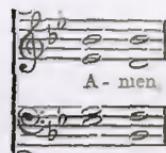

Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgotten,
Saviour, to its goal;
Where in joys unthought of Saints with Angels sing.
Never weary raising
Praises to their King.

4 Clearer still and clearer
Dawns the light from heaven,
In our sadness bringing
News of sins forgiven;
Life has lost its shadows,
Pure the light within;
Thou hast shed thy radiance
On a world of sin.

Unison.

5 Brighter still and brighter
Glowes the western sun,
Shedding all its gladness
O'er our work that's done;
Time will soon be over,
Toil and sorrow past;
May we, blessed Saviour,
Find a rest at last.

6 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by Saints before us,
Journeying on to God;
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

LITANY OF THE ADVENT

R. F. Littledale, 1838-90; and T. B. Pollock.

• GOD the Father, God the Son,
God the Spirit, Three in One,
Hear us from thy heavenly throne:
Spare us, Holy Trinity.

2 Jesu, King of boundless might,
Jesu, everlasting Light
Jesu, Wisdom infinite:
Hear us, Holy Jesu.

3 Thou whose wisdom all things planned;
Held by whose almighty hand
All things in their order stand:

LITANY OF THE ADVENT

- 4 Jesu, sole-begotten Son,
Jesu, high and holy One,
Jesu, chiefest Corner-stone :
- 5 God with us, Emmanuel,
Coming down as Man to dwell,
Vanquisher of death and hell :
- 6 Jesu, Sun of Righteousness,
Jesu, Mercy fathomless,
Jesu, ever near to bless :
- 7 Saviour, full of truth and grace,
Leaving thine eternal place,
To restore our fallen race :
- 8 Jesu, Father of the poor,
Jesu, Guard and Refuge sure,
Jesu, Holiness most pure :
- 9 Word by whom the worlds were made,
In a lowly manger laid,
Taught on earth a lowly trade :
- 10 Jesu, Healer of complaints,
Jesu, Strength of him that faints,
Jesu, Teacher of the Saints :
- 11 Good Physician, come to cure
All the ills that men endure,
And to make our nature pure :
- 12 Jesu, Fount with blessings rife,
Jesu, Bulwark in the strife,
Jesu, Way and Truth and Life :
13. Only Hope of those who pray,
Only Help while here we stay,
Life of those who pass away :

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father.

- V. Thou art fairer than the children of men.
R. Thou hast loved righteousness and hated iniquity.

LITANY OF PENITENCE

T. B. Pollock †, 1830-90.

GOD the Father, God the Son,
God the Spirit, Three in One,
Hear us from thy heavenly throne:
Spare us, Holy Trinity.

2 Father, hear thy children's call;
Humbly at thy feet we fall,
Prodigals, confessing all:
We beseech thee, hear us.

3 Christ, beneath thy Cross we blame
All our life of sin and shame;
Penitent we breathe thy name:

4 Holy Spirit, grieved and tried,
Oft forgotten and defied,
Now we mourn our stubborn pride:

5 Love, that caused us first to be,
Love, that bled upon the Tree,
Love that draws us lovingly:

6 We thy call have disobeyed,
Into paths of sin have strayed,
Have neglected and delayed:

7 Sick, we come to thee for cure,
Guilty, seek thy mercy sure,
Evil, long to be made pure:

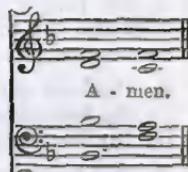

8 Blind, we pray that we may see,
Bound, we pray to be made free,
Stained, we pray for sanctity:

LITANY OF PENITENCE

- 9 Thou who hear'st each contrite sigh,
Bidding sinful souls draw nigh,
Willing not that one should die:
- 10 By the gracious saving call
Spoken tenderly to all [fall:
Who have shared man's guilt and
- 11 By the nature Jesus wore,
By the stripes and death he bore,
By his life for evermore:
- 12 By the love that longs to bless,
Pitying our sore distress,
Leading us to holiness:
- 13 By the love so calm and strong,
Patient still to suffer wrong
And our day of grace prolong:
- 14 By the love that speaks within,
Calling us to flee from sin
And the joy of goodness win:
- 15 By the love that bids thee spare,
By the heaven thou dost prepare,
By thy promises to prayer:
- 16 Teach us what thy love has borne,
That with loving sorrow torn
Truly contrite we may mourn:
- 17 Gifts of light and grace bestow,
Help us to resist the foe,
Fearing what indeed is woe:
- 18 Let not sin within us reign,
May we gladly suffer pain,
If it purge away our stain:
- 19 May we to all evil die,
Fleshly longings crucify,
Fix our hearts and thoughts on high:
- 20 Grant us faith to know thee near,
Hail thy grace, thy judgement fear,
And through trial persevere:
- 21 Grant us hope from earth to rise,
And to strain with eager eyes
Towards the promised heavenly prize:
- 22 Grant us love thy love to own,
Love to live for thee alone,
And the power of grace make known:
- 23 All our weak endeavours bless,
As we ever onward press,
Till we perfect holiness:
- 24 Lead us daily nearer thee,
Till at last thy face we see,
Crowned with thine own purity:
- Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

LITANY OF THE CHURCH

T. B. Pollock, 1830-90.

- GOD the Father, God the Son,
God the Spirit, Three in One,
Hear us from thy heavenly throne:
Spare us, Holy Trinity.
- 2 Jesu, with thy Church abide,
Be her Saviour, Lord, and Guide,
While on earth her faith is tried:
We beseech thee, hear us.
- 3 Keep her life and doctrine pure,
Help her patient to endure,
Trusting in thy promise sure:
- 4 Be thou with her all the days;
May she, safe from error's ways,
Toil for thine eternal praise:
- 5 May her voice be ever clear,
Warning of a judgement near,
Telling of a Saviour dear:
- 6 All her ruined works repair,
Build again thy temple fair,
Manifest thy presence there:
- 7 All her fettered powers release,
Bid our strife and envy cease,
Grant the heavenly gift of peace:
- 8 May she one in doctrine be,
One in truth and charity,
Winning all to faith in thee:
- 9 May she guide the poor and blind,
Seek the lost until she find,
And the broken-hearted bind:
- 10 Save her love from growing cold,
Make her watchmen strong and bold,
Fence her round, thy peaceful fold:
- 11 May her priests thy people feed,
Shepherds of the flock indeed,
Ready, where they call, to lead:
- 12 Judge her not for work undone,
Judge her not for fields unwon,
Bless her works in thee begun:
- 13 For the past give deeper shame,
Make her jealous for thy name,
Kindle zeal's most holy flame:
- 14 Raise her to her calling high,
Let the nations far and nigh
Hear thy heralds' warning cry:
- 15 May her lamp of truth be bright,
Bid her bear aloft its light
Through the realms of heathen night:
- 16 May her scattered children be
From reproach of evil free,
Blameless witnesses for thee:
- 17 Arm her soldiers with the Cross:
Brave to suffer toil or loss,
Counting earthly gain but dross:
18. May she holy triumphs win,
Overthrow the hosts of sin,
Gather all the nations in:

Save us and keep us to the end:
Have mercy, Lord.
- 2 And through the coming hours of night,
Fill us, we pray, with holy light;
Keep us all sinless in thy sight:
Grant this, O Lord.
- 3 May some bright messenger abide
For ever by thy servants' side,
A faithful guardian and our guide:
- 4 From every sin in mercy free,
Let heart and conscience stainless be,
That we may live henceforth for thee:
- 5 We would not be by care opprest,
But in thy love and wisdom rest;
Give what thou seest to be best:
- 6 While we of every sin repent,
Let our remaining years be spent
In holiness and sweet content:
7. And when the end of life is near,
May we, unshamed and void of fear,
Wait for the Judgement to appear:

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father.

CHILDREN'S LITANY

Canto.

GOD the Father, God the Son,
God the Spirit, Three in One,
Hear us from thy heavenly throne:
Spare us, Holy Trinity.

2 Jesu, Saviour ever mild,
Born for us a little Child
Of the Virgin undefiled:
Hear us, Holy Jesu.

3 Jesu, by the Mother-Maid
In thy swaddling-clothes arrayed,
And within a manger laid:

4 Jesu, at whose infant feet
Shepherds, coming thee to greet,
Knelt to pay their worship meet:

5 Jesu, unto whom of yore
Wise men, hastening to adore.
Gold and myrrh and incense bore:

6 Jesu, to thy temple brought,
Whom, by thy good Spirit taught,
Simeon and Anna sought:

CHILDREN'S LITANY

- 7 Jesu, who didst deign to flee
From King Herod's cruelty
In thy earliest infancy:

8 Jesu, whom thy Mother found
'Midst the doctors sitting round,
Marvelling at thy words profound:

Part 2.

