2. How beau – ti – ful the heart that bled
3. How beau – ti – ful the ra – diant bride
4. How beau – ti – ful the feet that bring the wine and the bread, and the sons of the earth.

that took all my sin, and bore it in – stead.
who waits for the groom with His light in her eyes.
the sound of good news, and the love of the King.

How beau – ti – ful the feet that walked
How beau – ti – ful the ten – der eyes
How beau – ti – ful when hum – ble hearts give How beau – ti – ful the hands that serve the long dust – y roads, and the hill to the cross.

that choose to for – give, and ne – ver de – spise.
the fruit of pure lives so that oth – ers may live.
the wine and the bread, and the sons of the earth.

How beau – ti – ful, how beau – ti – ful,

how beau – ti – ful, is the bod – y of Christ.

Bridge (between verse 2 and 3):

And as He laid down His life, we of – fer this sac – ri – fice, that we might live just as He died:

will – ing to pay the price,

will – ing to pay the price.