- 9 From all pride and vain conceit,
From all spite and angry heat,
From all lying and deceit:
Sare us, Holy Jesu.

- 10 From all sloth and idleness,
From not caring for distress,
From all lust and greediness:

- 11 From refusing to obey,
From the love of our own way,
From forgetfulness to pray:

Part 3.

- 12 By thy birth and early years,
By thine infant wants and fears,
By thy sorrows and thy tears,
Sare us, Holy Jesu.

- 13 By thy pattern bright and pure,
By the pains thou didst endure
Our salvation to procure:

- 14 By thy wounds and thorn-crowned head,
By thy Blood for sinners shed,
By thy rising from the dead:

- 15 By the name we bow before,
Human name, which evermore
All the hosts of heaven adore:

16. By thine own unconquered might,
By thy glory in the height,
By thy mercies infinite:

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father.
¶. Lord, hear our prayer;
R. And let our cry come unto thee.

THE QUESTION

- SEE him in raiment rent,
With his blood dyed:
Women walk sorrowing
By his side.
2 Heavy that Cross to him,
Weary the weight:
One who will help him stands
At the gate.

- 3 Multitudes hurrying
Pass on the road:
Simon is sharing with Him the load.
4 Who is this travelling
With the curst tree—
This weary prisoner—
Who is he?

THE STORY OF THE CROSS

THE ANSWER

5 Follow to Calvary,
Tread where he trod:
This is the Lord of life—
Son of God.

6 Is there no loveliness—
You who pass by—
In that lone Figure which Marks the sky?

7 You who would love him, stand,
Gaze at his face;
Tarry awhile in your Worldly race.

8 As the swift moments fly
Through the blest week,
Jesus, in penitence,
Let us seek.

THE STORY OF THE CROSS

9 On the Cross lifted up,
Thy face I scan,
Scarred by that agony—
Son of Man.

10 Thorns form thy diadem,
Rough wood thy throne,
To thee thy outstretched arms
Draw thine own.

11 Nails hold thy hands and feet,
While on thy breast
Sinketh thy bleeding head
Sore opprest.

12 Loud is thy bitter cry,
Rending the night,
As to thy darkened eyes
Fails the light.

13 Shadows of midnight fall,
Though it is day;
Friends and disciples stand
Far away.

14 Loud scoffs the dying thief,
Mocking thy woe;
Can this my Saviour be Brought so low?

15 Yes, see the title clear,
Written above,—
'Jesus of Nazareth'—
Name of love!

16 What, O my Saviour dear,
What didst thou see,
That made thee suffer and Die for me?

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

17 Child of my grief and pain!
From realms above,
I came to lead thee to Life and love.

19 I saw thee wandering,
Weak and at strife;
I am the Way for thee,
Truth and Life.

18 For thee my Blood I shed,
For thee I died:
Safe in thy faithfulness
Now abide.

20 Follow my path of pain,
Tread where I trod :
This is the way of peace
Up to God.

THE RESOLVE

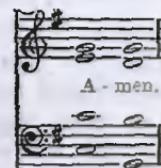

21 O I will follow thee,
Star of my soul!
Through the great dark I press
To the goal.

23 Daily I'll prove my love
Through joy and woe;
Where thy hands point the way,
There I go.

22 Yea, let me know thy grief,
Carry thy Cross,
Share in thy sacrifice,
Gain thy loss.

24 Lead me on year by year,
Safe to the end,
Jesus, my Lord, my Life,
King and Friend.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.
Our Father.

R. I will declare thy name unto my brethren.
R. In the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

The three Good Friday Collects.

670 EPIPHANY ii. Omnis terra. All the earth shall worship thee, O God, and sing of thee : they shall sing praise to thy name, O Most Highest. Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands : sing praises unto the honour of his name ; make his praise to be glorious.

G. The Lord sent his Word and healed them : and they were saved from their destruction. V. O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men. A. Alleluya. V. Praise the Lord, all ye angels of his : praise him, all his host. O. O be joyful in God, all ye lands : sing praises unto the honour of his name. O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God : and I will tell you what the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluya. C. The Lord saith unto them : Fill the waterpots with water, and bear unto the governor of the feast. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, he saith unto the bridegroom : Thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus before his disciples.

671 EPIPHANY iii to vi. Adorate Deum. All ye Angels of God, fall down, and worship before him : Sion heard, and was exceeding joyful, and the daughters of Juda were glad. Ps. The Lord is King, the earth may be glad thereof : yea, the multitude of the isles may be glad thereof.

G. The heathen shall fear thy name, O Lord : and all the kings of the earth thy majesty. V. When the Lord shall build up Sion : and when his glory shall appear. A. Alleluya. V. The Lord is King, the earth may be glad thereof : yea, the multitude of the isles may be glad thereof. O. The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence ; the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass : I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord. C. All wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth.

672 SEPTUAGESIMA SUNDAY. Circumdederunt me. The sorrows of death came about me, the pains of hell gat hold upon me : and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple. Ps. I will love thee, O Lord my strength : the Lord is my stony rock, my fortress, and my Saviour.

G. The Lord will be a refuge in the time of trouble ; and they that know thy name will put their trust in thee : for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee. V. For the poor shall not alway be forgotten ; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever : up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand. T. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice. V. O let thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint. V. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : O Lord, who may abide it ? V. For there is mercy with thee : therefore shalt thou be feared. O. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord : and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most Highest. C. Show thy servant the light of thy countenance, and save me for thy mercies' sake : let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee.

EPIPHANY — ASH-WEDNESDAY

SEXAGESIMA SUNDAY. Exsurge, quare. Arise, O Lord, wherefore sleepest thou? awaken, and cast us not away for ever: wherefore hidest thou thy countenance, and forgettest our adversity and misery? our belly cleaveth unto the ground; arise, and save us, O Lord, our helper, and our deliverer. Ps. O God, we have heard with our ears: our fathers have told us.

G. Let the nations know that thou, whose name is Jehovah: art only the Most Highest over all the earth. V. O my God, make them like unto a wheel: and as the stubble before the wind. T. Thou hast moved the land, O Lord, and divided it: heal the sores thereof, for it shaketh. V. That they may triumph because of the truth. V. That thy Beloved may be delivered. O. O hold thou up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not: incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words: show thy marvellous loving-kindness, O Lord; thou that art the Saviour of them which put their trust in thee. C. I will go to the altar of God: even unto the God of my joy and gladness.

QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY. Esto mihi. Be thou my God and defender, and a place of refuge, that thou mayest save me: for thou art my upholder, my refuge, and my Saviour; and for thy holy name's sake be thou my leader, and my sustainer. Ps. In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion: but rid me, and deliver me in thy righteousness.

G. Thou art the God that doeth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the people. V. Thou hast mightily delivered thy people: even the sons of Jacob and Joseph. T. O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness. V. Come before his presence with a song. V. Be ye sure that the Lord he is God. V. It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. O. Blessed art thou, O Lord; O teach me thy statutes: with my lips have I been telling of all the judgements of thy mouth. C. They did eat, and were well filled, for the Lord gave them their own desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.

ASH-WEDNESDAY. Misereris omnium. Thou hast mercy on all things, O Lord, and hatest nothing which thou hast created: and winkest at men's iniquities, because they should amend, and sparest all men; for they are thine, O Lord, thou lover of souls. Ps. Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee.

G. Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee. V. He shall send from heaven: and save me from the reproof of him that would eat me up. T. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins: nor reward us according to our wickednesses. V. Lord, remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us, and that soon: for we are come to great misery. V. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name, O Lord: O deliver us and be merciful unto our sins, for thy name's sake. O. I will magnify thee, O Lord, for thou hast set me up, and not made my foes to triumph over me: O Lord, my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me. C. He who doth meditate on the law of the Lord day and night, will bring forth his fruit in due season.

INTROITS AND ANTHEMS

ye drink it, in remembrance of me. Or this, during Passiontide. C. Deliver me not, O Lord, unto the will of mine adversaries : forasmuch as false witnesses have risen up against me, and against me have they breathed out cruelty.

681 PALM SUNDAY. Domine, ne longe. O Lord, remove not thy succour afar from me, have respect to my defence, and hear me : deliver me from the mouth of the lion ; yea, from the horns of the unicorns hast thou regarded my cry. Ps. My God, my God, look upon me, why hast thou forsaken me : and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint ?

G. Thou hast holden me by my right hand ; thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel, even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone, my treadings had well nigh slipt : and why ? I was grieved at the wicked, I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity. T. My God, my God, look upon me : why hast thou forsaken me ? V. And art so far from my health ; and from the words of my complaint ? V. O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not : and in the night season also I take no rest. V. And thou continuest holy : O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee : they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. V. They called upon thee, and were holpen : they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. V. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man : a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. V. All they that see me laugh me to scorn : they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads saying : V. He trusted in God, that he would deliver him : let him deliver him, if he will have him. V. They stand staring and looking upon me : they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. V. Save me from the lion's mouth : thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. V. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him : magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. V. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation ; they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness : unto a people that shall be born, whom the Lord hath made. O. Thy rebuke hath broken my heart ; I am full of heaviness : I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. They gave me gall to eat : and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink. C. O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it : thy will be done.

682 MAUNDY THURSDAY, &c. Nos autem. But as for us, it behoveth us to glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ : in whom is our salvation, our life, and resurrection ; by whom we were saved, and obtained our freedom. Ps. God be merciful unto us, and bless us : and show us the light of his countenance and be merciful unto us.

(Also with Gloria added, for the Invention of the Cross, and for Holy Cross Day. Good Friday and Easter Even have no Introit.)

G. (Maundy Thursday and Holy Cross Day.) Christ became obedient for our sakes unto death, even the death of the Cross. V. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him : and given him the name which is above every name. T. (Good Friday only.) Deliver me, O Lord, from the evil man : and preserve me from the wicked man. V. Who imagine mischief in their hearts : and stir up

PALM SUNDAY—EASTER ii

rife all the day long. ¶ They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent :
lders' poison is under their lips. ¶ Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the ngodly : and preserve me from the wicked men. ¶ Who are purposed to overthrow my goings : the proud have laid a snare for me. ¶ And spread a net broad with cords : yea, and set traps in my way. ¶ I said unto the Lord, hou art my God : hear the voice of my prayers, O Lord. ¶ O Lord God, thou rength of my health : thou hast covered my head in the day of battle. ¶ Let ot the ungodly have his desire, O Lord : let not his mischievous imagination prosper, lest they be too proud. ¶ Let the mischief of their own lips fall upon he head of them : that compass me about. ¶ The righteous also shall give anks unto thy name : and the just shall continue in thy sight. A. (Holy ross Day only.) Alleluya. ¶ Sweetest wood, sweetest iron, that bare so sweet burden : which only was counted worthy to sustain the King of heaven and ts Lord. A. (Invention of the Cross only.) Alleluya. ¶ Tell it out among the neathen : that the Lord hath reigned from the Tree. O. (Maundy Thursday only.)
The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence, the right hand of the Lord ringeth mighty things to pass : I shall not die, but live ; and declare the works of the Lord. C. (Maundy Thursday only.) The Lord Jesus, after he had supped with his disciples, and had washed their feet, said unto them : Know ye what I your Lord and Master have done to you ? I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

683 EASTER-DAY. Resurrexi. I am risen, and am still with thee, alleluya : thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluya; thy knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me : thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising.

G. This is the day which the Lord hath made : we will be joyful and glad in
t. ¶ O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious : and his mercy endureth or ever. A. Alleluya. ¶ Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. O. The earth trembled and was still : when God arose to judgement, alleluya. C. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, alleluya : therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth, alleluya, alleluya, alleluya.

684 LOW SUNDAY. Quasi modo. As new-born babes, alleluya.
desire ye the guileless milk of the word : alleluya, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. Sing we merrily unto God, our helper : make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.

A. Alleluya. ¶ And after eight days, when the doors were shut, stood Jesus in the midst of his disciples, and said : Peace be unto you. A. Alleluya. ¶ The angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it. O. 683. C. Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more, alleluya : death hath no more dominion over him, alleluya, alleluya.

685 EASTER ii. Misericordia Domini. The loving-kindness of the Lord filleth the whole world, alleluya : by the Word of God the heavens were stablished, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous : for it becometh well the just to be-thankful.

INTROITS AND ANTHEMS

A. Alleluya. V. I am the Good Shepherd : and know my sheep, and am known of mine. A. Alleluya. V. The Good Shepherd hath risen : who hath given his life for his sheep. O. O God, thou art my God, early will I seek thee : and lift up my hands in thy name, alleluya. C. I am the Good Shepherd, alleluya : and know my sheep, and am known of mine, alleluya, alleluya.

686 EASTER iii. Jubilate Deo. O be joyful in God, all ye lands, alleluya : sing ye praises to the honour of his name, alleluya ; make his praise to be exceeding glorious, alleluya, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works, O Lord : through the greatness of thy power.

A. Alleluya. V. A little while, and ye shall not see me, saith the Lord Jesus : and again, a little while and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. A. Alleluya. V. But I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice : and your joy no man taketh from you. O. Praise the Lord, O my soul ; while I live will I praise the Lord : yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God, alleluya. C. A little while, and ye shall not see me, alleluya : and again, a little while and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father, alleluya, alleluya.

687 EASTER iv. Cantate Domino. O sing unto the Lord a new song, alleluya : for the Lord hath done marvellous things, alleluya ; in the sight of the nations hath he showed his righteous judgements, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. With his own right hand, and with his holy arm : hath he gotten himself the victory.

A. Alleluya. V. I go to him that sent me : but because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your hearts. A. Alleluya. V. I tell you the truth : it is expedient for you that I go away. O. O be joyful in God, all ye lands, sing praises unto the honour of his name : O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God, and I will tell you what the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluya. C. When the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth, is come : he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement, alleluya, alleluya.

688 EASTER v. Vocem jocunditatis. With a voice of singing declare ye this, and let it be heard, alleluya : utter it even unto the ends of the earth ; the Lord hath delivered his people, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands : sing praises to the honour of his name, make his praise to be glorious.

A. Alleluya. V. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name : ask, and ye shall receive. A. Alleluya. V. Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more : death hath no more dominion over him. O. O praise our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard ; who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to slip. Praised be God, who hath not cast out my prayer : nor turned his mercy from me, alleluya. C. O sing unto the Lord, alleluya, sing unto the Lord, and praise his name : be telling of his salvation from day to day, alleluya, alleluya.

689 ASCENSION-DAY. Viri Galilaei. Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven ? alleluya : in like manner as ye have seen him going up into heaven, so shall he come again,

EASTER iii—TRINITY SUNDAY

alleluya, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven, as he went up : behold, two men stood by them in white apparel ; which said unto them.

A. Alleluya. V. God is gone up with a merry noise : and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. A. Alleluya. V. Christ to highest heaven ascending, led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. O. God is gone up with a merry noise ; and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. C. Sing ye to the Lord, who ascended to the heaven of heavens, to the sunrising, alleluya.

690 SUNDAY AFTER ASCENSION-DAY. Exaudi, Domine. Consider, O Lord, and hear me, when I cry unto thee, alleluya : unto thee my heart hath said, Thy face, Lord, have I sought ; thy face, Lord, will I seek ; O hide not thou thy face from thy servant, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. The Lord is my light, and my salvation : whom then shall I fear ?

A. Alleluya. V. God reigneth over the heathen : God sitteth upon his holy seat. A. Alleluya. V. I will not leave you comfortless : I go away and come again unto you, and your heart shall rejoice. O. Praise the Lord, O my soul ; while I live will I praise the Lord : as long as I have any being I will sing praises unto my God. C. Father, while I was with them in the world, I kept those that thou gavest me, alleluya : and now I come to thee ; I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world : but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil, alleluya, alleluya.

691 WHIT-SUNDAY. Spiritus Domini. The Spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, alleluya : and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice, alleluya, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered : let them also that hate him flee before him.

A. Alleluya. V. O send forth thy Spirit, and they shall be made : and thou shalt renew the face of the earth. A. Alleluya. V. The Holy Spirit, proceeding from the throne, came down in unseen majesty, as on this day, upon the Twelve, purifying their inmost hearts. O. Stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us : for thy temple's sake at Jerusalem, shall kings bring presents unto thee, alleluya. C. I will not leave you comfortless : I will come to you yet again, alleluya : and your heart shall be joyful, alleluya, alleluya.

692 TRINITY SUNDAY. Benedicta sit. Blessed be the holy Trinity, and the undivided Unity : we will praise and glorify him, because he hath showed his mercy upon us. Ps. Let us bless the Father and the Son : with the Holy Spirit.

G. Blessed art thou, O Lord, which beholdest the great deep, and sittest upon the Cherubim. V. O bless the God of heaven, for he hath showed his mercy upon us. A. Alleluya. V. Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers, and worthy to be praised for evermore. O. Blessed be God, the Father, and the only-begotten Son of God, and blessed be the Holy Spirit : for the mercy he hath done unto us. C. Let us bless the God of heaven, and in the sight of all living will we give thanks unto him : because he hath done to us-ward after his loving-kindness.

INTROITS AND ANTHEMS

688 EASTER v. Vocem jocunditatis. With a voice of singing declare ye this, and let it be heard, alleluya : utter it even unto the ends of the earth ; the Lord hath delivered his people, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands : sing praises to the honour of his name, make his praise to be glorious.

A. Alleluya. V. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name : ask, and ye shall receive. A. Alleluya. V. Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more : death hath no more dominion over him. O. O praise our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard ; who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to slip. Praised be God, who hath not cast out my prayer : nor turned his mercy from me, alleluya. C. O sing unto the Lord, alleluya, sing unto the Lord, and praise his name : be telling of his salvation from day to day, alleluya, alleluya.

689 ASCENSION-DAY. Viri Galilaei. Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven ? alleluya : in like manner as ye have seen him going up into heaven, so shall he come again,

EASTER iii—TRINITY SUNDAY

alleluya, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven, as he went up : behold, two men stood by them in white apparel ; which said unto them.

A. Alleluya. V. God is gone up with a merry noise : and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. A. Alleluya. V. Christ to highest heaven ascending, led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. O. God is gone up with a merry noise ; and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. C. Sing ye to the Lord, who ascended to the heaven of heavens, to the sunrising, alleluya.

690 SUNDAY AFTER ASCENSION-DAY. Exaudi, Domine. Consider, O Lord, and hear me, when I cry unto thee, alleluya : unto thee my heart hath said, Thy face, Lord, have I sought ; thy face, Lord, will I seek ; O hide not thou thy face from thy servant, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. The Lord is my light, and my salvation : whom then shall I fear ?

A. Alleluya. V. God reigneth over the heathen : God sitteth upon his holy seat. A. Alleluya. V. I will not leave you comfortless : I go away and come again unto you, and your heart shall rejoice. O. Praise the Lord, O my soul ; while I live will I praise the Lord : as long as I have any being I will sing praises unto my God. C. Father, while I was with them in the world, I kept those that thou gavest me, alleluya : and now I come to thee ; I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world : but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil, alleluya, alleluya.

691 WHIT-SUNDAY. Spiritus Domini. The Spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, alleluya : and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice, alleluya, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered : let them also that hate him flee before him.

A. Alleluya. V. O send forth thy Spirit, and they shall be made : and thou shalt renew the face of the earth. A. Alleluya. V. The Holy Spirit, proceeding from the throne, came down in unseen majesty, as on this day, upon the Twelve, purifying their inmost hearts. O. Stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us : for thy temple's sake at Jerusalem, shall kings bring presents unto thee, alleluya. C. I will not leave you comfortless : I will come to you yet again, alleluya : and your heart shall be joyful, alleluya, alleluya.

692 TRINITY SUNDAY. Benedicta sit. Blessed be the holy Trinity, and the undivided Unity : we will praise and glorify him, because he hath showed his mercy upon us. Ps. Let us bless the Father and the Son : with the Holy Spirit.

G. Blessed art thou, O Lord, which beholdest the great deep, and sittest upon the Cherubim. V. O bless the God of heaven, for he hath showed his mercy upon us. A. Alleluya. V. Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers, and worthy to be praised for evermore. O. Blessed be God, the Father, and the only-begotten Son of God, and blessed be the Holy Spirit : for the mercy he hath done unto us. C. Let us bless the God of heaven, and in the sight of all living will we give thanks unto him : because he hath done to us-ward after his loving-kindness.

INTROITS AND ANTHEMS

the Lord, O my soul ; while I live will I praise the Lord : yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God. O. There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job, perfect and upright, and one that feared God : and Satan sought to tempt him ; and power was given him by the Lord over his possessions and over his flesh : and he destroyed all his substance and his sons, and he smote his flesh with sore boils. C. My soul hath longed for thy salvation : and I have a good hope in thy word ; when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me ? they persecute me falsely : O be thou my help, O Lord my God.

714 TRINITY xxii. Si iniquitates. If thou, O Lord, wilt be extreme to mark iniquities : Lord, who may abide it ? for unto thee belongeth mercy, O God of Israel. Ps. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

G. Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is : brethren, to dwell together in unity. V. It is like the precious ointment upon the head : that ran down unto the beard, even unto Aaron's beard. A. Alleluya. V. He healeth those that are broken in heart : and bindeth up their wounds. O. Remember me, O Lord, King of all power : and put a well-ordered speech in my mouth, that my words may be pleasing in thy sight. C. I say unto you, there is joy among the Angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

715 TRINITY xxiii, AND ALL FOLLOWING SUNDAYS UNTIL ADVENT. Dicit Dominus. Thus saith the Lord, I know the thoughts that I think towards you, thoughts of peace, and not of affliction : ye shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto you, and will bring again your captivity from every nation. Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land : thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

G. It is thou, O Lord, that savest us from our enemies : and putteth them to confusion that hate us. V. We make our boast of God all day long : and will praise thy name for ever. A. Alleluya. V. He maketh peace in thy borders : and filleth thee with the flour of wheat. O. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice. C. Verily I say unto you, what things soever ye desire, when ye pray : believe that ye receive them, and it shall be done unto you.

716 DEDICATION OF A CHURCH. Terribilis est. O how dreadful is this place ! this is the house of God, and gate of heaven : and men shall call it the Palace of God. (In Eastertide, alleluya.) Ps. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel : the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength.

G. This dwelling is God's handywork ; it is a mystery beyond all price, that cannot be spoken against. V. O God, in whose presence the choirs of Angels are standing, graciously hear the prayers of thy servants. A. Alleluya. V. I will worship toward thy holy temple : and will sing praises unto thy name. Or. T. Ps. 84. 1-5. O. O Lord God, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all the things ; and now I have seen with joy thy people, which are present here ; O Lord God of Israel : keep for ever this imagination of the heart of thy people. (In Eastertide, alleluya.) C. My house shall be called of all nations the excuse of prayer, saith the Lord : in it every one that asketh receiveth : and he that seeketh findeth, and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

717 AN APOSTLE OR EVANGELIST. Mihi autem. Right dear,
O God, are thy friends unto me, and held in highest honour : their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast. Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me : thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising.

G. Their sound is gone out into all lands : and their words unto the ends of the world. ¶ The heavens declare the glory of God : and the firmament sheweth his handywork. A. Alleluya. I first will say to Sion, Behold, behold them ; and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings. O, T. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord : he hath great delight in his commandments. ¶ His seed shall be mighty upon earth : the generation of the faithful shall be blessed. ¶ Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house : and his righteousness endureth for ever. O. Thou shalt make them princes in all lands : they shall remember thy name, O Lord, from one generation to another. C. Ye which have followed me shall sit upon twelve thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel, saith the Lord.

718 A MARTYR. Gloria et honore. With glory and worship hast thou crowned him : thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy fingers. Ps. O Lord our Governor : how excellent is thy name in all the world.

G. Thou hast set, O Lord : a crown of pure gold upon his head. ¶ Thou hast given him his heart's desire : and hast not denied him the request of his lips. A. Alleluya. ¶ Thou hast (as above). O. With glory (as Introit). C. He that will come after me, let him deny himself : and take up his cross and follow me.

719 AN APOSTLE OR MARTYR IN EASTERTIDE. Proteristi. Thou hast hidden me, O God, from the gathering together of the froward, alleluya : from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer : preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

A. Alleluya. ¶ Thou hast set, as 718. A. Alleluya. ¶ The righteous shall be joyful in the Lord, and shall put his trust in him : and all the upright of heart shall be thankful. O. The righteous (as above). C. As 718.

720 A BISHOP. Statuit ei. The Lord hath established a covenant of peace with him, and made him a chief of his people : that he should have the priestly dignity for ever and ever. (In Eastertide, alleluya, alleluya.) Ps. My song shall be alway : of the loving-kindness of the Lord.

G. Behold a mighty prelate, who in his lifetime was pleasing unto God. ¶ There was none found like unto him, that observed the law of the Most High. A. Alleluya. ¶ The righteous shall blossom as the lily : and shall flourish for ever before the Lord. O. My truth also and my mercy shall be with him : and in my name shall his horn be exalted. C. As 718.

INTROITS AND ANTHEMS

693 TRINITY i. Domine, in tua misericordia. O Lord my God, in thy loving-kindness and mercy have I trusted, and my heart is joyful in thy salvation : I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath dealt lovingly with me. Ps. How long wilt thou forget me, O Lord, for ever : how long wilt thou hide thy face from me ?

G. I said, Lord, be merciful unto me : heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee. ¶. Blessed is he that considereth the poor and needy : the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble. A. Alleluya. ¶. Ponder my words, O Lord : consider my meditation. O. O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King and my God : for unto thee, O Lord, will I make my prayer. C. I will speak of all thy marvellous works ; I will be glad, and rejoice in thee : yea, my songs will I make of thy name, O thou Most Highest.

694 TRINITY ii. Factus est. The Lord was my refuge and upholder, and he brought me forth into a place of liberty : he delivered me, because he delighted in me. Ps. I will love thee, O Lord my strength : the Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my Saviour.

G. When I was in trouble I called upon the Lord : and he heard me. ¶. Deliver my soul, O Lord : from lying lips : and from a deceitful tongue. A. Alleluya. ¶. God is a righteous Judge, strong, and patient : and God is provoked every day. O. Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul : O save me for thy mercies' sake. C. I will sing of the Lord, because he hath dealt so lovingly with me : yea, I will praise the name of the Lord Most Highest.

695 TRINITY iii. Respic in me. Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, O Lord : for I am desolate, and in tribulation ; look thou on mine affliction, and my travail ; and forgive me all mine iniquities, O my God. Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul : my God, in thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

G. O cast thy burden upon the Lord : and he shall nourish thee. ¶. When I cried unto the Lord, he heard my voice : from the battle that was against me. A. Alleluya. ¶. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength : the Lord is my stony rock, my fortress, and my Saviour. O. They that know thy name will put their trust in thee : for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee ; O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Sion : for he forgetteth not the complaint of the poor. C. I have called upon thee, O God, for thou shalt hear me : incline thine ear unto me, and hearken unto my words.

696 TRINITY iv. Dominus illuminatio mea. The Lord is my light, and my salvation, whom then shall I fear : the Lord is the stronghold of my life, of whom shall I be afraid ? when mine enemies pressed sore upon me, they stumbled and fell. Ps. Though an host of men were laid against me : yet shall not my heart be afraid.

G. Be merciful, O Lord, unto our sins : wherefore do the heathen say, Where is now their God ? ¶. Help us, O God of our salvation : and for the honour of thy name, deliver us, O Lord. A. Alleluya. y. The King shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord : exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation. O. Lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death : lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him. C. The Lord is my strong rock, and my defence : my Saviour, my God, and my might.

SUNDAYS AFTER TRINITY

697 TRINITY v. Exaudi, Domine. Consider, O Lord, and hear me, when I cry unto thee : be thou my succour, O cast me not away, neither forsake me utterly, O God of my salvation.
Ps. The Lord is my light, and my salvation : whom then shall I fear ?

G. Behold, O God, our defender : and look upon thy servants. y. O Lord God of hosts : hear the prayer of thy servants. A. Alleluya. y. In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion : rid me and deliver me in thy righteousness, bow down thine ear to me, make haste to help me. O. I will bless the Lord, who hath given me counsel : I have set God always before me ; for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall. C. One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require : even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

698 TRINITY vi. Dominus fortitudo. The Lord is the strength of his people, and a stronghold of salvation to his Anointed One : O Lord, save thine own people, and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance ; O feed them also, and set them up for ever.
Ps. Unto thee will I cry, O Lord ; my God, be not silent unto me : lest, if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go down into the pit.

G. Turn thee again, O Lord, at the last : and be gracious unto thy servants. y. Lord, thou hast been our refuge : from one generation to another. A. Alleluya. y. O deliver me from mine enemies, O my God : defend me from them that rise up against me. O. O hold thou my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not ; incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words, show thy marvellous loving-kindness : thou that art the Saviour of them which put their trust in thee, O Lord. C. I will offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness : I will sing, and speak praises unto the Lord.

699 TRINITY vii. Omnes gentes. O clap your hands, all ye people : O sing to God with the voice of joy and triumph.
Ps. He shall subdue the people under us : and the nations under our feet.

G. Come, ye children, and hearken unto me : I will teach you the fear of the Lord. y. Come unto me and be enlightened : and your faces shall not be ashamed. A. Alleluya. y. Thou, O God, art praised in Sion : and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem. O. Like as in the burnt offerings of rams and bullocks ; and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs ; so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, that it may please thee : for they shall not be confounded that put their trust in thee, O Lord. C. Bow down thine ear to me : make haste to deliver me.

INTROITS AND ANTHEMS

700 TRINITY viii. Suscepimus. We have waited, O God, for thy loving-kindness in the midst of thy temple : according to thy name, O God, so is thy praise also unto the world's end ; thy right hand is full of righteousness. Ps. Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised : in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.

G. Be thou my strong rock and house of defence, that thou mayest save me. ¶. In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : let me never be put to confusion. A. Alleluya. ¶. Hear my law : O my people. O. Thou shalt save the people that are in adversity, O Lord : and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud, for who is God, but the Lord ? C. O taste and see how gracious the Lord is : blessed is he that putteth his trust in him.

701 TRINITY ix. Ecce Deus. Behold, God is my helper, the Lord is he that upholdeth my soul : reward thou evil unto mine enemies ; destroy them in thine anger, for thy righteousness' sake. O Lord my strength, and my defender. Ps. Save me, O God, for thy name's sake : and avenge me in thy strength.

G. O Lord our Governor : how excellent is thy name in all the world. ¶. Thou hast set thy glory : above the heavens. A. Alleluya. ¶. Sing we merrily unto God our strength : make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob, take the psalm, the merry harp with the lute. O. The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart : sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb ; moreover by them is thy servant taught. C. Seek ye first of all the kingdom of God : and all these things shall be added unto you, saith the Lord.

702 TRINITY x. Dum clamarem. When I called upon the Lord, he regarded my petition, yea, from the battle that was against me : and he hath brought them down, even he that is of old, and endureth for ever ; O cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee. Ps. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and hide not thyself from my petition : take heed unto me, and hear me.

G. Keep me, O Lord, as the apple of an eye : hide me under the shadow of thy wings. ¶. Let my sentence come forth from thy presence : and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal. A. Alleluya. ¶. O Lord God of my salvation : I have cried day and night before thee. O. Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul : O my God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded : neither let mine enemies triumph over me : for all they that look for thee shall not be ashamed. C. Thou shalt be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt offerings and oblations : upon thine altar, O Lord.

703 TRINITY xi. Deus in loco sancto. God in his holy habitation, it is he that maketh brethren to be of one mind in an house : he will give the dominion and pre-eminence unto his people. Ps. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered : let them also that hate him flee before him.

G. My heart hath trusted in God and I am helped : therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my song will I praise him. ¶. Unto thee will I cry, O Lord : be not silent, O my God, nor depart from me. A. Alleluya. ¶. Lord, thou hast been our refuge : from one generation to another. O. I will magnify thee, O Lord, for thou hast set me up : and not made my foes to triumph over me ; O Lord, my God, I cried unto thee : and thou hast healed me. C. Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase : so shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

SUNDAYS AFTER TRINITY

704 TRINITY xii. Deus in adjutorium. Haste thee, O God, unto my rescue, and save me : O Lord, make haste to my deliverance : let mine enemies be ashamed and confounded, that seek after my soul. Ps. Let them be turned backward, and put to confusion : that wish me evil.

G. I will alway give thanks unto the Lord : his praise shall ever be in my mouth. ¶ My soul shall make her boast in the Lord : the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. A. Alleluya ! ¶ O come, let us sing unto the Lord : let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation. O. Moses besought the Lord his God, and said : Why, O Lord, doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people ? turn from thy fierce wrath ; remember Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to whom thou swarest to give a land flowing with milk and honey : and the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people. C. The earth, O Lord, is filled with the fruit of thy works : that thou mayest bring food out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man ; and oil to make him a cheerful countenance : and bread to strengthen man's heart.

705 TRINITY xiii. Respice, Domine. Look, O Lord, graciously upon thy covenant, and forsake not the congregation of the poor for ever : arise, O Lord, maintain thine own cause ; and be not unmindful of the voices of them that seek thee. Ps. O God, wherefore art thou absent from us so long : why is thy wrath so hot against the sheep of thy pasture ?

G. Look upon thy covenant, O Lord : and forget not the congregation of the poor for ever. ¶ Arise, O Lord, maintain thine own cause : remember how the foolish man blasphemeth thee daily. A. Alleluya. ¶ For the Lord is a great God : and a great King over all the earth. O. My hope hath been in thee, O Lord : I have said, Thou art my God, my time is in thy hand. C. Thou hast given us Bread from heaven, O Lord : having every delight, and every taste of sweetness.

706 TRINITY xiv. Protector noster. Behold, O God, our defender, and look upon the face of thine Anointed : for one day in thy courts is better than a thousand. Ps. O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts : my soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord.

G. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord : and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most Highest. ¶ To tell of thy loving-kindness early in the morning : and of thy truth in the night-season. A. Alleluya. ¶ O give thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his name : tell the people what things he hath done. O. The Angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them : O taste and see how gracious the Lord is. C. The Bread that I will give is my Flesh : which I will give for the life of the world.

INTROITS AND ANTHEMS

707 TRINITY xv. Indina, Domine. Bow down, O Lord, thine ear to me, and hear me : O my God, save thy servant, that trusteth in thee : have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I have called daily upon thee. Ps. Comfort the soul of thy servant : for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

G. It is better to trust in the Lord : than to put any confidence in man. ¶ It is better to trust in the Lord : than to put any confidence in princes. A. Alleluya. ¶ My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready : I will sing, yea, I will praise thee, with the best member that I have. O. I waited patiently for the Lord, and he inclined unto me : he heard my calling, and hath put a new song in my mouth, even a thanksgiving unto our God. C. Whoso eateth my Flesh, and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him, saith the Lord.

708 TRINITY xvi. Miserere mihi. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I have called daily upon thee : for thou, O Lord, art gracious and merciful, and plenteous in thy loving-kindness toward all them that call upon thee. Ps. Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and hear me : for I am poor and in misery.

G. The heathen shall fear thy name, O Lord : and all the kings of the earth thy majesty. ¶ When the Lord shall build up Sion : and when his glory shall appear. A. Alleluya. ¶ Ye that fear the Lord, put your trust in the Lord : he is their helper and defender. O. Look down, O Lord, to help me : let them be ashamed, and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it ; look down, O Lord, to help me. C. O Lord, I will make mention of thy righteousness only : thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up until now ; forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray-headed.

709 TRINITY xvii. Justus es, Domine. Righteous art thou, O Lord, and true is thy judgement : deal with thy servant according unto thy merciful kindness. Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way : and walk in the law of the Lord.

G. Blessed is the people whose God is the Lord : and blessed are the folk that he hath chosen to him to be his inheritance. ¶ By the Word of the Lord were the heavens made : and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth. A. Alleluya. ¶ The right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass : the right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence. O. I, Daniel, prayed unto the Lord my God, and said, Hear, O our God, the prayer of thy servant : cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary ; and behold, O God, this thy people, who are called by thy name. C. Promise unto the Lord your God, and keep it ; all ye that are round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared : he shall refrain the spirit of princes ; and is wonderful among the kings of the earth.

710 TRINITY xviii. Da pacem. Give peace, O Lord, to them that wait for thee, and let thy Prophets be found faithful : regard the prayers of thy servant, and of thy people Israel. Ps. I was glad when they said unto me : We will go into the house of the Lord.

SUNDAYS AFTER TRINITY

G. I was glad when they said unto me : We will go into the house of the Lord.
¶. Peace be within thy walls : and plenteousness within thy palaces. A. Alleluya.
¶. I was glad when they said unto me : We will go into the house of the Lord.
O. Moses consecrated an altar unto the Lord, offering burnt offerings upon it, and sacrificing peace offerings : and he made an evening sacrifice for a sweet-smelling savour unto the Lord God, in the sight of the children of Israel.
C. Bring offerings and come into his courts : O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

711 TRINITY xix. Salus populi. I am the saving health of my people, saith the Lord God : out of whatsoever tribulation they shall pray to me, I will surely help them ; and I will be their God for ever and ever. Ps. Hear my law, O my people : incline your ears unto the words of my mouth.

G. Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight : O Lord, as the incense. ¶. And let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice. A. Alleluya. ¶. They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the Mount Sion : he who dwelleth in Jerusalem may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever. O. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me, O Lord : thou shalt stretch forth thy right hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me. C. Thou hast charged that we shall diligently keep thy commandments : O that my ways were made so direct, that I might keep thy statutes.

712 TRINITY xx. Omnia quae fecisti. Everything that thou hast brought upon us, O Lord God, thou hast done in righteousness and judgement : for we have trespassed against thee, and have not obeyed thy commandments ; but give glory and honour to thy name, and deal with us according to the multitude of thy tender mercies. Ps. Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised : in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.

G. The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord : and thou givest them their meat in due season. ¶. Thou openest thine hand : and fillest all things living with plenteousness. A. Alleluya. ¶. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice. O. By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept : when we remembered thee, O Sion. C. Remember thy word unto thy servant, O Lord, wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust : the same is my comfort in my affliction.

713 TRINITY xxi. In voluntate tua. O Lord Almighty, every thing is in subjection unto thee : and there is no man that is able to resist thy power ; for thou hast created everything, heaven and earth, and all the wonders which under heaven's vault are contained ; thou art the Lord and King of all things. Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way : and walk in the law of the Lord.

G. Lord, thou hast been our refuge : from one generation to another. ¶. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made : thou art God from everlasting, and world without end. A. Alleluya. ¶. Praise

the Lord, O my soul ; while I live will I praise the Lord : yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God. O. There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job, perfect and upright, and one that feared God : and Satan sought to tempt him ; and power was given him by the Lord over his possessions and over his flesh : and he destroyed all his substance and his sons, and he smote his flesh with sore boils. C. My soul hath longed for thy salvation : and I have a good hope in thy word ; when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me ? they persecute me falsely : O be thou my help, O Lord my God.

714 TRINITY xxii. Si iniquitates. If thou, O Lord, wilt be extreme to mark iniquities : Lord, who may abide it ? for unto thee belongeth mercy, O God of Israel. Ps. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

G. Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is : brethren, to dwell together in unity. X. It is like the precious ointment upon the head : that ran down unto the beard, even unto Aaron's beard. A. Alleluya. X. He healeth those that are broken in heart : and bindeth up their wounds. O. Remember me, O Lord, King of all power : and put a well-ordered speech in my mouth, that my words may be pleasing in thy sight. C. I say unto you, there is joy among the Angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

715 TRINITY xxiii, AND ALL FOLLOWING SUNDAYS UNTIL ADVENT. Dicit Dominus. Thus saith the Lord, I know the thoughts that I think towards you, thoughts of peace, and not of affliction : ye shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto you, and will bring again your captivity from every nation. Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land : thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

G. It is thou, O Lord, that savest us from our enemies : and putteth them to confusion that hate us. X. We make our boast of God all day long : and will praise thy name for ever. A. Alleluya. X. He maketh peace in thy borders : and filleth thee with the flour of wheat. O. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice. C. Verily I say unto you, what things soever ye desire, when ye pray : believe that ye receive them, and it shall be done unto you.

716 DEDICATION OF A CHURCH. Terribilis est. O how dreadful is this place ! this is the house of God, and gate of heaven : and men shall call it the Palace of God. (In Eastertide, alleluya.) Ps. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel : the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength.

G. This dwelling is God's handywork ; it is a mystery beyond all price, that cannot be spoken against. X. O God, in whose presence the choirs of Angels are standing, graciously hear the prayers of thy servants. A. Alleluya. X. I will worship toward thy holy temple : and will sing praises unto thy name. Or, T. Ps. 84. 1-5. O. O Lord God, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all the things ; and now I have seen with joy thy people, which are present here ; O Lord God of Israel : keep for ever this imagination of the heart of thy people. (In Eastertide, alleluya.) C. My house shall be called of all nations the excuse of prayer, saith the Lord : in it every one that asketh receiveth : and he that seeketh findeth, and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

717 AN APOSTLE OR EVANGELIST. Mihi autem. Right dear, O God, are thy friends unto me, and held in highest honour : their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast. Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me : thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising.

G. Their sound is gone out into all lands : and their words unto the ends of the world. ¶ The heavens declare the glory of God : and the firmament sheweth his handywork. A. Alleluya. I first will say to Sion, Behold, behold them ; and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings. Or, T. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord : he hath great delight in his commandments. ¶ His seed shall be mighty upon earth : the generation of the faithful shall be blessed. ¶ Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house : and his righteousness endureth for ever. O. Thou shalt make them princes in all lands : they shall remember thy name, O Lord, from one generation to another. C. Ye which have followed me shall sit upon twelve thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel, saith the Lord.

718 A MARTYR. Gloria et honore. With glory and worship hast thou crowned him : thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy fingers. Ps. O Lord our Governor : how excellent is thy name in all the world.

G. Thou hast set, O Lord : a crown of pure gold upon his head. ¶ Thou hast given him his heart's desire : and hast not denied him the request of his lips. A. Alleluya. ¶ Thou hast (as above). O. With glory (as Introit). C. He that will come after me, let him deny himself : and take up his cross and follow me.

719 AN APOSTLE OR MARTYR IN EASTERTIDE. Proteexisti. Thou hast hidden me, O God, from the gathering together of the froward, alleluya : from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer : preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

A. Alleluya. ¶ Thou hast set, as 718. A. Alleluya. ¶ The righteous shall be joyful in the Lord, and shall put his trust in him : and all the upright of heart shall be thankful. O. The righteous (as above). C. As 718.

720 A BISHOP. Statuit ei. The Lord hath established a covenant of peace with him, and made him a chief of his people : that he should have the priestly dignity for ever and ever. (In Eastertide, alleluya, alleluya.) Ps. My song shall be alway : of the loving-kindness of the Lord.

G. Behold a mighty prelate, who in his lifetime was pleasing unto God. ¶ There was none found like unto him, that observed the law of the Most High. A. Alleluya. ¶ The righteous shall blossom as the lily : and shall flourish for ever before the Lord. O. My truth also and my mercy shall be with him : and in my name shall his horn be exalted. C. As 718.

INTROITS AND ANTHEMS

721 A BISHOP. Sacerdotes Dei. O ye priests of God, bless ye the Lord : O ye holy and humble men of heart, exalt him for ever. (In Eastertide, alleluya, alleluya.) Ps. O all ye works of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise him, and magnify him for ever.

A. Alleluya. ¶ The Lord loved him, and adorned him, and clothed him with a robe of glory. G., O., C. As 720.

722 A CONFESSOR. Os justi. The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom, and his tongue will be talking of equity : the law of his God is in his heart. Ps. Fret not thyself because of the ungodly : neither be thou envious against the evil doers.

G. I have found David my servant, with my holy oil have I anointed him : my hand shall hold him fast, and my arm shall strengthen him. ¶ The enemy shall not be able to do him violence : the son of wickedness shall not hurt him. A. Alleluya. ¶ I have laid help upon one that is mighty : I have exalted one chosen out of the people. Or, T. 717. O. My truth also and my mercy shall be with him : and in my name shall his horn be exalted. C. Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents ; behold, I have gained beside them five talents more : Well done, thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things ; I will make thee ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

723 A VIRGIN. Loquebar. I have spoken of thy testimonies in the sight of princes, and was not confounded : and my delight hath been in thy commandments, which I have loved greatly. Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way : and walk in the law of the Lord.

G. Thou hast loved righteousness and hated iniquity. ¶ Wherefore God, even thy God : hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness. A. Alleluya. ¶ Full of grace are thy lips : because God hath blessed thee for ever. Or, T. Full of (as above). O. The virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company : and shall be brought unto thee. C. The Kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that is a merchant, seeking goodly pearls : who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

724 CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL. Laetemur. Rejoice we all, and praise the Lord, devoutly keeping this festival with due solemnity : wherein Paul, the blessed Apostle, by his wonderful conversion, did greatly illumine this present world. Ps. For the light of his holy preaching : and for the conversion of holy Paul.

G. He that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship, was also mighty in me toward the Gentiles : and they perceived the grace that was given unto me. ¶ The grace of God which was bestowed upon me was not in vain : but his grace ever abideth in me. A. Alleluya. ¶ The Apostle Paul, the chosen vessel : is very worthy to be extolled. O. How dear are thy friends unto me, O God : O how great is the pre-eminence of them. C. Amen, I say unto you, that ye which have forsaken all and followed me, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

725

FEASTS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN.

THE PURIFICATION. Suscepimus (700).

G. We have waited, O God, for thy loving-kindness in the midst of thy temple : according to thy name, O Lord, so is thy praise unto the world's end. ¶ Like as we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill. A. Alleluya. ¶ I will worship toward thy holy temple : and will sing praises unto thy name. Or, T. Nunc dimittis. O. Full of grace are thy lips : because God hath blessed thee for ever. C. It was revealed unto Simeon by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Anointed.

THE ANNUNCIATION. Rorate caeli. Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness : let the earth open, and let her bring forth salvation. (In Eastertide, alleluya, alleluya.) Ps. And let righteousness spring up together : I the Lord have created it.

G. (Before Easter.) Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors : and the King of Glory shall come in. ¶ Who shall ascend unto the hill of the Lord : or who shall stand in his holy place? even he that hath clean hands and a pure heart. And T. And the Angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, Mary, full of grace : the Lord is with thee. ¶ Blessed art thou among women : and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. ¶ The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee : and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. ¶ Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee : shall be called the Son of God. A. (In Eastertide.) Alleluya. ¶ And the Angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee : blessed art thou among women. A. Alleluya. ¶ (One of those of the Resurrection.) O. Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee : blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. C. Behold, a Virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son : and his name shall be called Emmanuel.

726 St. PHILIP AND St. JAMES. Exclamaverunt. They cried unto thee, O Lord, in the time of their misery and trouble : and thou didst hear them from thy holy heaven, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous : for it becometh well the just to be thankful.

A. Alleluya. ¶ The righteous man shall stand in great boldness : before the face of such as have afflicted him. A. Alleluya. ¶ Did not our heart burn within us : while he talked with us by the way concerning Jesus? O. O Lord, the very heavens shall praise thy wondrous works : and thy truth in the congregation of the saints, alleluya, alleluya. C. Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father, alleluya : Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? Alleluya, alleluya.

727 St. JOHN BAPTIST. De ventre. From the womb of my mother the Lord hath called me by my name : and hath made my mouth as it were a sharp sword ; beneath the shadow of his hand hath he hidden me, and hath made me like to a polished arrow. Ps. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord : and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most Highest.

G. Before I formed thee in the belly, I knew thee : and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee. ¶. The Lord put forth his hand and touched my mouth : and said unto me. A. Alleluya. ¶. Among them that are born of women, a greater hath not risen than John the Baptist. O. The righteous shall flourish like a palm-tree : and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus. C. And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways.

728 ST. PETER. Nunc scio. Now I know of a surety that the Lord hath sent his Angel : and hath delivered me from the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. Ps. And when Peter was come to himself: he said.

G. Thou shalt make them princes over all the earth : they shall have thy name in remembrance, O Lord. ¶. Instead of thy fathers thou shalt have children : therefore shall the people give thanks unto thee. A. Alleluya. ¶. Thou art Simon Bar-Jona, and to thee hath been revealed the word of the Father ; not by flesh and blood, but by my Father which is in heaven. O. As 717. C. Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church.

729 THE NAME OF JESUS. In nomine Jesu. In the name of Jesus let every knee be bowed, of things above, and things in earth, and things beneath : and let every tongue confess and acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Ps. O praise the Lord, for the Lord is gracious : sing praises unto his name, for it is lovely.

G. God the Father hath set Jesus Christ at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion : and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come, and hath put all things under his feet. ¶. Help us, O God of our salvation : and for the glory of thy name, O Lord, deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins, for thy name's sake. A. Alleluya. ¶. Sweet to the heart is the name of Jesus Christ : music to the ear, honey to the taste, which turns the heart to joy and praise, and puts to flight the despite of the world. O. In my name shall they cast out devils, they shall speak with new tongues ; they shall take up serpents : and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them ; they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover, alleluya. C. To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna : and will give him a white stone. and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it, alleluya.

730 ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS. Benedicite Dominum. O praise the Lord, all ye his Angels : excelling in power, that execute his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his words. Ps. Praise the Lord, O my soul : and all that is within me, praise his holy name.

G. (As Introit.) A. Alleluya. ¶. In the presence of the Angels will I praise thee, O Lord my God. O. An Angel stood by the altar of the temple, having a golden censer in his hand : and there was given unto him much incense, and the smoke of the incense ascended up before God, alleluya. C. O ye Angels of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : sing ye praises and magnify him above all for ever.

731 ALL SAINTS. Gaudemus. Rejoice we all, and praise the Lord, celebrating a holy day in honour of All Hallows : in whose solemnity the Angels are joyful, and glorify the Son of God. Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous : for it becometh well the just to be thankful.

On St. Mary Magdalene's Day, and other Saints' Days, the name of the Saint may be substituted; and on the lesser days of the Blessed Virgin may be substituted the Virgin Mary: for whose Conception (or Visitation, or Nativity).

G. O fear the Lord, all ye saints of his : for they that fear him lack nothing. V. But they that seek the Lord : shall want no manner of thing that is good. A. Alleluya. V. The saints shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people : and their Lord shall reign for ever. O. O God, wonderful art thou in thy holy places : even the God of Israel, he will give strength and power unto his people ; blessed be God, alleluya. C. The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them : in the sight of the unwise they seemed to die ; but they are in peace.

732 FOR THE BLESSED SACRAMENT. Cibavit eos. He fed them also with the finest wheat flour, alleluya : and with honey from the rock hath he satisfied them, alleluya, alleluya, alleluya. Ps. Sing we merrily unto God our helper : make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.

G. The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord : and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thine hand : and fillest all things living with plenteousness. A. Alleluya. V. My Flesh is meat indeed, and my Blood is drink indeed : he that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. O. The priests of the Lord do offer the offerings of the Lord made by fire and the bread of their God : therefore they shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God, alleluya. C. As often as ye do eat of this Bread, and drink of this Cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come : wherefore, whosoever shall eat of this Bread, and drink of this Cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord, alleluya.

733 IN COMMEMORATION OF THE DEPARTED. Requiem eternam. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord : and may light perpetual shine upon them. Ps. Thou, O God, art praised in Sion : and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem ; thou that hearest the prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come. (The Gloria is omitted.)

G. Rest eternal grant to them, O Lord, and may light perpetual shine upon them. V. Let their souls dwell at ease : and their seed inherit the land. Or this G. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil : for thou, O Lord, art with me. V. Thy rod and thy staff, they have been my comfort. T. (Day of Burial.) Like as the hart desireth the water brooks : so longeth my soul for thee, my God. V. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God : when shall I come to appear before the presence of God? ¶ My tears have been my meat day and night : while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God? T. (Other occasions.) Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hearken unto my voice. ¶ O let thine ears consider well the supplication of thy servant. ¶ If thou, O Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss : Lord, who may abide it. ¶ For to thee belongeth mercy and compassion, and for thy Name's sake have I waited for thee, O Lord. O. (General.) O Lord Jesu Christ, King of Majesty, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the hand of hell, and from the pit of destruction : deliver them from the lion's mouth, that the grave devour them not ; that they go not down to the realms of darkness : but let Michael, the holy standard-bearer, make speed to restore them to the brightness of glory : which thou promisedst in ages past to Abraham and his seed. ¶ Sacrifice and prayer do we offer to thee, O Lord : do thou accept them for the souls departed in whose memory we make this oblation : and grant them, Lord, to pass from death unto life : which thou promisedst in ages past to Abraham and his seed. O. (All Souls.) O kind Creator, who hast recalled the first man to eternal glory : O Good Shepherd, who on thy loving shoulder hast brought again the lost sheep to the sheepfold : O just Judge, when thou shalt come for judgement, deliver from death the souls of them whom thou hast redeemed : nor give to the beasts the souls of them that confess thee, nor forsake them utterly for ever. C. (Day of Burial, Anniversaries, All Souls.) To them in whose memory the Body of Christ is received, grant, O Lord, rest everlasting. ¶ And may light perpetual shine upon them. To them in whose memory the Blood of Christ is received, grant, O Lord, rest everlasting. C. (Other occasions.) May light eternal shine, O Lord, upon them, for endless ages with thy blessed ones, for thou art gracious. ¶ Rest eternal grant to them, O Lord, and may light perpetual shine upon them : for endless ages with thy blessed ones, for thou art gracious.

THE GREAT ADVENT ANTIPHONS.

734 Dec. 16. O Sapientia. O Wisdom, which camest out of the mouth of the Most High, and reachest from one end to another, mightily and sweetly ordering all things : Come and teach us the way of prudence.

Dec. 17. O Adonai. O Adonai, and Leader of the house of Israel, who appearedst in the bush to Moses in a flame of fire, and gavest him the Law in Sinai : Come and deliver us with an out-stretched arm.

Dec. 18. O Radix Jesse. O Root of Jesse, which standest for an ensign of the people, at whom kings shall shut their mouths, to whom the Gentiles shall seek : Come and deliver us, and tarry not.

Dec. 19. O Clavis David. O Key of David, and Sceptre of the house of Israel ; that openest, and no man shutteth, and shuttest, and no man openeth : Come and bring the prisoner out of the prison-house, and him that sitteth in darkness and the shadow of death.

Dec. 20. O Oriens. O Day-spring, Brightness of Light Everlasting, and Sun of Righteousness : Come and enlighten him that sitteth in darkness and the shadow of death.

THE ADVENT ANTIPHONS

Dec. 21. O Rex Gentium. O King of the Nations, and their desire; the Corner-stone, who makest both one : Come and save mankind, whom thou formedst of clay.

Dec. 22. O Emmanuel. O Emmanuel, our King and Lawgiver, the Desire of all nations, and their Salvation : Come and save us, O Lord our God.

Dec. 23. O Virgo virginum. O Virgin of virgins, how shall this be? For neither before thee was any like thee, nor shall there be after. Daughters of Jerusalem, why marvel ye at me? The thing which ye behold is a divine mystery.

For Saturday evenings and for the first Evensong of Holy Days in general, the Hymns marked G, or the hymns set down for the second Evensong on the day itself, are suitable after the Office Hymn, in addition to 282 for Saturdays and 194 for Vigils. Saturday evenings have the same Office Hymn as Sunday evenings, except the eves of the Sunday after Christmas (14), of the Sundays from the Octave of the Epiphany till Lent (49), of the Sundays after Easter (122), of Whit-Sunday (150), and of the Sundays after Trinity (164). But the Office Hymns for the first Evensong of most Saints' Days are the same as those for Mattins, as is shown in the table on p. 913. The Epiphany and Ascension Day (with their Octaves) have the same Office Hymns for first and second Evensong; but in the ancient service-books no hymns are provided for Easter Even. Some hymns for Easter Even as well as for Christmas Eve are suggested in the List above.

LIST OF SIMPLE HYMNS

Suggested as a guide in choosing suitable hymns for Mission Services, for use at Sea, for Catechisms, Schools, and Institutions, and for any occasions when such hymns are required. With regard to the melodies of other hymns, it should, however, be remembered that they are nearly all easy to sing when they are well known. The numbers of hymns which are suitable for both young people and adults are printed in black type; these hymns, together with those in Part IX, will thus form a School and Catechism Hymn Book.

112 Forgive them (Alt. tune).
114 The dying robber raised.
115 At the Cross her station.
116 Throned upon the awful tree.
117 His are the thousand.
118 It is finished!
119 And now, beloved Lord.
120 It is finished! Blessed Jesus.
567 Beneath the Cross of Jesus.
584 There were ninety and nine.

EASTERTIDE

- 126 A brighter dawn is breaking.
127 Alleluya! Alleluya.
128 At the Lamb's high feast.
129 Christ the Lord is risen.
131 Come, ye faithful, raise.
132 He is risen.
133 Jesus Christ is risen to-day.
134 Jesus lives! thy terrors.
135 Love's redeeming work.
137 The Day of Resurrection.
139 Ye choirs of new Jerusalem.
625 The strife is o'er.
140 Lord, in thy name.

ASCENSIONTIDE

- 143 Hail the day that sees him rise.
144 O Christ, our hope.
145 See the Conqueror mounts.
146 Sing we triumphant.
147 The head that once.
149 Thou art gone up on high.

WHITSUNTIDE

- 153 Come, Holy Ghost (Alt. tunes).
155 Come, thou holy Paraclete (Mod.).
157 Our blest Redeemer. [tune].
158 When God of old.
571 Holy Ghost, come down.
631 Spirit of mercy.

TRINITY

- 161 Have mercy on us, God.
162 Holy, Holy, Holy!
633 All hail, adorèd.

EMBER DAYS

- 166 Christ is gone up.
167 Pour out thy Spirit.
168 The earth, O Lord.

DEDICATION

- 171 O Word of God above.

SAINTS' DAYS

- 177 Captains of the saintly band.
178 Disposer supreme.
186 Come, let us join.
196 For all thy Saints, O Lord.
197 Give me the wings of faith.
198 Hark! the sound of holy voices.
199 How bright these glorious spirits.
201 Palms of glory.
202 The Son of God goes forth.
204 Who are these, like stars.
205 Jesus calls us!
206 O thou, who didst with love.
207 We sing the glorious.
209 Hail to the Lord.
210 The highest and the holiest.
216 Ave Maria! blessed Maid.
218 Ye who own the faith.
640 Virgin-born, we bow.
220 The Saint who first.
221 The winter's sleep.
222 The Son of Consolation.
225 Hail, harbinger of morn.
227 Forsaken once.
232 Lord, who shall sit.
236 'Tis good, Lord, to be here.
239 Saints of God! Lo, Jesu's.
240 He sat to watch.
243 Around the throne of God.
244 O God the Son eternal.
245 Stars of the morning.
246 They come, God's messengers.
248 Thou who sentest.
250 If there be that skills.
251 O heavenly Jerusalem.

LIST OF SIMPLE HYMNS

561 Lord, while for all mankind.
563 Once to every man.
565 To thee our God.

See also Part VIII (Mission Services), Part IX (At Catechism) and Part XI (Litanies). In Part X (Processional) the following are the simplest: 614, 615, 626, 632, 638, 641, 643, 644, 645. For Rogation processions out of doors, 647, 565, 650 (alt. tune), and 651 are suitable, in addition to the Prayer-Book Litany, Psalms 103, 104 (also, if required, Psalms 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, 148, with Psalm 67), and the Benedicite. For School and Catechism Festivals 638 is a suitable procession, followed by 243; 604, or 535 (Pt. 2) being sung afterwards before the altar at the conclusion of the service.

No Office hymns are given in the above list; those in L. M. can be sung to any easy tune in this measure, e.g. St. Venantius (18), Deus tuorum (141), or St. Ambrose (193); for those in 11 11. 11 5. Iste Confessor (188), Iste Confessor (2) (435) are easy, and for those in 8 7. 8 7. St. Thomas (31), as well as several others which will be found in the Metrical Index.
